

Gridders Scrimmage; Prepare For Bucknell

Varsity Reserves Meet Lock Haven Tonight

Bob Higgins will put his football squad through two tough scrimmage sessions this week in preparation for their tussle with the Bucknell Bisons on New Beaver Field this Saturday.

Tonight the varsity reserves will scrimmage with a visiting varsity outfit from Lock Haven State Teachers College. Tomorrow evening the practice field will be the scene of an inter-squad scrimmage between the first team "whites" and the reserve "oranges."

Never for a moment underrating the Thundering Herd from Bucknell, Coach Higgins and staff are leaving no stones unturned in impressing upon their gridders the possibility of an upset in Saturday's tilt.

Unimpressive in the scoring column in their first game with Lebanon Valley, the Bisons, nevertheless, soundly outplayed the Flying Dutchmen last weekend.

Five times Bucknell drove within 10 yards of the Lebanon goal, only to bog down in scoring efforts. First downs stood at 24 for the Bisons, none for the losers.

Led by Co-Captain Bill Anderson from his guard position, the Bisons will field a line that averages 190 pounds from end to end. Chet Podd, senior quarterback, is mainstay of the backfield that averages 177 pounds.

From Dr. Griess, Lion team physician, comes the news that Dick Knepp, 225-pound freshman tackle, will not be available for the Bison fray. Knepp injured his knee in a scrimmage about two weeks ago.

Johnny Wolosky, reserve center, will also miss Saturday's game. The recurrence of a bad knee injury will probably keep Wolosky out of several games.

There is also little probability that Joe Colone, highly touted freshman fullback, will be able to make it this weekend. A sprained ankle, at first supposed to be a slight injury, has not responded too quickly to treatment.

Swim Meeting Tonight

Varsity and freshman candidates for swimming will meet at Delta Tau Delta at 7:30 tonight. Refreshments will be served. Try-outs will be held at the Glennland Pool from 4 to 6 p. m. tomorrow, Thursday, and Friday.

Only Sophomore

Cliff St. Clair, sophomore wingback, will probably be the only first-year man that will be in the starting lineup when the Lions tackle Bucknell Saturday. Cliff doubles in track as Penn State's 440 and 880 record holder.

Cabinet Combines '43, '44 Class Dances

However, David J. McAleer, senior class president, stated that he feels that the senior class is opposed to the dance combine. "We feel that it infringes on the individuality of our dance, which will be the last of our College careers," he said.

Cabinet approved a recommendation from the committee to request the local motion picture theatres to start movies at 6:30 p. m. instead of 7 and to abolish midnight shows.

Working with Ivans on the "cut corners" group are Donald W. Davis, M. Williams Lundelius, Robert L. Mawhinney, Harold W. Freeman, Pauline E. Keller, Pauline Crossman, all seniors, and

Penn, Pitt Lose; Other Lion Grid Foes Win 1st Tilts

Only Pitt and "mighty" Penn of the Nittany Lion's 1942 gridiron opponents fell to defeat in Saturday's games.

Pitt journeyed to Minnesota, there to bow before the national championship Gophers, 50 to 7. Last year Pitt was able to "hold" the Gophers to 40 points.

George Munger and his Blue and Red squad tangled disastrously with the Cadets of Georgia Pre-Flight Training School. The much-publicized Mungermen acquitted themselves nobly, but lost 14 to 6.

Of the Lion opponents who were victorious over the weekend, only Cornell and Bucknell had trouble. The Big Red defeated Lafayette by the meager margin of four points—20 to 16; and Bucknell, who the Lions meet this Saturday, had a real fight on their hands, but finally, by a last quarter touchdown, turned back little Lebanon Valley, 7 to 0. In 1941 the Bisons defeated "The Flying Dutchmen," 12 to 6.

Colgate, on the other hand, had little trouble with St. Lawrence. The Kerrmen warmed up with the little up-state New York outfit, and emerged victors by a score of 49 to 0. The 1941 score was 66 to 0 in favor of the Red Raiders.

West Virginia turned back their arch rivals, Washington and Lee, by a score of 21-7, bettering the 1941 result when the Mountaineers were able to edge out W & L by a slim 7 to 6 count.

Syracuse also warmed up against their weekend opponent. Last year the Orangemen defeated little Clarkson Tech, 39 to 0. Friday night Ossie Solom's boys again found easy picking and turned back the CT squad, 58 to 6.

Frosh Booters Meet State College High In Practice Tussle Today

Frosh Soccer Coach Doc Underwood will get a chance to see his future Jeffrey proteges in actual team play this afternoon when State College High School's soccer men face the first-year booters in a practice game on the golf course field at 4:15.

Although the recent ruling by the College Athletic Board makes freshmen eligible for varsity competition, Coach Bill stated that for the present he isn't planning on using any of the yearlings in his lineups. He did explain that there may be possibilities later on in the season depending on how they round into form.

According to present plans the freshman squad will be organized as a junior varsity team and will play the regularly scheduled games. Whether or not reserve strength from the varsity will be used in the games will depend on the policy of the opposing teams, Coach Jeffrey stated.

Coach Underwood's tentative lineup with Coach John Seriff's High School boys for this afternoon's tussle consists of Bud Sempier and Bill Fallwell at the fullback posts; Jim Etters, Jack Lamme, and Dick Wetherill in at the halfback spots; Kenny Simons, whose father captained the 1918 Lion squad, at outside right; Charley Wilson or Bob Marshall at inside right; Al Karver at center; George Bird at inside left; and Don Rider at outside right.

"Your boner can cost a bomber" is the slogan of the United States Rubber Company of Los Angeles, Cal.

Harriers Begin Heavy Workouts

More strenuous and lengthy workouts will be on the program for Coach Chick Werner's cross-country Lions from now until the opening of the season, Werner promised after last night's practice session.

Nittany harrier hopefuls, still a long way from top form, trekked over seven miles of the golf course last night.

Coach Werner has been in no hurry to round his distance runners into shape because there is still almost three more weeks before the initial meet October 17. The harriers open with Manhattan on the Van Cortlandt Park course in New York City.

Two outstanding sophomore aspirants have returned to regular practice sessions after being out of everything but light workouts for more than a week. Joe Beach, State College High School product, and Johnnie McCool have both been out with foot injuries.

A frosh prospect, Madigan, has also been out with foot injuries but is back in uniform and is taking part in regular practice runs over the golf course.

The first-time trials, which means the initial squad cut of the season, will be held sometime next week, Werner stated last night.
