

Cabinet Approves Election Codes

Complete election codes for both the freshman and the special junior political contests were approved by All-College Cabinet last night.

The codes, released by Donald W. Davis '43, Election Committee chairman, follow:

FRESHMAN ELECTION CODE

ARTICLE I

Time of Voting

Voting will extend from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Friday, October 9. The polls will be open through the lunch and dinner hours.

ARTICLE II

Place of Voting

Elections will be held in first floor lounge Old Main or the Armory, to be decided at a later date.

ARTICLE III

Eligibility for Office

Second semester candidates must have a "1" average to be eligible to run. First semester candidates must have passing grades in all courses, as evidenced by professors' signatures.

ARTICLE IV

Method of Nomination

Any first or second semester freshman student meeting the above requirement shall be eligible for nomination for a class office.

To be nominated, a candidate must file a petition with the chairman of the Elections Committee by 5 p. m. September 29.

A candidate for the position of president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, or historian, must have a petition containing the signatures of at least 100 voters of which at least 75 must be boys and at least 25 girls of the freshman class.

Accompanying the petitions must be a statement of the platform. The Election Committee shall approve all platforms, but shall reserve the right to censor any provisions which it may deem ridiculous.

Glossy 2"x3" pictures suitable for reproduction should accompany petitions of candidates for all class offices.

ARTICLE V

Campaign

The campaign will open 7 p. m. Tuesday, October 6, with a Freshman mass meeting. All candidates are required to be in possession of their approved petitions before their campaign may be started.

For each party that has a candidate running for a major office, the All-College Cabinet, through the Elections Committee, will supply posters containing the party platform and pictures of the major candidates.

There will be no other expense whatsoever incurred for campaigning.

ARTICLE VI

Eligibility

To be eligible to vote, voters must present their AA books and their matriculation cards which will be checked with the registrar's list procured before election. AA books will be punched by checkers and the voter's name will be crossed off the list.

Those who have lost their AA books or matriculation cards may be eligible to vote upon presentation of a note from Dean A. R. Warnock's or Dean Charlotte E. Ray's office certifying that they are regularly enrolled freshman students.

Two year agriculture students in their first year may vote for the freshman offices.

ARTICLE VII

Party Affiliations

Party affiliations, if any, of each candidate will be placed upon the ballot. It is not necessary, however, for each candidate to have a party affiliation.

One approved member of each party designated by the party chairman, will be permitted to sit at a table in the lounge with members of election committee for purpose of writing down names of every freshman who votes.

Lists may be received by party chairmen every hour on the hour.

ARTICLE VII

Violations

Penalties for violation of code will be left to the discretion of the freshman election committee; the penalty not to exceed 50 votes.

1. Electioneering in the building where polls are located while voting is in progress.

2. Conversation by party checkers with voters before voting.

3. Any campaigning prior to the stipulated time for campaign.

4. Faulty petitions or negligible candidates.

5. Unfair campaigning following an initial warning.

6. Use of cars or posters other than those provided by the committee.

JUNIOR ELECTION CODE

The special junior class election shall be governed by the rules regulating the freshman election, with the following exceptions:

1. The election committee shall provide no printed posters: individual junior class parties may make their own posters, as long as they involve no expense.

2. The first paragraph of Article IV shall be changed to read: "Any second semester junior meeting the above requirement shall be eligible for nomination for a class office."

Circulation

by threat and thunder. Collegian took pleasure in dealing with this type of witty complaints, and will take full measures to prevent their popularity in the future.

Of the remaining 35 percent of the complaints, nearly half were from rooming and boarding houses, in which cases, Collegian believes and is investigating, the papers are either "borrowed" by other members of the same house, or are picked up from front porches by early morning passersby.

Most gratifying fact of all discovered in the checkup on Summer semester circulation was that average total complaints represented less than two percent of all the daily circulation during the Summer period.

Although these results are encouraging, Collegian's greatest fear now is the probability of complaints and the resulting lack of confidence which may arise presently because of mistakes inadvertently encountered in recording new Fall semester subscribers, removing expired subscriptions from the files, and the unbelievably complicated deluge of changes of address will pour in for the next three weeks.

Subscribers should remember that this frequent rebuilding and revising of subscription lists, a circulation problem faced by few other daily papers, which usually have permanent rolls, demands time and patience.

special student, Donald Smith '46; trombones—William L. Keefauver '45, Elwood F. Olver '45, Robert Gardner '46.
