Li'l Abner To Run Ahead Of Schedule For Spinster Skip

To keep tradition up with the Summer semester, Li'l Abner will be chased in an out-of-season Sadies Hawkins' Day, as Mortar Board, senior women's honorary and sponsor of the annual dance, makes plans for Spinster Skip to be on Friday, June 19.

Committees for the informal dance, appointed by Kathryn M. Popp '43, acting president, include Juniors Lila A. Whoolery '43, general chairman; Patricia MacKinney, decorations; Marjorie L. Sykes, orchestra; Louise M. Fuoss, publicity; Margaret K. Sherman, invitations; and Miss Popp, tickets.

At the meeting yesterday Marjorie R. Chambers '43 was appointed chairman of Senior Sponsors. Mortar Board members and 12 other coeds will serve as Senior Sponsors for freshman women enrolled for the Summer semester.

Sponsors will hold weekly meetings with freshman groups and discuss orientation problems. Discussion topics will include extra-curricular activities, budgeting time, dating, and manners and dress. Because of lack of sufficient time for traditional orientation programs, more emphasis will be placed upon Senior Sponsor meetings.

RELEASES PROGRAM — Ann Drivas '43, WRA president, announced the coed recreational program for the Summer semester yesterday.

Room Deposits Due At Bursar's Today

Women students returning for the Summer semester who have not yet turned ten dollar room deposits into the bursar's office, should do so by 4:30 p. m. today, requested Miss Nina M. Bentley, assistant to the dean of women. Deposits will be deducted from next semesters' fees.

Coeds whose checks are late in arriving should contact dean of women's office. Those women who signed for Summer semester rooms and who do not intend to return should cancel the reservation.

Cards are being printed and will probably be issued this week to women who signed for Fall semester rooms. Ten dollar deposits for these rooms are to be sent to dean of women's office within a week after they are issued, Miss Bentley pointed out.

HE's To Pre-Register

Compulsory pre-registration day will be held for home economics students, including hotel administration men, in the Home Economics Building from 1 to 5 p. m. tomorrow, according to Mrs. Elizabeth W. Dye, associate professor of home economics. Home economics classes will be dismissed during these hours, but other classes will be held.

We, The Women Co-op Living Offers Lesson In Democracy

Four years ago, 50 students desired to provide an economic mode of living for men and women who found it necessary to work for their education. After pooling resources, they were responsible for the formation of Penn State's first co-operative house.

Out of this unobtrusive beginning grew Nittany and Allen Street Co-ops, which were soon assimilated into the ever increasing national co-operative movement. In these establishments, students live more economically and enjoy a social life that would be next to impossible if they resided in small secluded rooms.

Not only is this movement important because it provides a means for students to remain in college who would otherwise be unable to, but it is to be commended for its down-to-earth, democratic code and functioning.

With members evenly dividing the work and sharing the responsibility of running the co-op, all have equal opportunity to secure its advantages. Men wait on and set tables, wash dishes, and do the house handy work, while women help the hired cook to prepare meals and do the weekly wash.

Co-operative membership is open to any one. With the two houses campaigning for new members, the movement is steadily growing stronger on campus.

The democratic principle set forth in the co-op motto, "Let's work together" is worthy of consideration and deserving of the highest praise.

Information pamphlets and membership applications may be obtained at the deans' offices, Christian Association office, Student Union desk, and Allen Street and Nittany Co-ops. S.L.H.

A "work party" for students remaining in State College will be held at the PSCA cabin from May 13 to 15. Interested persons may sign at the CA office.

Tars To Get Coeds' Candy

With the deadline for contributions to the drive for "Bars for Tars" set at 10 a. m. today, WSGA House of Representatives has already sent over 400 candy bars to the crew of the USS Atlanta, anchored in New York harbor, according to Sylvia P. Schmidle '42, committee chairman.

Two boxes were sent yesterday, some of the bars containing names and addresses of coeds who wish to correspond with sailors. Final donations of candy or money must be in the office of the dean of women by 10 a. m. today, with an expected 100 bars to be sent.

Committee in charge of the candy contributions included, besides Miss Schmidle, Janet M. Hartz '42, Janet Herzog '42, Yetta Froimson '44, and Suzanne M. Hay '44.

Plans are in progress for similar drives to collect articles for military units next semester.
