

Dean Requests Definite Fall Room Plans

Women students who have campus rooms reserved through the dean of women's office to state whether they plan to return for the Fall semester in order that capacity rooming facilities may be used, Charlotte E. Ray, dean of women, announced yesterday.

Post cards will go out to students not enrolled for the Summer semester and hostesses will reach women within their jurisdiction.

With the largest number of freshmen entering this Fall, Miss Ray stated that it was likely that the new class would be housed in McAllister Hall and Women's Building as usual with a large number filling town dormitories unless other campus space becomes available. Twelve such homes are already scheduled to have new frosh and transfer women, she added. Included in this group are four town co-operatives.

If adequate space is available, transfers will be admitted as usual until the end of the Summer semester, Miss Ray pointed out. This provision is made since many transfer's credentials are not complete until the end of Summer work elsewhere.

According to Miss Ray, it is likely that freshmen now residing in McAllister Hall and Women's Building will be moved to upper-class dormitories in September in order that the entering class members may be together.

Because of the continued flow of requests for admission, further room arrangements and placements will be made as soon as definite plans are laid out by the administrative committee, Miss Ray stated.

WRA To Hold Night Of Square Dancing

Because of numerous requests for a square dancing program and because of its popularity at the last Co-Rec Night, WRA will sponsor an All-College square dance and weiner roast Friday, August 21.

The affair will be held in the parking lot across from White Hall at 8 p. m., Adele J. Levin '44, program chairman, announced.

Directed by Mr. Chauncey P. Lang, associate professor of agricultural extension, dances will include "Virginia Reel," "Hinky, Dinky, Parlez-Vous," "Take A Little Peek," "Duck for the Oyster," "Head Ladies Cross Over," and others.

Music will be provided by a sound truck and refreshments will be sold.

Assisting Miss Levin in planning the program are WRA club presidents.

McAllister Hall coeds held an exchange dinner with Fairmount Hall Tuesday.

Alpha Epsilon Phi pledged Freda Weinberg '46 Monday.

Stamp Sales Continue As Total Nears $700

With organizations continuing the sale of defense stamps and bonds on campus and in town, The Daily Collegian publishes up-to-date totals.

Mortar Board, senior women's honor society, has taken charge of sales in Atherton Hall and McAllister Hall once a week. Members of Alpha Omicron Pi, women's social sorority, and high school students have been on duty daily at the Cathaum and State theatres.

Results are:
Dorms since July 2 .....$ 51.85
Theatres since July 15 .. 640.85

We, The Women Atherton, Irvin, Mac, Or Watts?

Out of the maze of rumors which always accompany any proposals regarding rooming facilities, we struggle to present a few facts and suggestions.

Rather than haunt the dean of women's office asking questions whose answers have not been determined or gripe about the cement floors in the men's dorms, we suggest that coeds stand by silently until the administrative committee reaches a decision.

Coeds need not fear that they will be ruthlessly shifted from dorm to dorm. Within the next few days, members of Miss Ray's staff will contact all women students (by postcards, if they are not in College this semester) to determine their plans and preferences. The usual attempts will be made to permit coeds to choose their own rooms.

Obviously, it will be impossible for all coeds to live on campus. Even if the men's dorm is converted from a Petty art gallery into a domicile with interesting window displays, it will be necessary for some coeds to live in off-campus dorms.

As usual, it will be the incoming freshmen and transfers who will live in town. Conversion of the men's dormitories would strengthen possibilities that present coeds will continue living on campus.

Honorary To Aid Frosh

Members of Ellen H. Richards Club, junior women's home economics honorary, will volunteer to return to College September 7 and 8 to help with freshman registration and orientation. The next meeting of the Club will be held Thursday, August 20, Dorothy M. Boring '44, president, announced.

June G. Baily '44, Marie E. Weiss '44, and Jane E. Smith '45 will be initiated into Alpha Xi Delta at 5:30 p. m. Sunday. Marion E. Hora '43, president, will be in charge. Following the initiation Mrs. C. A. Burge will entertain the fraternity at a corn roast.

Zeta Tau Alpha will initiate Betty L. Mock '45 and Helen C. McCleery '45 at the home of Mrs. Howard Neisley, town alumna, at 7 p. m. last night.

Greeks Come To Terms

Panhel Ball Goes Informal

Battle-scarred Greeks and down-trodden pledges, still fresh from the annual "kill," will meet on friendly ground tonight as they struggle, not over rushing, but on a crowded dance floor at Panhel's annual ball.

Swinging out to the tunes of the Nittany Lions, coeds will leave glamorous glad-rags in closets and don more casual wear for the first informal dance sponsored by Panhel. The Nittany Lion Inn will be the location of the three-hour program from 9 o'clock to midnight.

Nicotine fiends and non-indulgents alike must hand over a pack of cigarettes for admission. Panhel Council members aren't inveterate smokers—contributions will be sent to an Army camp. The same procedure was followed at the formal ball held in January.

