

Netmen Down Gettysburg 6-3

Displaying speed and accuracy in the singles, the Lion netmen regained their winning stride with an impressive 6-3 triumph over Gettysburg on the varsity courts yesterday.

The Lions sewed up the contest early by sweeping five of the six singles matches and one of the three doubles. The Bullets were awarded one doubles match on a forfeit. The win was the third in six starts for the Rocketmen, giving them a .500 standing.

At the number one position for State, Cy Hull continued his winning pace by stopping Richards in straight sets, 6-2, 6-4. Ace Parker baffled Gettysburg's McKee with his fast breaking service, 6-1, 6-1.

Playing at number three in the absence of Captain Chuck Bowman, who was in Philadelphia on personal business with Uncle Sam, Bill Lundelius came through with a speedy 6-3, 6-0 win over Ademsen.

Johnny Knode defeated Myers of Gettysburg after a close second set, 6-0, 7-5. Still handicapped by an injured shoulder, Al Hendler bowed to Stick, number five man for the Bullets, 2-6, 2-6.

In the singles final, Herb Kraybill rallied to edge E. McKee, 6-4, 6-8, 6-4. The victory was Kraybill's fifth in six singles contests.

In doubles Hull and Parker overwhelmed Richards and Myers in straight sets, 6-2, 6-0. Knode and Lundelius were nosed by Ademsen and Stick, 4-6, 5-7, and Hendler and Kraybill were forced to default to Gettysburg in the doubles.

West Virginia Visits Here This Weekend

Navy's strong baseball team made Penn State its 11th victim yesterday afternoon as the Mid-dies, leading throughout the contest, batted out a 9-3 win over the Lions at Annapolis, Md.

The defeat makes the third straight for the Blue and White, and contrasts with the record of four straight victories the Beden-coached nine boasted before playing away. Since leaving the Nittany ball field, the Lions dropped contests to Syracuse, Colgate, and Navy.

For the first time in two weeks the Lions will play on the New Beaver field diamond when West Virginia comes here this weekend for two games. The first is carded for 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

At 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon the varsity team will take on the Mountaineers for the second time.

Coach Leo Houck will see his freshman nine in its first scheduled match of the season when the Nittany freshman squad battles Cornell's yearlings at 12:30 p. m. Saturday.

Fran Farris, who shifted to the outfield to give Sophomore Ed Sebastianelli experience at the keystone base, still leads the team's batting average with .478, although he had a .727 a week ago when the Blue and White were on the crest of a victory streak.

Next in line is Ed Tuleya with .429, and Whitey Thomas with .389. Bill Sidler, third baseman, climbed to a .375, and is followed by two catchers, Oggie Martella and George McWilliams, both sporting .333 figures.

With the fall of most of the individual averages, the team mark also dropped from .378 last week to .285 at present.

Track Team To Leave Tonight For Michigan

After the hard workouts which good weather has permitted this week, the Lion track team will leave tonight for East Lansing where it will open its dual meet season with Michigan State Saturday.

At the same time, the frosh trackmen will open their dual season at home in a meet with Cornell freshmen on New Beaver Field at 2 p. m.

The team's good showing in the Penn Relays Carnival Friday and Saturday offers hope for a very successful dual season. Saturday's meet will be followed Wednesday by one at home with Temple and one next Saturday at Pittsburgh.

In the Michigan State meet last year, held in conjunction with the PIAA meet, State was victorious. Outstanding events in the day's show were Gordon's winning the mile and two-mile and Ewell's winning three events, 100 and 220-yard dashes, and broad jump.

Between The Lions

With DON DAVIS Sports Editor

The Missing Stickman

Imagine lacrosse Coach Nick Thiel's surprise when, while on a lacrosse trip in Maryland last Spring, he was asked how Tom Mitchell was making out on his frosh team. It seems that Tom had been on the All-Maryland squad while at Friends School in Baltimore, yet Nick was forced to admit that Tom was not only missing from his frosh squad but that he didn't even know he was here at State.

On his return to the Nittany valley, Coach Thiel lost little time in searching for this hidden stick-wielder. To his dismay, Tom was no where to be found. Further investigation, however, resulted in the discovery of Maryland's lacrosse son at the DuBois Undergraduate Center. And with a 2.6 average at that. Need it be said that Tom soon transferred to State.

As a sophomore, Mitchell is already making a name for himself with the varsity. He scored three goals against Navy and one against Cornell from his inside attack position. His knee was hurt in the Cornell game and this was one major reason for the Lion's defeat at the hands of Syracuse according to Thiel. Starring in yesterday's game, Tom was Lion high scorer with 2 goals. This may have sounded a little like a dime novel tale but that's the way it strikes us. Just to think that "one of the

Maryland Whips Lacrossemen, 11-5

Lacking the necessary scoring punch yesterday afternoon, Penn State's lacrosse team lost a 11-5 game to a powerful Maryland outfit on New Beaver Field.

The Lion squad muffed many of the opportunities that they had to score but, nevertheless, turned in the best defensive game they have played this season and, in many cases, took the offensive play against the raiding visitors.

Rated as one of the best teams in the country, the winning Terrapins capitalized on their tricky handling of the ball and scored with deadly accuracy.

Tom Mitchell, outstanding sophomore, who hails from Baltimore where he gained honors when he was chosen to the 1940 all-Maryland high school lacrosse team, led the Lion offensive attack as he tallied two of the five Nittany goals.

The remaining Penn State goals were chalked up by Mark Singley, Bill Piper, and Charlie Temkovits, each getting one past the Maryland goalie.

The starting lineup for Penn State included Singley, in home; Mitchell, out home; Koch, first attack; Temkovits, second attack; Ritter, center; Pittenger, second defense; Ziegenfus, first defense; Brimer, cover point; Gotwals, point; and Saler, goalie.

best lacrosse players we've ever had" as Thiel put it, was almost stranded at the DuBois Undergraduate Center.
