

WSGA Will Present Two Coca-Cola Scholarships At 'Football Formal'

Guests To Use Both White Hall Entrances

Dividing funds received from the Coca-Cola Company for "coke" sales made in campus dormitories, WSGA will award two $44 scholarships to worthy coeds at WRA's "Football Formal" scheduled for White Hall gymnasium from 9 p. m. to midnight tomorrow, according to Dorothy K. Brunner '44, acting WSGA president.

Formal and with no corsages, the dance is WRA's effort to raise money for $50 scholarships for persons outstanding in WRA activities, Margaret K. Ramaley '44, general chairman and acting WRA president, announced.

Both front and back entrances of White Hall will be used tomorrow night, it was decided at a meeting of WRA Executive Board last night. Checking rooms will be provided on both floors, members announced.

Defense stamps will be sold at Student Union from 1 to 5 o'clock today, and tomorrow morning, F. Doris Stevenson '44, WRA publicity chairman, stated. Pauline Crossman, president of Mortar Board, national senior women's honor society, is in charge. Cwens, national sophomore women's honorary, will assist.

Persons purchasing more than 50 cents worth of the stamps will receive red and blue ribbons to replace flowers at the dance.

Miss McDowell To Speak

Miss Marian S. McDowell, assistant professor of home economics and director of the nursery school, will speak in the home economics section of the Bucknell Conference on Education today. Her topic will be "How Can We Best Meet Immediate Needs through an Organized Program in Family Life." The general theme of the conference is "Education and the War Emergency."

Dames organization for wives and mothers of graduate students, held a Halloween party in Grange playroom last night.

Coeds Show Interest For CODET Training

CODETS', coed organization for drill and emergency training initial campus appearance, was received with much enthusiasm by women students, reported various WSGA House of Representative members.

Coeds are reminded by Dorothy L. Jones '44, acting WSGA vice-president and House of Representative speaker, to sign up by noon today with House representatives and to designate choice of classes—from 4 to 5 p. m. on Tuesdays or Thursdays.

Value of this one hour per week training for women is expressed by Miss Julia G. Brill, vocational councilor in the Liberal Arts School, who says, "In this day each one of us must subordinate our own interests and desires for the common welfare."

Group Discusses Big, Little Sisters Coed War Work Will Attend Teas

Meeting last evening to discuss problems and coordination of coed war work, representatives of women's campus organizations reported on activities they are sponsoring. The group was called together by Mortar Board, senior women's honor society.

Plans for better organization of defense stamp sales, participation in CODETS, new women's military training group, attendance at Red Cross surgical dressing meetings, buying stamps instead of corsages for dances, and participation in physical fitness programs were all discussed.

Pauline Crossman, Mortar Board president, asked each coed at the meeting to urge the group she represents to give all-out support to College war activities.

Coeds are asked by the group to get their work done earlier and get to bed as an elementary aid toward their physical fitness in the war effort.

Big, Little Sisters Will Attend Teas

Big Sisters and their second semester freshman Little Sisters will be entertained at an informal tea with WSGA Freshman Council members as hostesses in Women's Building lounge from 3 to 5 p. m. Sunday, Helen J. Martin, WSGA freshman senator and general chairman of the tea, has announced.

Little Sisters should contact Big Sisters, and Miss Martin urges that if the upperclass women cannot attend, freshmen should come anyway.

An annual affair for approximately five years, the tea will take the form of a cider and cookie party this year for the first time. Background victrola and piano music will be played, and there will be no receiving line.

Continuing the Big-Little Sister get-togethers, two teas for first semester freshmen and their Big Sisters are scheduled for next week with Miss Martin and Gloria McKinley, newly elected freshman senator, as co-chairmen.

Coeds from Irvin and Jordan Halls will attend the tea in Irvin Hall, while all other freshmen will take Big Sisters to Women's Building lounge. Both teas will be held from 3 to 5 p. m. Committees will be announced next week.

Boring Announces Plans For Ellen H. Richards' Fall Semester Program

Ellen H. Richards Club, junior women's home economics honorary, completed plans for Fall semester with the appointment of committees by Dorothy M. Boring, president, at a meeting in 103 Home Economics last night.

Lucille Barton, chairman, June K. Smith, and Kathryn R. Brong were named as a committee to investigate the possibility of selling carrots at the Dairy Building.

Diana Novich was placed in charge of arrangements for celebration of Ellen H. Richards' birthday Saturday, November 14.

