

Late News
Flashes . . .

SUMMER
RATES
$1.00

The Daily Collegian

SUMMER
SESSION
SPECIAL

OF THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE

VOL. 39—No. 24

SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 27, STATE COLLEGE, PA.

PRICE THREE CENTS

BASEBALL SCORES

American League
Detroit 3, Athletics 1
New York-Chicago (night)
Boston-Cleveland (night)
Washington-St. Louis (night)

National League
Brooklyn 5, Cincinnati 4, (10 in-ings)
Giants 4, Pittsburgh 2
Chicago 6, Boston 4
Phillies-St. Louis (night)

EGYPT—The British position in the Egyptian crises becomes more grave by the hour. The English are calling up the eighth division of their best trained fighting men in a last effort to halt the tide of General Rommel's hard-pressing forces. The impending battle will no doubt be the determining factor in the future domination of this important sector.

WASHINGTON — Reliable Washington sources state that American war productive and distributive facilities are keyed to their topmost efficiency. During the month of May, American airplane and tank plants turned out 4,000 airplanes and 1,500 tanks. British war marshals state that they are far superior to those employed by the Axis.

MOSCOW—Russian forces defending Leningrad are being forced slowly back. Although they report the slaughter of tremendous numbers of Axis troops, they are unable to stem the tide of the constantly reinforced Nazis.

July 4 Travel
Cut By Defense

Students can no longer depend on buses and trains for week-end travel. Traffic out of State College over the 4th of July week-end will be seriously curtailed also.

According to a representative of one of the bus companies, no seats on any bus can be guaranteed for travel that is not essential, except on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Where approximately 25 buses usually hauled the students from State College to their homes on holidays, there will be only a very small increase in the regular facilities for the coming holiday. Since there is no official College holiday, no arrangements are being made for early departures.

First chance on bus and train reservations are being given to members of the armed forces, traveling on furlough to see their families. Where there are two people waiting with only one available seat, the soldier receives preference.

Second in line for priority on travel reservations are defense workers on vacation. This is in line with the policy adopted by the transportation companies to aid in the war effort to the utmost degree.

On many runs, parallel service has been discontinued, so that where there were formerly several lines to choose from, there is now only one. Added to this is the fact that transportation companies

Baseball Scores On Page Eight

Rabbi Steinbach, Jewish Scholar, Talks Tuesday

Rabbi Alexander A. Steinbach, noted Jewish scholar, will speak to students and faculty members on the subject, "Things that Bombs Cannot Destroy," in Room 110 Home Economics Building at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Dr. Steinbach is a member of the Advisory Board of the School of Jewish Studies, the Central Conference of American Rabbis, the American Academy for Jewish Research and the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis.

Summer Faculty Salaries Cut 30 Percent
Summer Session Swells Wartime Enrollment

3-Semester Plan
Forces Salary Drop

Since a cut is necessary because of the reduced income of the College, now operating on a 12-month plan with a budget considerably lower than the one for the regular ten-month term, staff members who now hold ten-month contracts with the College and who will be needed for the months of July and August will receive salaries at a 30 per cent cut from their regular monthly rate.

This plan was revealed by President Ralph D. Hetzel in a letter mailed yesterday to faculty staff members.

The budget for this year was not drawn up until the amount of student fees, principal source of income from which salaries can be drawn, was determined for the semester. Federal and State appropriations are the only other source of College income and these have not been increased over the amounts set for the regular two-semester year.

Separate contracts for the next two months will be offered to all faculty members needed for the summer work. However, Dr. Hetzel stated that members are under no obligations to accept these contracts.

Commenting on the plan, Dr. Hetzel wrote:

"While changes in selective service and other war measures can upset our forecasts overnight, it is now reasonably certain that our enrollment for each semester will be considerably below that of corresponding semester of last year, but that the total enrollment for the three semesters will be a little larger than the total for the two semesters of last year. The income from student fees, although correspondingly larger for the year, will not be great enough to pay in

Continued On Page 8

Entries Due July 6

All entry sheets for Summer session students participating in tournaments are due at the Student Union desk by July 6. Miss Marie Haidt, White Hall, and Earl Edwards, Rec Hall, are in charge. Tournament schedules will be posted July 8.

Varied Activities Planned To Make
Summer A 'Hale And Hearty' One

Summer session recreation plans call for varied activities everyday between June 30 and August 5 to make the Summer a "Hale and hearty one," Miss Marie Haidt and Earl Edwards, co-chairmen of the recreation program, announced last night.

Dancing classes, bike trips, a riding club and several tournaments will be offered to satisfy the tastes of the Summer semester student, as well as a Latin American fiesta, Town Carnival, and a Talent night.

Arrangements for mixed group swimming parties in the Glennland pool have been made for Tuesday and Friday nights from 7 to 10 p. m., and Saturdays from 1 to 5 and 7 to 10 p. m.

Special tickets, offering 16 swims for $1 can be obtained at the Bursar's office.

Men Summer session students will find Recreation Hall open daily at 3 p. m. for handball, bad-

Rain Fails To Stop
Open House As 1,200
Make Event Success

Steady rainfall, starting in the early afternoon, failed to keep over 1,200 students, faculty members and townsmen from attending the open house in Old Main last night.

The program was carried out as originally planned, with the exception of the pop-concert which had to be postponed," Gerald B. Maxwell Stein '44, OMOH chairman, announced last night.

