

Freshman Nine Rallies To Defeat Phys Edders, 9-3

Rallying to the tune of eight runs in the fifth inning, Coach Leo Houck's freshman baseball team turned in their second win of the season as they defeated a nine made up of students from the School of Physical Education, 9-3, on the New Beaver Field diamond last night.

Pitcher Johnny Silan of the Phys-Edders was knocked out of the box in that frame after facing six yearlings who walked off with four straight hits and a free pass, while scoring only one out. Ebersole came in as relief pitcher, yielded two bases on balls and a hit, but retired two more frosh to end the inning. All told, eleven freshmen came to bat in the hectic inning.

While Coach Houck was sitting on the bench ribbing the Phys-Edders and varsity coach Joe Bedenk was calling the "steerikes" and "bawls", fine performances for the freshmen were turned in by Lou Lanni, who came to bat as a pinch-hitter for second baseman Fred Dietz in the fifth, slammed a double into right field, and scored a run; center-fielder Wayne Kreidler, who made two hard catches and hit one for two, and catcher Jerry Stern, the little boy from Brooklyn who hit a double and boosted his teammates morale with his shouts of "kill the ump."

This evening the freshmen will meet the Presbyterians of the State College Church League in a return match. In their first encounter this season, the freshmen beat the Presbys by a 9-8 count. The game will start promptly at 6 p. m.

Tomorrow night the '46 nine will play their last game of the current season when they meet the sophomores of the varsity baseball squad. This match will start at 5:30 p. m. Both games will be played on the New Beaver Field diamond.

Appointed To Council

Two seniors and one sophomore were appointed to the Forensic Council, according to an announcement made last night by All-College President Jerome H. Blakeslee. They are David A. McAleer '43, Earl R. Booser '43, and William R. Pomerantz '45.

Optional Phys Ed Program Set Up For Upperclassmen

Because lack of locker room facilities will not permit the adoption of a compulsory phys ed course for juniors and seniors, Physical Education School Dean Carl P. Schott stated last night that an optional program for upperclassmen will be in effect next semester.

Dean Schott explained that certain hours will be set aside weekly during which upperclassmen may report to Rec Hall. Instructors will be assigned to the periods to direct the training which will concentrate on workouts on the new 175-yard obstacle course.

Although the "feelers" sent out to the other deans concerning their opinions on the compulsory course brought in favorable replies, Dean Schott stated that further investigations into the facilities showed that such a program would be impossible.

Coach Bill Jeffrey Takes A Turn For The Verse

Soccer Coach Bill Jeffrey's biggest job is producing Penn State's habitually great soccer teams, but when not tutoring the boosters Bill turns to other practices one of which is writing poetry, most of which is about the game he loves.

Proud of the team's reputation for giving every candidate a more than ample opportunity to prove his soccer prowess, the amiable Scot has recently composed the following ballad about a booter-hopeful who just couldn't make the grade.

He said he was a forward
So we put him on the wing.
He couldn't raise a gallup,
And his shots they had no sting.

We tried him then at center,
But alas was just the same.
He never could accept a pass;

A POET TO BOOT—Soccer Coach Bill Jeffrey spends some of the time he's not working out with the Lion booter squad writing poetry. His latest work is:

In fact he spoiled the others' game.

We tried him then at halfback,
Shoved him in among the rest.
He tried to feed the forward,
But he fed the grandstand best.

Then at fullback we played him,
But what a mess he made.
He never stopped a single run.
He really seemed afraid.

At last in goal we played him,
But he was dogged by fate.
'Cause he only saved a single shot
And let in forty-eight.

So we put him on the transfer list,
And I don't think we did wrong,
Because he's starring now, they tell me,
Not at soccer, but ping pong.

Fraternity All-Stars And Firehouse Meet In Championship Game

In one last attempt to break the hold that Firehouse pitcher Art Borsa has held on them, the boys from fraternity row have organized an All-Star softball team, made up of the outstanding players in this Summer's fraternity league race, to engage in a showdown battle with the Canal St. Firehouse tomorrow.

After the severe going-over suffered by Phi Delta Theta at the hands of the Firehouse last week, it was apparent that no individual fraternity could match the all-College champions when playing at their full strength. So an All-Star fraternity squad has been organized in an effort to provide the best competition possible for manager John Silan's Canal St. ten.

The tentative lineup for the All-Stars will be Smith, catcher; Kerns, pitcher; Germain, first base; Cleland, second base; Quailley, short stop; Moriarta, third base; Scott, short field; Phillips, left field; Baldi, center field; and Dickson, right field. McKinney, Hull, and Kelly are also on the squad.

LAST RITES TODAY—Twelve students and faculty members left early this morning to attend funeral services for Dave Alston.

If we equip them, our boys will whip them, is the password at the Adressograph-Multigraph Corp. in Cleveland, Ohio.

Dr. Howard Receives Appointment As Captain

Dr. George Sallade Howard, who will be remembered by many students as the director of the high school students' summer band, has received word of his appointment as a captain in the U. S. Army Specialist Corps.

In his new job Dr. Howard will become a music advisor in the Army, and will direct musical activities in a general Army program of health, physical education, and recreation. Dr. Howard is co-arranger, with the Army's Major Bronson, of the new, low key version of the Star Spangled Banner that has received nationwide acclaim.

Booters Meet In 2nd Intra-Squad Contest

In an attempt to avenge last week's 3-0 defeat at the hands of the "State" candidates, the "Out-of-State" soccer team will get another chance in tonight's intra-squad soccer match at 7:30 p. m. on the golf course field.

Coach Bill Jeffrey, who will play for the "Out-of-State" team, explained last night that practically the same lineups that were used last week will start tonight. He also stated that practice will be discontinued following the game, to be resumed Tuesday, September 8, with the start of the Fall semester.

Yeagley, Rosenfield, Three IM Doubles Teams Advance

Three doubles teams and two IM tennis singles entrants moved closer to the finals yesterday in the first scheduled matches played since Friday.

Although playing sub par tennis, Phi Delt Hank Yeagley won an easy match from Fred Grun, 6-2, 6-4, in the only fraternity singles game scheduled.

Fraternity doubles winners were Erwin-Watkins, by forfeit over Scheiner-Weinstein, and the Culp-Jeter duo that repeated a previous win over Jordon-Smith. By carrying play into three sets, Tom Culp and Hank Jeter managed to win 6-2, 4-6, 7-5.

In Independent singles play, Rosenfield won by forfeit over Lovell. The Independent doubles team of Yerger-McGill, 2-1 favorites, added to their string of victories by taking straight sets, 6-3, 6-3, over the combined forces of Hertwin and Dietrich.

In court play today, Yeagley will encounter Jackson, the dark horse, who, last week, upset Lennie Joseph, '41 singles champ.

The doubles team of Yerger and McGill will attempt to extend their run of victories at 6:30 p. m. While it is expected that they'll add to their string it may happen
