Welcomes Frosh

In a statement made last night welcoming freshman coeds, Dean of Women Charlotte E. Ray said, "The women now entering College have the greatest chance in history to show what they can do for their country."

"When our forefathers were struggling to found a democracy, women did their part nobly. After a century of college education for women, let us show that women now have a real part in preserving democracy."

according to Miss Zang. WSGA Junior Service Board will sponsor an Etiquette Dinner Tuesday night in McAllister Hall and the new Sandwich Shop dining commons. Ellen H. Richards Club and Omicron Nu, home economics honoraries, will aid in this project. Their first weekend in State College will feature mixers for the frosh Friday and Saturday nights and a WRA Sports Rally Saturday. Sunday afternoon has been set for a Panhellenic Open House at 3:30 p. m.

First hall meetings will be held from 6:30 to 7 p. m. Monday, September 14. Patricia Diener '45 and the present WSGA Freshman Council will direct election of dormitory officers. Nominations for WSGA Senator will be conducted at 6:30 p. m. Tuesday, September 15, and PSCA Fresh-

WSGA Board To Aid New Upperclassmen

Included in the orientation calendar for transfer women for the first week of school are a coffee hour, dance, and compulsory mass meeting. WSGA Junior Service Board members will act as upperclass sponsors to the new coeds and will supervise all special activities, according to Mary Jo Powell, Service Board chairman.

At the coffee hour at 6:45 p. m. Friday, September 11, transfer women will be greeted by Dean of Women Charlotte E. Ray and Dorothy K. Brunner '44, WSGA vice-president acting president. Ruth M. Storer, WSGA Junior Senator, will preside and Margaret K. Ramaley will lead group singing.

In cooperation with Blue Key, junior men's activities honorary, and Druids, sophomore men's athletic honorary, Service Board will hold a dance for transfer men and women in Irvin Hall Saturday night, September 12. Naval enlist trainees will be special guests at the dance. Tag and non-tag dances will be arranged to provide more opportunity for new students to become acquainted, stated Miss Powell.

man Forum will hold its first meeting following the nominations.

Friday night, September 18, is the night of town church receptions.
