

Track Team To Enter July 4 Meet

In its only meet of the Summer season, the Lion track squad will 'don its spikes again next Saturday to face the squads of Cornell, Colgate, and Syracuse in a four-cornered Army-Navy relief meet in Ithaca, N. Y.

The meet will include sprints, a 440-yard dash, 880-yard run, and half-mile relay. It will be the only meet of the Summer and will be considered separated from the Spring season.

Of note in pre-meet statistics will be the entry in the meet of three members of the freshman squad of this Spring, Gerry Karver, Cliff St. Clair, and Bill Shuman.

These men, now upperclassmen, will be eligible for competition during the Summer, but will not, by that competition, lose a year of eligibility for competition. Their competition in this meet is of special interest.

The three men broke freshman records during the Spring season: Shuman, the 440; St. Clair, the half mile and Shuman's 440 mark; and Karver, the mile.

Phi Deltas Top Section 4; Sigma Nu Tie For 2nd

By MILT DOLINGER

Taking over the Independent mushball league top spot by virtue of a 15 to 0 shutout over Jordan Hall, the Canal St. Firehouse leads the race going into the home stretch by a margin of one game.

Again it was the clouting of Johnny Silan and the mound work of Borsa that sewed up the one-sided contest. Allowing only two hits, Borsa fanned 12 bewildered dorm men in rapid succession, in addition to scoring two runs himself.

Canal Street . . . 030 057 0-15
Jordan Hall . . . 000 000 0-0

PSC Loses Another

Watts Hall enabled the Penn State Club to keep its record of no games won unblemished, when they rang up another tally for themselves, 12 to 5. Lovell pitched for the victors, while Johnson hurled for the Penn Staters. Lovell also slugged a home run with the bases loaded to win his own game.

Watts Hall . . . 102 054 0-12
Penn State Club 100 000 4-5

FRATERNITY LEAGUE

Section 4 of the Fraternity league was the only one that saw action last night as Theta Chi set Sigma Nu back to a tie for second place by a score of 9 to 5. Winning moundsman Goss held the sigma Nu-ers to 9 hits. Mattern held down the pivot post for the losers.

Theta Chi 201 330 0-9
Sigma Nu 200 003 0-5

Phi Psi Ties For 2nd

Phi Kappa Psi deadlocked Sigma Nu for the runner-up position when they shut out Delta Sigma Phi 9 to 0. Elliott was the winning pitcher.

With the IM mushball leagues in their final stages of play, co-managers John Silan and Edgar Gales have announced that inasmuch as there are four sections to the Fraternity league, playoffs will be decided by all the top teams in the various groups playing off for championship, while all the second place squads battle it out for second. The third and fourth places will be settled in like manner.

Freshmen Compete For Baseball Spots

Having answered Coach Leo Houck's call for candidates for the yearling baseball nine, forty freshmen have been competing hotly during the past week for spots on the novice squad.

Coach Houck stated yesterday afternoon that there are a number of good prospects for the infield positions but that the squad was lacking in good pitchers and outfielders.

Soph Hurlers Need Experience, Says Lion Baseball Catcher

If Penn State's baseball schedule were heavier, the Lion nine would have a pitching problem, for only one player is capable of going the full distance on the mound and making a go of it.

Whitey Pyer who will probably start against Washington and Jefferson in a game here Saturday is the only veteran moundsman on the team. The other hurlers are sophomores, badly in need of experience.

George McWilliams, first string catcher, who is in a good position to know pitchers, said that soph hurlers start on the mound too sure of themselves.

"They try to throw the ball past the batters," he said. "Then when the opposition hits they lose confidence and blow up. I think a few more games will get them used to it though, and we'll have some good pitching."
