

DeMarino, Former Dean's Aid, Gridder, Commissioned Ensign

Ensign Danny DeMarino, past assistant dean of men and Lion football star and coach, was graduated from the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Saturday, with a class of 300 former collegiate sports stars.

Ensign DeMarino will be stationed at the Naval Reserve base in Detroit, and will report there for duty shortly. Graduate from the College in 1938, Danny played three years of varsity football under Coach Bob Higgins. After graduation, he assisted Marty McAndrews in coaching the freshman grid eleven for three years, and also served as coach of the College junior varsity.

During the past year Danny was appointed assistant dean of men to aid Dean Arthur R. Warlock. He also served as counselor for the men's dormitories.

Pyer Stars, But Baseballers Lose To Cornell, 8-7

There wasn't enough Whitey Pyer to go around at Cornell Saturday when the Lion nine went down to an 8-7 defeat after leading the Big Red, 7-4, at the end of the seventh inning. Pyer was taken out for a pinch hitter in the seventh.

As a result, the Penn State baseballers are more determined to upset the Ithacans when they return for another match in State College August 31, Victory Weekend. In the meantime, Coach Joe Bedenk and his boys have two battles against Colgate this Friday and Saturday afternoons on the home grounds at New Beaver field.

Two games scheduled against Lock Haven State Teachers' College, here Tuesday and away on July 27, have been cancelled because the Teachers are unable to form a team.

Three times the Blue and White held leads over Cornell, only to have them tied or passed. In the first half of the fifth frame, Penn State held a 1-0 advantage, but the Big Red tied it up. Again in the sixth the Bedenkmen jumped ahead, 2-1, only to have a three-run Cornell rally send the New York Staters to the front, 4-2.

Unleashing a five-run attack in the seventh, the Lions batted around the list and came out on the top end of a 7-4 count. It was in this inning that Jack Burford pinch hit for the blonde high-handed hurler, making it necessary for Sophomore Ray Bolger to take over the mound position in the eighth.

DU Scrambles Section 1 Standings With 9-7 Win

Canal Street, Jordan Hall Also Score Wins

Delta Upsilon put the skids under the league leading Phi Deltas by a 9-7 score yesterday, scrambling the Section 1 standings and putting the Tekes in undisputed possession of first place.

Among the Independents, the Canal St. Firehouse, with Art Borsa twirling, continued their domination in the league when they took full advantage of their five hits and an equal number of Electric Diner errors to register a 6-1 win. In winning this game the Firemen got a measure of revenge for a previous defeat suffered at the hands of the Diner. That loss had been the first one suffered in league play by Canal St. in four years.

Also in the Independent league, Jordan Hall moved into second place, breaking the previous three-way tie, when they registered two four-run innings in topping Fairmount Hall, 12-10.

Mike Kerns, in his comeback win for DU, also led his team's hitting attack with two safeties. Lead-off man Charlie Philips had a perfect night at bat for the Phi Deltas with three for three at the plate.

Netmen Stopped By Cornell, 7-2

For the second time this year Penn State's varsity tennis squad has travelled to Cornell only to be handed a shellacking by the powerful Big Red championship aggregation. This time they absorbed a 7-2 thumping on the latter's courts last Saturday.

Herb Kraybill, at the number two spot, and Bill Lundelius, at number four, were the only Lions able to carry their singles matches as the Roethkemen dropped four singles and all their doubles matches.

Cy Hull, Lion captain playing at the number one spot, was turned back 6-3, 9-7, by McNair of Cornell, who defeated the Lion star during his freshman year in their only other meeting.

Kraybill coasted to an easy win over Engles of Cornell by 6-1, 6-4 scores, and Lundelius came from behind to trounce Bailey, 6-4, 7-5, of Cornell [k'uMS

In the other singles matches, Dick Armbrust fell before the slants of Frick, 6-2, 6-2; Stan Spurgeon was defeated by Williams, 6-3, 6-3; and Jim Lawther dropped the final singles to Adolph of Cornell, 6-1, 6-1.

In the doubles McNair and Bailey of Cornell teamed to edge Hull and Kraybill after a long see-saw two set match, by 9-7, 6-4 scores.

