

Bedenkmen Win 5-1 Over W&J; Lion Golfers Top Centre Hills, 6-3

Nittany Co-Captains Lead In Links Win

Four of the six Lion golfers came through on Saturday to chalk up another win for Penn State on the College course, when the Nittany linksmen defeated the Centre Hills Country Club, 6-3.

In the first foursome, Co-captains Dick Stephens and Bill "Ducky" Swan easily stopped their opponents, Stephens defeating Bramble, captain of the Country Club team, 5 and 4, while Swan took over Stuart, 8 and 7. Stephens posted medal honors with a 70, while Swan turned in a 72. Par for the course is 69.

Claude Decker and Bill Leitzell won the only matches for Centre Hills when they stopped Fairchild and Smiley, 2 and 1, and 3 and 2. Jim McCormick, PS, knocked off Gene Pearce, 5 and 3, and George MacClay took Jim Hanley, 2 and 1.

Stephens and Swan took best ball for Penn State, as did McCormick and MacClay. Leitzell and Decker won best ball in their foursome. Leitzell turned in third highest score for the medal honors on the Country Club team, a 74.

The 6-3 score doesn't tell the whole story, however, for each team had an extra ten players on the course. The Nittany golfers rolled the totals up to 18½ to 5½. Only one of the College entrants lost in this group.

The 16 players for each side swelled the ranks of the contestants almost to tournament size. The Lions easily took over the Country Club visitors. The two teams will meet again on July 11, when Penn State plays Centre Hills on the Club course.

Fans are anticipating the return meet because it will be interesting to see if the home team has an advantage when playing their own links.

Naval Reserve Tennis Tilt Rained Out

The varsity Lions' tennis match with the service team of local Naval Reserve lieutenants was postponed indefinitely Saturday after an all-day rain had made the courts too soft and slippery for play.

The match will probably be re-scheduled for a week day later in the season, since all weekend dates are already filled.

The Lions will remain inactive over the coming July 4 weekend, but will resume play July 11 when they meet a team comprised of members of the faculty.

MIGHTY PLEASED — Baseball Coach Joe Bedenk was well satisfied with Penn State's 5-1 victory over Washington and Jefferson when he found a good pitcher in sophomore Mike Wardrop. The Lions also went nine innings without an error.

'46 Baseballers Lack Pitchers

Lacking good pitchers for the freshman baseball team, Coach Leo Houck stated yesterday that he would not schedule any games for the team unless he can find a suitable hurler.

"However," Coach Houck continued, "some freshmen who have turned out for other positions on the squad are potential pitchers and with a little work I believe I can convert them into moundmen."

Having watched candidates practice for the past week, the frosh mentor released the names of some who have "looked good" in workouts.

Aspirants who have made the best showing so far are Jack Gracey and Anthony Mazzocco, infielders; Wayne Kreidler, first base; Jérôme Stern, Jack Landy, and John Berlin, catchers; Clayton Smith, third base; and Leo Yankosky, outfielder.

Basketballers Called

Freshman candidates for basketball have been asked to report on the gymnasium floor in uniforms at 6:30 p. m. today. Informal practice will get under way with "Whitey" VonNeida and Larry Gent, members of the varsity, in charge.

Lions Errorless Despite Wet Field

Mike Wardrop, sophomore on the Lion baseball team, joined the ranks of dependable Penn State hurlers when he turned in a five-hit 5-1 win over Washington and Jefferson's nine here Saturday afternoon.

Despite the most slippery field of all season, Coach Joe Bedenk's baseballers played flawless ball, going all nine innings without an error. In a previous contest this season, the Nittany diamondmen were marked up for seven miscues.

Penn State's seven hits from the Presidents' hurler, McMann, were well scattered, with six players getting singles, and Bob Perugini clouting the only extra base hit of the game, a double.

The Blue and White collected four of its five runs in the third, fourth and fifth innings on six hits. The visitors scored in the fourth frame when two safeties sent a man to third base and a long fly enabled him to score after the catch.

Wardrop, untried this season, marked his first game on the mound for the Penn State varsity in garnering the win. Mike walked one batsman from the opposition and struck out three.

Four of the nine players who took the field were sophomores. Wardrop hurled, Jack Weber played first base, putting Captain Bill Debler in the outfield; Dale Bower was stationed at second base, and Don Sandercock occupied the third base post.

Two Navy Examiners Visit Campus Today

Ensign David I. Jacobs and Dr. R. B. Hill will be in 132 Sparks from 1 to 5 p. m. tomorrow and possibly Thursday to interview students interested in the Navy's V-7 program, and to give preliminary physical examinations.

The Naval representatives will also swear in those students who have previously passed their physical examinations and who now have the necessary credentials.

A sound film based on the newly formed V-1 program, and explaining the V-5 and V-7 programs, will be shown in 121 Sparks at 8 o'clock tomorrow night. All interested students are asked to attend the feature, at which time Ensign Jacobs will answer all questions on the Naval Reserve programs.

Portfolio On Sale

The first Summer issue of Portfolio, Penn State's literary magazine, is now on sale at Student Union and at downtown news stands. A special Summer session subscription plan has been announced.

Houses Enter Final Round In IM Tournament

With mushball squabbles in the Fraternity league headed for a close in the next week, only Phi Delta Theta in Section 4 has concluded all their tilts to come out with a clean slate.

Other teams are still undefeated, but have one or more games yet to play. Over the weekend, Phi Sigma Kappa virtually clinched Section 2 with victories over Alpha Chi Sigma and the Beaver House aided by the slugging of Pete Scott and the mound work of Arnold.

A shakeup in the managing end of the intramural sport saw Bob Redmount '44 assume the managership as co-managers John Silan and Ed Gales left for practice teaching. Redmount announced that when the Independent league draws to a close on July 4, another complete round will be played.

All the other Fraternity sections will also wind up on July 4, but only tie teams will play the week of July 4 to 11 to determine the champs in each league who will then play around for the title. Only the Section champs can vie for first place, but second and third place squads will play among themselves for the runner-up positions.

Sunday's tussles saw the Penn State Club forfeit to Irvin Hall in the only Independent league tilt. Outstanding game among the Fraternities was manifested when Phi Sigma Kappa defeated Alpha Chi Sigma, 7 to 3, as Arnold gave up only 5 scattered hits.

Phi Kappa Psi scored a 4th inning riot over Sigma Phi Alpha to romp in, 13 to 8. Walker out-pitched his rival, Reber, allowing 10 hits to his opponent's 12. Mohney was heavy hitter for the Phi Psis.

In a close game, Beta Sigma Rho edged out Delta Upsilon, 6 to 5, coming from behind in the seventh to do it. Warshal pitched for the Beta Sigs, outmaneuvering opposing moundman, Kerns.

Hank Yeagley's 3-hit pitching sparked the Phi Delta Thetas to a shut out win over Sigma Nu in last night's encounters, 7 to 0. The Phi Sigma Kappas remained undefeated as Arnold held the Beaver House to seven hits to top them, 5 to 2.

Walloping Watts Hall by a 20 to 2 score, Electric Diner was the only Independent squad to taste victory last night.
