

Greeks Expect Largest Frosh Rushing Season

Formal Coffee Hours Set For Tomorrow

Number of coeds to pledge the 14 national sororities on campus Sunday afternoon is expected to exceed that of any previous rushing season at Penn State, Pauline M. Keller '43, Panhellenic Council president, predicted last night.

Written replies to formal coffee hours, which will be held from 2 to 3:30 p. m. and from 3:45 to 5:15 p. m. tomorrow, to climax a week of formal rushing, must be turned in at Panhellenic Post Office at Student Union by 4 o'clock this afternoon. Beatrice M. White '44, Panhellenic Council rushing chairman, announced. Sororities may collect replies at 5 p. m.

Rushes are urged to clearly address their replies to the name of the sorority and to signify which time they plan to attend.

To facilitate clerical work, lists of invitations for membership must be turned into the dean of women's office by 7:30 p. m. tomorrow, Dean of Women Charlotte E. Ray reminded Greeks.

All coeds invited to coffee hours who expect to be out of town on Sunday must notify the dean of women's office before they leave town, regardless of the fact that they do not plan to pledge immediately, Miss Ray emphasized.

According to Miss Ray, any rushes returning to her dormitory before 9:30 p. m. Sunday may bring her ballot to 208 Women's Building. Those returning later are asked to bring ballots to the dean's office Monday morning.

Rushes are asked to reply promptly after they receive their bids on Sunday morning. Chapters will not receive lists of acceptances until all women on their lists have replied, Miss Ray stated.

Miss Keller reminded Greeks and rushes that the strict silence period which began yesterday will continue until the time set for coffee hours. Final silent period will go into effect following coffee hours and end when sororities receive their lists of acceptances Sunday afternoon.

Violators of these silent periods will be dealt with severely, Miss Keller emphasized.

Boaters Meet Bucknell

As one of the soccer first assistant managers put it, "Certainly a team which has the best long period record of any College athletic squad deserves the students' support. We don't expect students to attend soccer games when there's a football game going on at the same time but this week when there's nothing else scheduled they should turn out and show Bill Jeffrey and his boys how much they appreciate the fine work they've done for Penn State sports."

Stamp Salesman

Pauline Crossman '43, President of Mortar Board, senior women's honor society, will head the first joint committee of Mortar Board and Cwens, sophomore women's honorary, members of which will sell defense stamps at WRA's Football Formal, Saturday Oct. 17.

Coed Honoraries Will Sell Stamps

Because there are only six Mortar Board members in school at the present, Pauline Crossman '43, Mortar Board president, announced that the senior women's honor society and Cwens, sophomore women's honorary, would coordinate efforts to sell defense stamps at all games and dances.

As in previous sales, WSGA Senate will supply funds for the stamps. The first sale will take place at WRA's Football Formal next Saturday night, Miss Crossman added.

The new system will function with one Mortar Board member as chairman, assisted by three Cwens, at each sale. Miss Crossman will be in charge at the WRA dance.

Mortar Board members are planning to dine in McAllister Hall, Miss Crossman stated. Guests will include Miss Nina M. Bentley, assistant to the dean of women, and Jean F. Brown '43 and Annette M. Ingaldi '43, winners of Mortar Board scholarships during the Summer semester.

Enlistments

A total of 93 seniors are now taking the Advanced ROTC training, but are not entered in the AER since they applied for their ROTC advanced training prior to the formation of the AER recruiting setup on campus. Ten seniors are also listed as members of the Signal Corps unit on campus but are not enlisted in the AER for the same reason.

The largest single group to leave the College to date was the V-5 unit comprising 104 students now located at Chapel Hill, N. C. Many of this group left upon graduation, while the remainder withdrew from college. Twenty-eight members of the Army Air Force Enlisted Reserve have reported for active duty or are out of school awaiting call.

Leading all other Eastern colleges at the present time is Yale University with 75 per cent of its male undergraduates in the Reserve Officers Corps.

The Big-Little Sister teas for first-semester freshmen will be in Irvin Hall lounge and Women's Building lounge from 3 to 5 p. m. Sunday, October 25. Committees will be announced next week by Co-chairmen Miss Martin and Gloria McKinley, newly-elected WSGA freshman senator.

We, The Women

Stop, Look, Listen Before You Make Final Decisions

Invitations to formal sorority coffee hours which will climax the formal rushing period tomorrow afternoon were delivered to rushes between 9 and 10 o'clock last night.

First of all, we would like to suggest that although they have many advantages, sororities are not a matter of life and death.

Before deciding definitely to go sorority, we recommend that you consider the following points:

1. Consider your family in the proposition. Are they willing to take on the extra financial burden of sorority expenses? College expenses would naturally run slightly higher for Greeks, the main difference, however, being set by your own standard of living.

2. Are you willing to devote time to pledge duties, chapter meetings, social affairs, intramural sports, and rushing for your chapter?

3. Do you feel that belonging to a group will give you a greater sense of security? Would it help develop a feeling of self-confidence?

4. Could you profit more by spending your free time in a full program of extra-curricular activities in which you are deeply interested?

For those of you who have decided there is much to gain and little to lose by going sorority, we would like to recommend the following points for consideration.

1. Are the women within the group congenial with one another? Are they friendly with other groups or do they harbor selfish motives?

2. Have you really tried to discover what goes on behind the front? Have you considered what the group may be like when rushing is over and conditions return to normal on Monday?

3. Are your interests and ideals similar to those of the group?

4. Do you like the other freshmen being rushed? In many cases you will probably be living in the house or suite in your senior year, primarily with the group of women who will be pledged on Sunday. —H. R. K.