Frick and Smith of Cornell trounced Spurgeon and Lundelius, 6-1, 6-1, and Updegrove and Adolph combined to take the measure of Armbrust and Lawther, 9-7, 9-7.

WRA Clubs Sponsor Co-Rec Tournaments In Archery, Bridge

A co-rec archery tournament to be held in front of White Hall is being planned for 2 p. m. Saturday, Adele J. Levin '44, WRA activities chairman, stated after a meeting of club presidents yesterday.

Those who do not wish to enter competition may shoot for pleasure, Miss Levin added. All persons interested should sign up at Student Union.

A co-rec bike supper hike to WRA Cabin is scheduled for Sunday night, according to Miss Levin. Students who wish to participate should leave their names at Student Union.

Another co-rec attraction is being planned by the Bridge Club in the form of a tournament outside White Hall Tuesday, July 28.

A round robin singles tournament will climax a two weeks instruction and practice period of the Badminton Club. Outdoor courts will be used. The club meets at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday and newcomers will be welcome, said Miss Levin.

Maryland Tops Lion Lacrossemen

Ending the lacrosse season in a blaze, that is, a heat wave, the Lion stickmen dropped both decisions in the matches played over the weekend with Johns Hopkins and the University of Maryland.

South of the Mason-Dixon line, the temperature on Saturday ranged around the 95 degree mark—this, coupled with a lack of substitutes, accounts for a great deal of the hard fight Nick Thiel's stickmen had on their hands.

Charlie Henderson, Howie Hausner, Bill Piper, Bill Briner, Larry Faries, George Pittenger, Captain Jim Gotwals, Tom Mitchell, Sam Flenner, and Bob Koch started the game, while Stu Sussman, Stan Cohen, Dick Hemp-hill, Rocky Kern, Dick Rross, Al Sessler, Dick Schmidt, and Charlie Hauth saw action when the reserves were shoved into the breach.

Golfers Win Fourth Straight Match Taking Over Cornell Linksmen, 8-1

Lion Squad Now Rates As Eastern Leader

Knocking the Big Red for a loss, the Penn State golfers stormed the course at Ithaca Saturday to defeat Cornell, 8-1. This is one of the most impressive victories of the season and definitely puts the Nittany linksmen in a class by themselves in the East.

Winning the only victory in the weekend sports program, the Lion golfers, led by Co-captains Dick Stephens and Bill Swan, swamped the Big Red for the second time this Summer.

Stephens continued his winning streak, and turned in the medal score of the meet, a 74. Stephens has lost only one match this year, and that to Burns at Colgate, who is a local boy there and has played the course for years. Swan was close behind Stephens with a 76.

Stephens and Swan won their matches 7 and 5 and 3 and 1. They took best ball 4 and 3. Kirchner from Cornell topped Fairchild in the next one, 3 and 2, for the Raider's only score. Dick Hastings, playing number four, downed his opponent, 3 and 2, and the Lion players won best ball 2 and 1.

Charles Maclay and Jim McCormick easily turned down their rivals, 3 and 2, with the terrific score of 9 and 8 popping up in the

Fisherman's Paradise Nets 21,175 Catch, Highest In 9 Years

Penn State fishermen helped set a record trout catch this year at Fisherman's Paradise, near Bellefonte. According to totals released after the close of the trout season Saturday, 21,172 trout were caught.

The record, which covers the period since this year's opening of the Spring Creek project, May 15, is the highest in the nine-year period in which the angler's "heaven" has been in operation, according to C. Ross Buller, chief fish culturist.

Although attendance decreased, with 1,225 fishermen visiting the stocked waters, more fish were caught per person. Fish killed this season were 1,136 fewer than 1941, when 7,563 trout were killed. Second highest mark was registered in 1940 when 18,750 trout were caught by 1,553 persons. It was also during 1940 that the record 27-inch, six and one-half pound rainbow trout, was taken.

McCormick duel.

This is the fourth straight for the Lions this Summer. Three more games are on the schedule, two with Colgate and one with Cornell, all at home.