Although many upperclass Greeks are among those missing this Summer, the floor should be filled, according to Betty Jane Haupt '43, general chairman. Previously, dances have been held prior to rushing season, but because of Summer rushing sorority pledges will help swell the crowd.

The dance has assumed a more informal atmosphere this year by vote of Panhellenic Council members several weeks ago. War and an abundance of dances on the Summer social calendar led to this decision by the powers of Greekdom.

Besides Miss Haupt, coeds who have aided in making the Greeks' annual shindig a success are Natalie A. Siebert '43, Sally L. Hirshberg '44, and A. Jane Minnich '44.

Invitations to Panhel Ball have been sent to President and Mrs. Ralph D. Hetzel, Miss Charlotte E. Ray, dean of women; Arthur R. Warnock, dean of men, and Mrs. Warnock; Miss Mary Eastop; Mrs. Grace L. Hall, Mrs. Neva M. Morris, Miss Kathryn Pontzer, Mrs. Gail B. Pope, and Mrs. Anna B. Searle, dormitory hostesses.

Miss Nina M. Bentley, Miss Mary Jane Stevenson, and Miss Ruth H. Zang, assistants to the dean of women; Dr. Pearl Weston, special assistant to the dean of women; Miss Cordelia Beach, secretary to the dean of women; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur K. Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin L. Bentley.

A list of students and guests names will be checked at the door. Only sorority women and persons who have been sent invitations may attend the dance. Cigarettes will be collected at this time.

Coeds Leave HE Houses

Home economics practice houses will close for three weeks when 22 coeds move out Saturday after a six-weeks training period in home management.

Coeds leaving Beecher home management house include Jean E. Clark, Anthea Dye, Helen I. Pease, Martha Scott, Joan E. Sheasley, Jean E. Wissinger, Helen H. Wolf, and Ruth E. Yocum.

Women students moving from Benedict house are Ruth V. Billington, Frances Eddy, Jean Seebold, Ruth Shank, Ruth Trimble, M. Jane Van Riper, and E. Annabelle Wetzel.

Home economics students leaving Hillcrest home management house include Reba J. Basom, Thelma M. Crofut, Betty Jane Gill, Mabel Messmer, Betty J. Miller, Jane E. Skelly, and Margaret Van Houten.

Names of home economics seniors who will enter each home management house in September for six weeks of practical experience will be announced later, according to Miss Ruth L. Bonde, assistant professor of home economics.

Coeds Urged To Enter 'Wheel of Fortune'

Women students and all coed organizations are reminded by Dora E. Colver '44, WRA Swimming Club president, to enter teams now in the club sponsored "Wheel of Fortune" Fun Night in White Hall pool Wednesday night.

Teams of from four to six coeds may be entered. Women should sign on the bulletin board in White Hall locker room.

"It is not necessary to be a good swimmer to enter the contest as events will range according to ability," Miss Colver stressed.

WSGA Board Plans For Orientation Of Fall Transfers

Introductory plans for Fall transfer orientation were formulated at the WSGA Junior Service Board meeting yesterday afternoon. Committees for this project were appointed by Mary Jo Powell '44, chairman.

Letters welcoming transfer coeds to the College will be composed by Sophomores Jane H. Murphy and Margaret K. Ramaley. Other committees announced by Miss Powell are social, Priscilla A. MacLellan, A. Jane Minnich, and Lucille D. Weinstein; program, Dorothy J. Jennings, Sally L. Hirshberg; and F. Doris Stevenson; organization, Barbara J. Cooper, Mary E. Kuder, and Elaine L. Parke.

Suggestions for revision of the WSGA point system will be made and presented to the Board by a committee comprised of Miss Jennings, Miss Hirshberg, Ruth M. Storer, junior senator, and Margaret K. Sherman '43, WSGA president.

Service Board members reported on interviews with coeds who have registered one or no activities in the point system. Additional coeds will be contacted to determine why they lack interest in extra-curricular work, Miss Powell said.

Service Board will meet next Thursday, according to Miss Powell.

Big Sister Drive Closes Tomorrow

With tomorrow the deadline for Big Sister applications, all upper-class women who have not as yet done so, are urged by members of WSGA Freshman Council and House of Representatives to submit applications at once.

Coeds who were not contacted by Big Sister committee members may apply at the dean of women's office or see Miss Ruth H. Zang, assistant dean of women; Patricia Diener '45, WSGA sophomore senator; H. Anne Carruthers '44, WSGA town senator; or Dorothy K. Brunner '44, WSGA vice-president.

Application forms request information on extra-curricular interests, courses, and religion.

"With 430 freshman coeds accepted to date, more Big Sisters than ever before will be needed. We urge all upperclass women to help with this traditional orientation," Miss Carruthers stated.