Nutrition poster committee for advertising the home economics cafeteria includes Margaret L. Campsey, chairman, Patricia A. Middleton, and Ruth M. Storer.

M. Janet Carbaugh will be general chairman of the initiation banquet which will be held in the State College Hotel, if possible, Sunday, November 15. Other committees will be appointed later.

Marie E. Weiss was chosen to handle invitations for new members.

Frosh Council elected Allene Babbitt sub-chairman at a meeting last night.

Home Ec Students Plan Party To Honor Building First Week In November

The Home Ec Council together with apartment and clubs will sponsor a party, the first week in November, celebrating the 10th birthday of the Home Economics Building, Mary E. Sprecher '43, Council president, announced today.

Ruth M. Saylor '43 is general chairman in charge of all arrangements. Miss Edith P. Chage, a former head of the home economics department, will be the guest of honor at the affair.

Committees under Miss Saylor include refreshments—Alberta M. Spudis '44, chairman, Natalie A. Siebert '43, Dorothy G. Clymer '44, Patricia A. Middleton '44, and Ruth M. Storer '44; serving—Seniors Dorothy M. Kemper and Ruth E. Kocher, co-chairmen of the serving committee. Other members will be named later, Miss Sprecher stated.

Activities Clubs Unite For Playnite

Extending their one-club open houses to an All-College Playnite, WRA activities clubs will unite at 7 p. m. Wednesday, October 21, Adele J. Levin '44, WRA activities chairman, announced last night.

Open to all coeds, the variety program will include badminton, bridge, ping pong, bowling, volley ball, basketball, rhythmic calisthenics, swimming, and possibly square dancing, Miss Levin outlined.

Hostess clubs are Outing, Riding, and Rifle organizations. Other activities groups will direct the program.

Club presidents who will act as an executive committee for the affair include Mottie Haverstick, Joan Miller, Joan Somers, Lois Lohrke, Mickey McKee, Marion Hora, Libby McKinley, Midge Frederick, Flossy Rothman, and Miss Levin.

Cider and pretzels will be served as a climax for the evening.

Usually scheduled for Saturdays, the White Hall open house will be cancelled tomorrow night because of the organization's "Football Formal."

PSCA Plans Autumn Hike

Students who wish to attend the PSCA "autumn hike" should meet at the rear of Old Main at 5 o'clock today, according to Ruth Williams '43, general chairman. The group will hike out to the PSCA cabin where a picnic supper will be served for 30 cents. The return is planned for 10 p. m.

38 Enroll In ESMDT Courses; Drafting Classes Begin Monday

Thirty-eight coeds, faculty and townspeople enrolled yesterday in the two Engineering, Science, and Management Defense Training courses which will begin next week. Sixteen have signed for ship drafting while 22 will study airplane drafting.

Additional applicants for both courses are welcome to attend either of the first classes which will be held in 302 Engineering C on Monday and Tuesday, Prof. B. K. Johnstone, head of the architecture department and general supervisor of the courses, stated.

All prospective drafters who are unable to attend the class at 6:30 p. m. Monday are asked to report at 6:30 p. m. Tuesday, Professor Johnstone stated. Only equipment necessary for the first meeting is a pencil.

Those who have already enrolled in ship drafting are Juniors Gladys C. Beck, Dorothy C. Black, Ursula A. Frost, Jean E. Martin, Veronica S. Mazure, Alice Miller, M. Lucinda O'Boyle, Betty J. Ostermayer, Marion J. Reynolds, F. Doris Stevenson, and Doris J. Taylor; Mrs. Frances Liljestrand, Mary Alice Carswell, Dolly Holman, Hennie McDowell, and Hilda Schoenetter.

Airplane drafters include Seniors Mary E. Brown and Olive E. Ryland; Juniors Janet I. Appley, Lucille Barton, Marcia H. Berg, Nancy F. Berkebile, June E. Conrad, Marion C. Dougherty, Patricia A. Middleton, A. Jane Minnich, Mary K. Noll, Sally W. Piolet.

Margaret D. Robinson, Lucille E. Smith, Norma R. Stern, Ruth E. Thomas, Irene J. Uhrick, Delores W. Wargo, and Jenoise B. Wherry; Sophomore Hannah D. Frankel; Hilda M. Fillman and Eleanor Willis.

Due to numerous requests for coeds who plan to do student teaching next semester to enroll in the courses, Professor Johnstone announced that these coeds may register at the first class meeting if they agree to make up the eight week's work they miss. He also stated that first semester seniors will have covered enough work by May to secure employment.
