

Mac Hall Will Have Joint Frosh Meeting

Second semester and first semester freshman coeds living in Mac Hall will hold a joint meeting tomorrow evening in Mac Hall lounge at 10 o'clock, according to Miss Kathryn Pontzer, Mac Hall hostess.

Dormitory hostesses in Irvin, Jordan, Watts, and Mac Hall recently held special house meetings to acquaint new freshman and transfer coeds with dormitory rulings.

Rules concerning telephone duty, signing in and out, and hours were clarified for the new students at these meetings.

LaVie Junior Board meets in 315 Old Main, 4 p. m. Everybody out.

Frosh Coeds Will Don Green Ribbons, Name Cards Tomorrow Noon—Sykes

CALLS CUSTOMS—Marjorie L. Sykes '43, WSGA Judicial chairman, announced that freshman women must wear ribbons and name cards with the start of classes tomorrow at 1:10 p. m.

"Freshman customs will be donned by more than 500 entering coeds tomorrow noon," Marjorie L. Sykes '43, WSGA Judicial chairman, announced yesterday.

Traditional frosh hazing, highlighted by green hair ribbons and 3 by 5 inch namecards, include holding doors open for upperclass women and staying off the grass, Miss Sykes specified. She stated that a tug 'o war would climax the custom-wearing period.

Customs may be removed each weekend from 5:30 p. m. Friday until 8 a. m. Monday, according to Judicial regulations. Special permissions will be granted for specific occasions.

Violators will be called before WSGA Judicial committee and penalized accordingly, Miss Sykes said.

Custom exemptions will be made at a meeting of the committee next week, it was announced. Persons over 21 years of age or members of the class who have worn customs at other schools may make applications for exemption.

The Judicial chairman reminded frosh in her announcement yesterday that closing hours this week will be at 10 o'clock tonight, at 9 o'clock tomorrow night, and an 11 o'clock for the night on which coeds attend a WSGA mixer. Frosh not attending mixers should be in dormitories by the 9:30 closing hour.

During the three week no-dating period, coeds will be in at 9 p. m. on week days and at 9:30 p. m. weekends. Following the three weeks, permissions will include a 10 o'clock and a 1 o'clock each weekend.

Miss Sykes announced that with the start of Fall semester classes, upperclass women would again have 10 o'clock permissions on week nights. Doors will close at 11 p. m. tonight. Second semester seniors are entitled to 11 o'clock daily.

PSCA Forum Will Organize

Organization of PSCA Freshman Forum will take place within the next few weeks, Margaret K. Ramaley '44, orientation committee chairman, announced last night.

Cooperating with Miss Ramaley in directing orientation will be Claire L. Weaver '45, Miriam L. Zartman '45, and Louise Ann Ritter '46. The committee which will be in charge consists of Freshmen Barbara Anderson, Ruth Bamer, Peggy Lou Chapman, Jeannette Ehlers, Betty Funkhouser, Mary K. Hoppel, Ruth Pielemeier, Betty Pike, and Marilyn Tanner.

Freshman coeds will meet in 304 Old Main at 7 p. m. Tuesday, September 16, to make plans for Forum organization. Miss Agnes E. "Pete" Highsmith, PSCA associate secretary, will speak. PSCA upperclassmen will present a skit. Plans for a hike to the CA Cabin Saturday, September 19, will also be completed.

Nominations and elections of Freshman Forum officers will take place at the fourth and fifth meetings.

Panhel Reiterates, No Rushing Allowed

No rushing of freshman and transfer coeds will be allowed until 9 a. m. Wednesday, September 16, according to Pauline E. Keller '43, Panhellenic Council president. This period, from the arrival of upperclasswomen will be a strict silent period.

The Senate Committee on Student Welfare has taken no action on the proposed rushing code, but a decision will be made this week.

In the proposed code, actual rushing period will be from Wednesday, September 16, until Sunday, October 11.

IWA Will Sponsor Dancing Classes

A series of dancing classes for independent women will be directed by IWA, according to Hazel E. Gassmann '43, IWA president. Definite time of the first class has not been set, but announcements will be made later.

Taught by members of the IWA, there will be a charge of 50 cents for the whole course, which will include 10 lessons of one hour each. Proceeds will be used for a record library.

First meeting of the IWA, to which all freshman and transfer women are invited, will be held in second floor lounge, Old Main, at 8 p. m. Tuesday.

SALUTE TO OUR HEROES MONTH
BUY A WAR BOND AT THIS THEATRE AND HONOR EVERY MOTHER'S SON IN SERVICE!

Cathaum
A WARNER BROS. THEATRE

• Thurs. - Fri. •

When a straying husband "whiffles" with a female wolf... should his wife burn?

Ray MILLAND
Betty FIELD

ARE HUSBANDS Necessary?

Special
An expose of the actual methods used by Hitler to spread the defeatist philosophy through France!

"DIVIDE AND CONQUER"

—ALSO—
CARTOON
"HOLD THE LION PLEASE"

FACULTY MEMBERS

Charge your Daily Collegian subscription. Just fill out coupon and send by campus mail to Collegian office.

Mr. Robert Edgerly
Circulation Manager
The Daily Collegian
Carnegie Hall

Please Charge A Subscription To

Name _____

Address _____

Price—$1.75 Payable October 17, 1942

THURSDAY
FRIDAY
SATURDAY

State

Shows at
1:30, 3:00
7:00, 9:00

She's Betty, willing and Grable!

John Payne
Betty Grable
Victor Mature

Fortnight Serenade
with JANE WYMAN

—Special—
An expose of the actual methods used by Hitler to spread the defeatist philosophy through France!

"DIVIDE AND CONQUER"

—ALSO—
NEWS AND CARTOON — "HOBBY HORSE LAFFS"

SALUTE TO OUR HEROES MONTH
BUY A WAR BOND AT THIS THEATRE AND HONOR EVERY MOTHER'S SON IN SERVICE!

Subscribe NOW!

- Student Union
- Collegian Office
- Campus Solicitors

THE DAILY COLLEGIAN

$1.75 for Semester

Remember—October 10 is the

COLLEGIAN DANCE

Music By—PENN STATE ARISTOCRATS

Admission by Collegian Dance Ticket Only