

Gridders Tackle Duquesne Today; Track Team Arrives For Penn Relays

Seven Events Set For First Afternoon

Special to the Collegian

PHILADELPHIA, April 23 — The Nittany Lion track team arrived here safely today in preparation for their participation in the Penn Relay Carnival beginning tomorrow afternoon.

The team, led by speedy Barney Ewell, will begin its season which has been looked to very hopefully by Coach Chick Werner in this meet. It has been rated very highly by track experts throughout the country for its outstanding performances in the past indoor season.

One of the events headlining Friday afternoon's program is the 440-yard relay which will feature the cream of the Penn State sprinting crop. Runners in this event will be Don Dolbin, Marty Schiff, Barney Plesser and Ewell.

Another feature of the afternoon will be the sprint medley relay in which Ewell, Dolbin, Gene Nevill, and Norm Gordon will represent the Lions. The "legs" of this run are two 220-yard dashes, one 440-yard run, and one half-mile run.

Other events to be run the first afternoon of the meet are the two-mile run, 400-meter low hurdles, and 120-yard low hurdles. Field events scheduled are shot and discus.

Saturday's events are the 880-yard relay, two-mile relay, four-mile relay, freshman mile relay, pole vault, hammer, javelin, broad jump, and high jump. Included also will be the special invitation 100-yard dash in which Ewell will represent Penn State.

BUY DEFENSE STAMPS AND BONDS

SPEEDY GENERAL — Barney Ewell will lead the Lion track team in its invasion of Philadelphia for the Penn Relays today

Lions Handicapped By Loss Of Alston

Campus football fans will receive an extra treat this weekend since Bob Higgins has announced a scrimmage against the Duquesne Dukes for this afternoon in addition to the regularly scheduled game for High School Day.

New Beaver Field will be the scene of the home preview of what next Fall's Blue and White eleven will look like with the scrimmage scheduled for 4:15 p.m.

Both teams have a record of one win for the Spring practice schedule, since the "Iron Dukes" whipped a veteran West Virginia grid team by a 12-0 count last weekend while the Nittany eleven was winning over Navy at Annapolis by a two to one touchdown margin.

However, the Higgins-coached outfit may have to go into the fray with the Smoky City team without the services of Dave Alston, freshman tailback, who sustained an injury to his left eye in the battle with the Midshipmen. Alston has not returned to campus from his stay in the Naval Academy hospital, but is expected back today.

Probable lineup for the Blue and White will have John Potoskian and Will Van Lenten, ends; Mike Kerns and Ken Schoonover, tackles; John Jaffurs and Leo Noble, guards; and Lou Pallazzi, center, in the forward wall, while Aldo Cenci, Cliff St. Clair, Bud Davis, and Jack Banbury will start at the backfield posts.

Duquesne will probably use the same seven linemen that started against the Mountaineers last Saturday, with Val Jansante and George Kisiday at the ends; John Matisi and Joe Cibulas, two 220-pound All-American prospects, at the tackles; Ben Keller and Joe Fay at the guards and George Istvan at center.

Veterans Max Kielbasa, Joe Setcavage, and Joe Goode will start in the Duke backfield with Forest Hall, outstanding prospect from last year's frosh team, who scored one of the six-pointers against West Virginia.

Latest reports from both camps indicate an individual battle between two "scooter" backs, since Hall only weighs 149 pounds and Davis, Alston's replacement, weighs in at 155.

13 Events Scheduled For IM Track Day

Another request for intramural track, golf, and golf putting entries was made last night by Eugen C. Bischoff, intramural head.

Contestants are limited to two of the running events, which include the 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 440-yard dash, half mile, mile, and the 110-yard low hurdles.

If entered in two running events, the contestant is allowed to compete in only one of the field events. The shot put, discus, javelin, high jump, broad jump, pole vault, and hammer throw are included in the field division.