"The social dancing in the first floor lounge and the motion picture in the "Little Theater each brought in approximately $20," he added.

Organizations and people responsible for the program's success, according to Stein, were Samuel G. Fredman '43, Hazel E. Gassman '43, Miriam Zartman '45 and Nancy Zartman '43 in charge of the fashion show.

Dan Curley, Max H. Chehoweth '43, and Mrs. Earl E. Klinge in charge of square dancing; Richard S. Kurtz '43, IMA president; Adele J. Levin '44, WRA; Ray M. Conger, Marie Haidt, department of physical education; Paul Alamar '46, PSCA and Fred E. Kelly, department of visual education.

Globe Trotter To Speak
Here Thursday Night

"Our Neighbors Down the Road" is the title of the lecture to be given in Schwab Auditorium Thursday, July 2, at 8:30 o'clock by Herbert C. Lanks, noted lecturer, photographer, author, and globe trotter.

The lecture will consist mainly of Mr. Lank's experiences during a thirteen thousand mile automobile trip to gather material for his new book, "By Pan American Highway Through Mexico."

A Latin American fashion show with five coeds modeling Latin American costumes, will be given in 405 Old Main at 11 o'clock in the morning by Mrs. Lanks. She will also have exhibits of Latin American art and handicraft.

BANDMASTER—Dr. George S. Howard, head of music program under the extension service, will be director of the Summer session band. He will be in charge of the Band School along with Prof. Hummel Fishburn.

Open Band School
For Third Year

For the third consecutive year, the music department will conduct its band, orchestra and chorus school during Summer Sessions starting Monday, Prof. Hummel Fishburn, head of the department, announced yesterday.

The school will be under the direct supervision of Dr. George S. Howard, head of the music program under the extension service, Professor Fishburn, and Pierre Henrotte, for 15 years concertmeister and conductor of the Metropolitan Opera House orchestra. Mr. Henrotte will conduct the Summer Sessions orchestra.

The school will be open to boys and girls of high school age, serving as a training ground and laboratory situation for teachers of music. It will include daily band, orchestra, and chorus rehearsals, section rehearsals, small ensembles, marching drills, drum majoring, and conducting.

It will furnish for teachers taking graduate work a contact with recent developments in teaching methods using the school as a clinical laboratory.

Program for students enrolled in the school will include marching, colors ceremonies in front of Old Main each morning at 8:50 o'clock, daily rehearsals for symphony orchestra, symphony band, and chorus. Chorus rehearsals will be under the direction of Prof. Frank Gullo, instructor in music education.

Recreational plans for members of the school include community sings, student recitals, concerts, an all-College dance, excursion trips, and a vesper service.

LaVie Pictures

Seniors should observe appointments to take pictures for LaVie; Martin H. Duff '43, editor, announced last night. Duff said that students could use their appointment postcards as excuses for cutting a class to take the pictures.

Activities Crowd
Six-Week Program

With the enrollment of an expected 1,200 Summer session students in Rec Hall Monday, Penn State will have its largest Summer enrollment in the history of the College, and one of the fullest activity programs ever witnessed by a full-time student body here.

Registration hours for the graduate students are from 8 a. m. to 12 noon, and from 1:30 p. m. to 5 p. m. Fees will be payable at the Bursar's office, next Friday from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m.

First assembly of the Summer session students will be conducted in Schwab auditorium at 7 p. m. Tuesday when the student sing will occupy the program. Assemblies will be held on Monday nights during the rest of the session.

An illustrated color-sound lecture by Herbert C. Lanks, noted Latin-American traveler, entitled "Our Neighbors Down the Road," will be given in Schwab auditorium at 8:30 p. m. Thursday.

Initiating the recreation program will be a social dancing class for beginners in White Hall at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday. A bike trip is the second activity, planned for 7 p. m. Wednesday. Fun nights, tournaments in 13 Summer sports starting July 8, talent night, and use of pools and gymnasiums are included in the recreational program.

An exhibit of water color paintings of Eliot O'Hara will be opened Monday morning and continue for two weeks.

Mrs. Herbert Lanks will lecture on Latin-American costumes in 405 Old Main at 11 a. m. with five coeds as models. It will mark the start of a Latin lecture series. Pre-

(Continued on Page Six)

Student Union Board
Combines Alumni,
Dad's Weekends

Combining Dad's Day with Alumni Day was found necessary by the Student Union Board at a meeting yesterday in order to space the Fall semester's crowded social calendar more evenly. Both the Dads and old grads will be honored on the weekend of October 2, 3, and 4 when Bucknell comes to State College to face the Lion football squad.

Interfraternity Ball has been scheduled for October 23, the night before the Colgate football game here, while Military Ball has been moved back to October 30 from September 25.

Other major social events of the semester include the combination of Senior Ball and the Pitt gridiron game here on November 20 and 21 respectively. Junior Prom is scheduled for December 11, just one week prior to the end of the semester and graduation for the class of '43.

Also on the fall calendar are two freshman mixers scheduled for September 12 and 19; The Daily Collegian Dance on October 10; WRA dance on October 17; and the Syracuse football game here on November 7. As yet no date has been set for Fall House-party but it is believed that the Greek groups will probably include their houseparties with either the IF Ball or Senior Ball weekends.