

Cwens Elect Longenecker

Mary Grace Longenecker '45 is the new president of Cwens, sophomore women's honorary, it was announced by Dorothy L. Jones '44, retiring president, at initiation ceremonies Sunday.

Other officers include Julia H. McFarland '45, vice-president; Ruth A. Embury '45, secretary; and Miriam L. Zartman '45, treasurer. Louise M. Fuoss '43 will serve as senior advisor, and Miss Jones will be junior advisor. Miss Mary J. Stevenson, assistant to the dean of women, is faculty advisor.

Honorary members of Cwens who attended initiation include Miss Charlotte E. Ray, dean of women; Miss Marie Haidt, associate professor of physical education, and Miss Cordelia Beech, secretary to the dean of women, who was formerly a Cwen.

Twenty-three freshman women were initiated into Cwens. They were tapped at the annual Mother's Day breakfast in McAllister Hall Saturday, April 18.

Panhel Will Elect Council Officers

Panhellenic Council's regular meeting will be held at the Phi Mu house at 7 p. m. today, according to Frances E. Haley '43, president.

Present members and newly delegated persons are asked to attend the meeting for election of officers. The rushing committee will present details of the proposed code for Council discussion before it is sent to the Senate Committee on Student Welfare for approval.

Final arrangements will be made for the installation coffee hour in southeast lounge, Atherton Hall, from 6:45 to 7:45 p. m. tomorrow.

Pauline E. Keller '43 will become Council head, three others will be elected to assisting offices, and an alumnae advisor will be chosen.

ANNOUNCES SUCCESSOR—Dorothy L. Jones '44, former president of Cwens, sophomore women's honorary, announced the election of Mary Grace Longenecker '45 as new president at initiation ceremonies Sunday.

We, The Women Coney Island Comes To College

Something new has been added to Penn State. No, it's not a defense course, another department, a new prof, a building, or a prize cow. It's a miniature Coney Island.

Sun-bathing is a wonderful pastime. We like to see coeds lie in dormitory courts getting tanned and rested at the same time. But after the sun goes down and coeds go in to compare tans and to rub lotion on red shoulders, the grass is practically obliterated by newspapers, cigarette packages, orange peelings, and upside-down porch furniture.

Since we are going to classes this Summer and can't go to the shore, let's bring the nice, clean beaches to us—and not Coney Island.

Atherton Hall inhabitants, by the way, aren't the only offenders. The number of empty bottles on front campus the other day made us wonder if there really is a coke shortage.

We don't like to sound like a nagging school teacher who tells her children to be good on the playground. But neither do we like to see dormitory courts resemble high class rubbish heaps.

Visiting Prof To Dine With Hostess, Coeds

Mrs. Anna B. Searle, Atherton Hall hostess, and six coeds will entertain Prof. Clarence B. Shedd of Yale University at luncheon today.

Dr. Shedd, who recently completed a study of religion on all state university campuses in the nation, will be at the College until Monday.

Entertaining with Mrs. Searle will be Dorothy K. Brunner '44, Jean E. Hershberger '43, M. Elizabeth Howe '42, M. Virginia Krauss '44, F. Doris Stevenson '44, and Miriam L. Zartman '45.

'Farewell, Seniors'-- Coeds Say

Delta Gamma's Hailed Consolation Champs

Delta Gamma defeated Phi Mu, 12-7, to capture the championship in the softball consolation tournament on Holmes Field yesterday. The DG's remained undefeated in this tourney after being automatically placed in it by two losses in the intramural tournament.

Skeets Knecht and Anne Borton brought in one homer each for the DG's while Ollie Van Houten scored three runs for the Phi Mu's.

Members of the winning team are Anne Borton, Peggy Coe, Betty Cresswell, Jan Hartz, Sue Hay, Marty James, Barbara Keist, Skeets Knecht, Kay Loesch, and Mary Lou McCully.

Gassmann '43 Will Head IWA

Hazel E. Gassman '43 was unanimously elected IWA president at last night's meeting, climaxing the semester's work. Retiring head, Sylvia P. Schmidle '42, expressed thanks to former workers and congratulations to new officers.