Lion Nine Stacks Against Syracuse

(Special To The Collegian)

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 23 — Coach Joe Bedenk and his undefeated baseball team arrived here at 7 o'clock tonight and rested before their encounter with a strong Syracuse squad on that university's diamond at 3:30 p. m. tomorrow.

Although Coach Bedenk was hesitant about naming his starting hurler, he indicated that Southpaw Ed Tuleya would get another chance on the mound to go after his third win. Tuleya started against Muhlenberg but was off form, and Warren Pyer finished with a brilliant performance.

If Tuleya doesn't get the nod, Paul Lazar, senior, is the other alternative, although the opposition usually has no trouble in collecting hits from Lazar. He was nicked for 16 hits in the Gettysburg fray.

Saturday the Lions will hit the road again to play a return game against Colgate who is seeking revenge after the 6-3 setback registered here last week by Tuleya.

Three catchers made the New York trip, including Oggie Martella, George McWilliams, and Francis Donovan. Captain Bill Debler will be relied on for first base duties; Fran Farris or Ed Sebastianelli can handle the second base post; Sparky Brown and Tom Sidler will take care of third, and Whitey Thomas will be stationed at short stop.

Outfielders on hand will be Joe Piontek, Bob Perugini, Jack Burford, and John Ebersole.

Phi Delta Theta Enters IM Soccer Semi-finals

Phi Delta Theta became the first semi-finalist in the fraternity division of the intramural soccer tournament after their 1-0 defeat of Phi Sigma Kappa No. 2 on the golf course fields last evening.

In the only other game run off Alpha Chi Sigma No. 1 defeated Sigma Alpha Epsilon with a corner kick in an extra period.

Linksmen Meet Bisons Here Saturday; Lineup Remains Unchanged

Penn State's golf team will resume relations tomorrow with Bucknell University when the Bison linksmen come here. Coach Rutherford said yesterday that the Bucknell team is good and will give the Nittany golfers some strong opposition.

After winning the match with West Virginia here last Saturday 9-0, the Lion linksmen have been out on the course for their first full week of practice this Spring.

Chuck Seebold, Bob Wallace, Jim Swan, and Dick Stephens are slated for positions on the starting team Saturday. The other two players will be Jim Kramer and Bill Smiley, if they maintain their positions in the squad matches against Joe Brucher and Ed Fairchild.

College Men . .

Commencement is just around the corner . . . You can SAVE by buying your suit now! We still have one group of nationally known 100% all wool custom-tailored suits . . . Don't wait! Come in and see them . .

SUITS

100% All Wool

One Group

Formerly were $40 - $50

24.95

Every suit carries its own Nationally Advertised Label.

FROMM'S

Opposite Old Main

PENN STATE CLASS RINGS

L. G. Balfour Co.

109 S. Allen St. in Charles Fellow Shop

JUNIORS—

WHO DO NOT EXPECT TO RETURN TO SCHOOL FOR THE SUMMER SEMESTER—ARRANGE FOR YOUR LA VIE PICTURE IMMEDIATELY AT THE PHOTO SHOP. CALL 2345 FOR APPOINTMENT.

PENN STATE PHOTO SHOP

212 E. College Ave.

Dial-2345

ORGANIZATION MEETING

for all

FRESHMEN WHO WISH TO TRYOUT FOR THE

EDITORIAL OR BUSINESS STAFFS OF

THE DAILY COLLEGIAN

+ + +

TUESDAY, APRIL 28, 7:30 P. M.

ROOM 9, CARNEGIE HALL

+ + +

This Meeting Especially For Freshmen Who Have Not Attended Other Meetings

2200 RESERVED SEATS ON SALE AT STUDENT UNION

PENN STATE ON PARADE SATURDAY, APRIL 25

2500 GENERAL ADMISSIONS ON SALE AT 6 P. M., APRIL 25

ALL COLLEGE CIRCUS

(Everything from Ballet to Muscle Grinds)

8 P. M. REC HALL

ADULTS 50c—CHILDREN 25c