

Independents Plan Picnic

As a result of a joint meeting of IMA and IWA representatives, final plans have been completed for a picnic sponsored by the two organizations.

The picnic, to be held in Hort Woods, from 3 p. m. to 7 p. m. Sunday, is open to all students, independent and fraternity, stated Hazel E. Gassmann '43, IWA president. Tickets, now on sale at Student Union, are 25 cents per person, including refreshments.

Committee in charge of the affair includes Seniors: Miss Gassmann, C. Brooke Jones, Richard S. Kurtz, IMA head, and Juniors: Harriette Block, Margery A. Margal, and Kehl Markley, 3rd.

All students are invited to attend a scavenger hunt, sponsored by IWA, to begin in Grange playroom at 9 p. m. Friday, said Miss Gassmann. Admission will be 20 cents a couple.

IWA meeting will meet at 8 p. m. Tuesday, place to be announced later, according to Miss Gassmann.

WRA Clubs Plan Sports Day Skits; Arrange Activities

Skits for WRA Sports Day in White Hall Saturday, June 13, are being organized and participants have been chosen by several activities clubs which will give freshmen a glimpse of athletics at Penn State. Practice will be held in White Hall gymnasium at 1 p. m. Saturday, June 6.

Plans for an honorary Archery Club were discussed at a meeting last night, according to Kathryn H. Thomas '43, club president. To qualify, coeds must belong to the Archery Club, make 40 points at 50 yards, 60 points at 40 yards, and 85 points at 30 yards. Point scores are for 4 ends or a total of 24 arrows at each distance.

A cabin party at the WRA Lodge will be given by the Bowling Club Saturday, June 20, it was decided at a meeting last evening. Committee in charge includes Georgianna M. Holt '45, chairman, Louise R. Brown '43, and Carol M. Gorman '45.

Bowling alleys will be open every Monday through Friday at 4, 6:30, and 8 p. m. as practice periods with instructors, according to Martha J. Haverstick '43, club president.

Intramural golf will begin in several weeks, Eleanor M. Freedman '44, Golf Club president, has announced. Miss Freedman urges that coeds brush up on their game before four tournaments, dates of which will be announced later. Tournaments will include a putting contest, handicap tournament, the All-College tournament, and a blind bogey in which contestants order of playing are drawn from a hat.

Election of new officers will be held at the Golf Club meeting on Holmes Field at 6:30 p. m. today.

Jeans, Hurraches—Favorites With New Mexico Students

By SALLY L. HIRSHBERG '44 Mexican hurraches, moccasins, blue jeans, and slacks are the most popular items in the 1400 New Mexico students' wardrobes, men and women alike, said Sophomore Mary Jo McDougall, transfer from the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque.

A coed wearing a denim skirt is considered fairly dressed up. "I never saw a fellow in class wearing a coat," she added.

Although her home is in Butler, Pa., and although she always wanted to attend Penn State, Miss McDougall's desire to see another part of the country made her decide to spend a year at New Mexico.

"You have 16 typewriters to our 5," said Miss McDougall, as she looked around The Daily Collegian copy room. A math major, she remarked that on The Lobo, New Mexico's semi-weekly paper, men and women were on one staff.

We, The Women Honest, Fellas, We Don't Need Posies

Honest, fellas, we don't need corsages.

Lots of time we don't even have any place to put 'em because our dresses are designed to be complete (or incomplete) in themselves. And so we stick 'em in our hair or tie 'em on our wrists. Since the war, we've realized that an artificial posy plus a dash of perfume would do almost as well.

Please don't think us unromantic. Sure, there's something about a bunch of roses, a cluster of gardenias, or maybe an orchid, that we do like.

Also, if you don't buy us posies, some students and awful nice florists will lose a lot of money. That's the biggest reason—honest—why we have been hesitating to tell you that we wouldn't mind going "sans fleurs" for the duration.

Maybe you think that it's kinda dumb of us to write all this now, when there isn't even one big formal this weekend. But we just wanted to be sure that you all understand before dance committees start conniving.

All-College Cabinet seems to agree with the idea because they passed a "strong" recommendation that All-College dance committees skip flowers for the duration.

But then we remembered that there will be a lot of smaller dances—like Cwens and fraternity and sorority formals—whose sponsors maybe didn't hear about the Cabinet suggestion.

And we thought it might be a good idea to tell them that the majority of coeds would prefer to see their dates spend the money ordinarily spent for flowers on defense stamps—or just keep the money for themselves.

Senate Appoints Steiner, Drumm To WSGA Judicial

Honorary Announces Pledging Exercises

Louise Homer Club, women's music honorary, will hold pledging exercises at the Delta Gamma house at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, according to Elizabeth E. Munroe '43, president.

Membership qualifications, Miss Munroe stated, include a 1.5 average for both music majors and non-music students. Two consecutive years participation in some campus music organization are necessary for the latter group. Bids are extended to upperclass women only, she announced.

WSGA Senate approved the appointment of Sophomores Alice E. Drumm and Ruth M. Steiner to Judicial for the Summer semester last night. They will substitute for Carolyn K. Champlin and Ruth A. Ernst, both sophomores, who will return next semester, announced Marjorie L. Sykes '43, Judicial chairman.

To give freshman women an opportunity to attend mixers sponsored by honoraries and Old Main Open House Friday, June 12, Senate granted 10:30 permissions. The second change in the two week non-dating period was the moving up of one of the two monthly one o'clock permissions for Collegian Dance June 20. The second one o'clock permission may be used the last weekend this month.

Following the non-dating period, freshman women will be granted nine o'clock permissions on week nights, two one o'clocks a month, and eleven o'clocks on remaining Friday and Saturday nights.

Margaret K. Sherman, WSGA president, announced that freshman women will be allowed two o'clocks a month, special permissions, for parents' visits only.

HE Club To Hold Frosh Lawn Party

Social committee of the Home Economics Club planned a lawn party for freshman women to be held in front of Grange Dormitory at 7 p. m. Wednesday, June 17, Ruth E. Yocum '43, committee chairman, announced last night.

Other committee members are Seniors Margaret M. Rizza, Esther M. Hall, and Mary Lou Goyne.

Club committee chairmen elected are Jean E. Wissenger '43, membership and initiation; Betty J. Aumiller '45, publicity; Mabel E. Satterthwaite '43, program; Jane E. Barnes '44, music; and Marie E. Weiss '44, journalism.

Edith D. Dengler '44 will be official club representative to the National Home Economics convention at Boston, June 21 to 25.

New Coeds Come From Five States

From Illinois to New York freshman coeds will arrive at College during the coming week. Representing five states, 103 women are scheduled to register, according to Miss Ruth H. Zang, assistant to the dean of women.

Out of state students include one each from Illinois and West Virginia, four from New York, and four from New Jersey. Ninety-three women are native Pennsylvanians with seven from State College.

Lower division of Liberal Arts will have largest coed enrollment with 45, home economics is second with 36. Others are 6 in physical education, 3 each in chemistry and pre-medical, 2 each in agricultural and biological chemistry, horticulture, and medical technology.

Lone coeds will register in engineering, bacteriology, chemical engineering, and pre-veterinary courses.