Others chosen to head the organization are Margery A. Magargel '44, vice-president; Jeanne R. Shipman '43, secretary; Dorothy M. Stover '43, treasurer; Dorothy L. Shoemaker '45, social chairman; and Martha J. Haverstick '43, athletic manager.

IWA members will sponsor discussions for freshman women entering in the Summer semester, offering opportunities for joining the organization. Individuals will make clear the purpose and functions of the independent women's group.

A committee to plan an all-College dance in Recreation Hall, August 15, was appointed. Committee members are Miss Shoemaker, chairman; Juniors Joanne M. Palmer, Miss Shipman, and Aleda Snow, and Miss Magargel.

Tentative plans were made for a picnic in Hort Woods at the beginning of the Summer semester for all independent men and women. Miss Gassmann, Miss Magargel, and Miss Shipman will be IWA representatives on the joint committee.

Executive picnic and dance committee members will meet in second floor lounge, Old Main, at 7 p. m. Monday, it was announced.

HE Club To Bake Rookies Cookies

Baking "cookies for rookies" will be a major activity of the Ellen H. Richards club, junior home economics honorary, in next semester's schedule.

Other activities are a benefit bridge party, home economics faculty reception, making and selling fruit cakes, and student-faculty panel discussions on home economics.

A committee including E. Jane Barnes, Margaret L. Campsey, Ruth E. Conrad and Marie E. Weiss was appointed to plan a picnic for the next meeting.

M. Janet Garbaugh, Edith D. Dengler, and Diana Novich were named to appoint coeds to guide visitors through the Home Economics Building. A third committee including E. Jane Barnes, Lucille Barton and Mary B. Grimeson was appointed to notify members of the club meetings.

Music Club Elects

Elizabeth E. Munroe '43 was elected president of the Louise Homer Club, women's music honorary, recently. Other new officers are Martha N. Albert '43, vice-president; Reta J. Jenkins '44, secretary; Margaret M. Lams '43, treasurer. Jean E. Hershberger '43 was initiated at the meeting.

Sororities, Dorn Schedule Parties

With graduation only a few weeks away, dormitory units and sororities have planned parties and picnics to honor graduating seniors.

Atherton Hall northwest unit will entertain 32 seniors at a party from 10 to 10:30 p. m. tomorrow. After games and refreshments, seniors will be presented with gifts. Committee in charge includes Juniors Jean F. Fisher, chairman, Julia A. Barney, Margaret L. Campbell, Marjorie M. Lovejoy, and Martha Reichley.

Twenty seniors are invited to a party in Atherton Hall southeast lounge from 10 to 11 p. m. tonight. They will be escorted by unit councilors. Games, refreshments, and singing have been planned by Sara M. Bailey '43, refreshment chairman, and Ruth L. Kiesling '43, entertainment chairman.

Invitations have been sent to the 25 seniors in Atherton Hall northeast unit to attend a party from 10:30 to 11:15 p. m. tomorrow. Plans are being made by Jean A. Kelly '43, social chairman, assisted by Ada Lord '43, Beatrice M. Edgar '44, and Nell H. Wortman '44. Geraldine A. Custer '43, unit president, will preside at the meeting.

Alpha Omicron Pi seniors will be entertained at supper at 5 p. m. Sunday by Mrs. Edward G. Dill, financial advisor, at her home. A picnic for 13 seniors in Holmes Woods at 4 p. m. tomorrow is being planned by Chi Omegas and town mothers. Kappa Alpha Theta will give a picnic for seniors at 5 p. m. Wednesday. An informal party will be given by Theta Phi Alpha for seniors at 3:30 p. m. Saturday. Alpha Xi Delta will present gifts to seniors.

Delta Gamma gave a party for seniors Saturday night; Alpha Chi Omega held a picnic for seniors, in Hort Woods Thursday, and Alpha Epsilon Phi held one there Saturday. Alumni of Zeta Tau Alpha entertained seniors at breakfast at the Corner Room Sunday, and Gamma Phi Beta gave gifts to seniors at a picnic in Hort Woods recently.

Emanon and Phi Mu have not yet completed plans for honoring seniors.
