

WSGA Seeks Cooperation

"Summer session students residing in campus dormitories must abide by dormitory rules established by WSGA for regular Summer semester coeds," announced Margaret K. Sherman '43, WSGA president, last night.

"We are not trying to hold student government rules over the heads of Summer session students but are asking their cooperation with dormitory regulations," said Miss Sherman.

Regulations will be clarified by Miss Sherman for students in West Atherton at 6:30 tonight and in East Atherton at 6:45 tonight. Meetings for those living in Grange, McAllister Hall and Women's Building will be scheduled later this week.

Summer session students are required to abide by coed hours. Closing hour on weekdays is 11 p. m. while curfew on Friday and Saturday nights rings at 1 o'clock.

Although Summer session students are not required to sign out for weekend one o'clocks, they must get permission from their hostesses and sign out during the week when classwork or extra curricular activities necessitate permission later than 11 p. m., requested Miss Sherman.

Miss Sherman stressed that Summer session students, as well as regular Summer semester students, cooperate with dormitory quiet hours: noon to 1 p. m., 4 to 7 p. m., and 9:30 to 10 p. m.

Visiting HEc Prof To Talk On Housing

Miss Mary Mason, visiting professor on the home economics Summer session staff, will speak on "Housing Problems in the Present Emergency" in 110 Home Economics Building at 4 p. m. tomorrow. This is the second in a series of general meetings sponsored by the department.

While on campus, Miss Mason, assistant professor of home economics at Texas State College for Women, Denton, Texas, is teaching a course in housing and is resident advisor in Benedict Home Management House.

'No English' Rule Controls Institute; 16 Women Eat, Study, Live French

By JANE H. MURPHY

With a "Nous l'aimons tres beaucoup," meaning "We're crazy about it," 16 coeds at the College French Institute voiced their approval of the six-weeks' course being offered this Summer for the fourteenth time.

Promising to obey the "No English" rule, strictest requirement of the setup, students with at least three years of college French are welcome to apply for admission, according to Prof. Frederic Ernst, Institute director.

Madame Jeanne Ernst, faculty member and wife of the director, has charge of women students who live at Locust Lane Lodge, home of the school for the first time. A majority of the students are teachers, seven of whom will receive their Master's degrees this Summer.

Madame Ernst was born in central France, studied in Paris, and came to America in 1920. She is a member of the Dalton School faculty, New York City.

Although a native of Belgium,

Professor Ernst has spent eight years in France. At present professor of French at New York University, he attended the University of Wisconsin, did newspaper work in Paris, and started the Institute here in 1929.

To celebrate Bastille Day Monday, July 14, French students will give a dramatic production, and hold a program of song and instrumental music, the professor announced.

Institute students attend morning classes and have afternoons free. Special lectures and parties are held approximately three times a week, according to Professor Ernst. A well-planned program will climax the season, at which time a medal will be presented to the person who has made most progress. They will be judged by a student committee.

Professor Ernst, who has watched all grades of students matriculate at the school, said, "The first ten days are the hardest, but after that it's a game that is no trouble at all to play."

US Asks Students For Rationing Cards

To aid national defense, the government is asking all persons eating 12 consecutive meals in any one place to turn their sugar rationing cards over to the management. Women students are requested by Mrs. Edith M. Johnson, supervisor of Atherton Hall dining commons, to hand cards in at dining commons offices in Atherton and McAllister Hall before and after lunch and dinner by the end of this week.

Those who sent cards home should have them returned, she stated. Tickets, originally planned for weekly use, are now punched by the month. Because of this, ticket five should still be in the book. Tickets entitle persons to half a pound of sugar per week.

Women's dining commons are permitted half the amount of sugar used at the same time during last year, Mrs. Johnson said.

Jane E. Karam '45 was elected president of Frazier Street Dormitory. Frances A. Brown '45 is their new WSGA House of Representatives delegate.

Levin Announces Membership Drive

To increase enrollment in WRA activities clubs, a membership drive is now in progress, according to Adele J. Levin '44, WRA activities chairman. All coeds interested are urged by Miss Levin to attend meetings and sign up.

Clubs include: Monday—dance, 4 p. m.; Tuesday—archery, 6:30 p. m.; bowling, 6:30 p. m.; tennis, 7 p. m.; Wednesday—badminton, 6:30 p. m.; bridge, 7:15 p. m.; golf, 6:30 p. m., postponed tomorrow but practice at caddy house, 3 p. m. Thursday; Thursday—outing, 6:30 p. m.; swimming, 7:30 p. m.

Lakonides, women's physical education honorary, will sponsor a party on Holmes Field and in White Hall from 7 to 11 p. m. tomorrow for all undergraduates, graduates, and professors in physical education.

Entertainment will include games, contests, singing, and dancing. Refreshments will be served.

Lions Take Four Firsts

Maintaining their undefeated stride despite Barney Ewell's absence from their ranks, the Nittany spikemen came through with four first places, more than any other entry, in the Army-Navy Relief meet in Ithaca, N. Y., Saturday.

Paced by sophomore distance ace Gerry Karver, who won easily in the mile with a time of 4:30, they copped three individual titles and the only team title, a "Swedish relay."

Other individual firsts went to Mac Smith who defeated Colgate and Cornell entries in the half to come home the winner in 1:58.2 and Ed Young who took top honors in the 120-yard high hurdles. Young, ineligible during the Spring season, led even Barney Plesser, senior Lion hurdler, who took a third.

The relay team which took the group title was made up of Marty Schiff, Bob Jones, Bill Shuman, and Cliff St. Clair. Schiff and Jones, running the 100 and 220-yard legs respectively, took and held first position. On the third leg Shuman dropped behind, but St. Clair, in a final drive, brought the Nittanymen home ahead of the field.

Although team scores were not counted, the Lions amassed what would have been a greater number of points than any of the other three teams competing, Cornell, Colgate, and Dartmouth.

Forum Heads Elected

Freshman coeds elected to head PSCA Forum committees are: worship—Elizabeth J. Funkhouser, chairman; and Barbara Anderson, vice-chairman; program—Sarah Jane Schmidt, chairman; and Mary Ann Higgins, vice-chairman; music—Margaret L. Chapman, chairman; Peggy Lou Johnston and Iva Ann Kepler, vice-chairmen; publicity—Jeanette M. Ehlers, chairman; and social—Louise Ann Ritter, chairman, and Patricia L. Borman, vice-chairman.

Two new town patronesses, Mrs. Charles Petnick and Mrs. Otto Kalin, were guests at a Sigma Delta Tau coffee hour in Atherton Hall, southwest lounge, last night.

Phi Delt Annex IM Section Crown With 5-1 Victory

Led by Moriarta, Phi Delta Theta annexed the title in the hotly contested Section 4 of the Fraternity Intramural Mashball League last night by a 5 to 1 victory over Phi Kappa Psi. Moriarta contributed a fine five-hit pitching performance, as well as chipping in a homer.

Delta Chi took the measure of Beta Sigma Rho in a playoff game in Section 3, 12-10. A big second inning that netted the Delt six runs provided a margin that the losers were unable to overcome.

Today Delta Chi meets Alpha Sigma Phi and Sigma Phi Alpha plays Theta Chi in playoff games at 5 p. m.

Activity continues in the Independent League with Matils tangling with Jordan Hall and Fairmount Hall meeting Canal Street Firehouse at 7 p. m.
