

Fresh Top Sophomores
Win 3-2 Hockey Title;
Playnight Scheduled

Freshman hockey players topped sophomore squad members in a 3-2 game on Holmes field yesterday as the WRA Fall program continues.

With Betty Pike, Joan Finn, and Peggy Quick scoring for the winners and Anna Radle and Vivian Martin making points for the sophomores, a spunky first-year team battled to its fourth victory.

PLAYNIGHT

Square dancing will be featured at the All-College playnight to be held in White Hall tomorrow night. R. Doris Stevenson '44, WRA publicity chairman, announced last night. The program, which will continue from 7 to 9 p. m., is scheduled to include bowling, badminton, bridge, ping pong, and volley ball, it was announced. Swimming was ruled out since another group will use the pool at that time.

Adele J. Levin '44, WRA activities chairman, stated that cider and pretzels will be served to climax the program.

Two Home Ec Exhibits Display Food Values

Two nutrition exhibits will be on display in the lobby of the Home Economics building today. The dietary pattern or the "must foods" that should be eaten daily will be set up by Seniors Patricia MacKinney, Allen K. More, and Mary E. Sprecher.

Two lunches that will be compared have been arranged by Elmor M. Derr '43, Mary R. Koch '43, A. Ruth Shenk '43, and Mildred G. Feeser '44. These exhibits were shown at the Methodist Church September 23.

Excellent sources of calcium and iron in common foods will be displayed in 209 Home Economics from 8 a. m. until 5 p. m. today. In addition to these essential minerals, calcium in everyday foods as compared to calcium in a bottle of milk will be displayed.

Women Drafters
May Still Enroll

Any town women or coeds planning to terminate their College career next August who are interested in enrolling in the ESMWT airplane drafting course are urged to report to 302 Engineering C at 6:30 o'clock tonight if they were unable to attend the first class meeting last night.

Professor B. K. Johnstone, head of the architecture department and director of the courses, announced that those who were unable to enroll in ship drafting last night should report to the librarian in the architecture library in Main Engineering Building.

Schug Names 33 Coeds
To Varsity, Freshman
Debating Team Posts

Coed varsity and freshman debate squads have been named by Clayton H. Schug, associate professor of public speaking and women's debate coach.

Varsity members are Freda I. Gerheim '43, C. Betty Friedman '44, Florence I. Jaffy '44, Ruth Clyde '45, Gertrude Cohen '45, Grace C. Goodlin '45, Thelma Klein '45, Rosalind B. Schnitzer '45, Martha Hartley '46, Ruth Sprague '46, and M. Elizabeth Zimmerman '46.

First semester freshmen on the Freshman team include Allene Babbitt, Nancy Bartsch, Beryl Berney, Betty Caplan, Mary Jane Creighton, Mary L. Elder, Shirley Fierman, Betty Finn, Mary Forrest, Adelaide Gluck, Rosemary Halpin, Ann Henry.

Lois McCool, Betty Ann McGinnis, Marg Meller, Elaine Miller, Laurene Newbold, Jean Oyler, Gertrude Rosen, Laurette Schwartz, and Evelyn Singer.

The varsity squad will meet in 103 Home Economics at 7 p. m. tomorrow, unless notified to the contrary, said Mr. Schug. He added that there is a possibility that the varsity meeting will be Tuesday, so varsity women are asked to keep both evenings free if possible.

Freshman meeting will be in 103 Home Economics at 7 p. m. tonight. The Tuesday meeting will be for this week only, thereafter freshmen will meet Wednesday.

Any additional women interested in either team should contact Mr. Schug as soon as possible.

Uhrik, Dennis '44
Win WSGA Awards

Juniors Irene Uhrik and Irah Dennis were awarded Coca-Cola scholarships by WSGA at WRA's "Football Formal" in White Hall, Saturday night, Dorothy K. Brunner '44, acting WSGA head, announced.

A bacteriology major and a home economics student respectively, Miss Uhrik and Miss Dennis both earn a major part of their College expense and have at least a 1.5 All-College average. Each was awarded $44, the total being received as one per cent of the "coke" sales made in campus dormitories last semester.

More than 300 couples danced to the music of George Washko's Campus Owls Saturday in a gym decorated with college banners and pictures of football heroes, according to Adele J. Levin '44, ticket chairman.

Margaret K. Ramaley '44, WRA vice-president and dance general chairman, estimated last night that four $50 scholarships would be given to worthy coeds from the dance profits. Announcements of winners and presentations will be made later.
