

2nd Pitt-Nittany Lion Grid Game Cancelled; Delta Chi Wins IM Football Championship

Beat Beta Theta Pi On Tally By Pittenger

Unleashing a heavy passing attack, Delta Chi copped the fraternity Intramural Football title last night, as they edged a stubborn Beta Theta Pi squad to a 7-0 victory on the New Beaver Practice field before a howling crowd of 200 spectators.

Delta Chi drew blood late in the first half when Charles Stober set up the touchdown play as he intercepted a Beta pass on the latter's 21 yard line. On the following play, William Briner hurled the winning pass to George Pittenger, who caught the ball just over the goal line. Briner again took to the air for the extra point, throwing to Halderman for the tally.

Beta Theta Pi had high hopes during the closing minutes of the first half, with Giles passing to Vieth for a 60 yard gain. The threat ended on the next play, when Christman intercepted on the Delta Chi's own 20, as the whistle blew.

With the opening of the second half, the Beta team took over on the Delta Chi's 13 yard marker, when the champs lost the ball for unnecessary roughness. Briner stopped the drive by intercepting one of Giles' passes on the 10.

A stout Beta defense was obvious in the first few minutes of play, when Tompkins, Delta Chi back, received a punt on the middle field marker, and then passed to Briner who lateraled to See, bringing the ball to the seven yard line. Here the Beta line tightened, and on four successive plays, the Delta Chi's did not gain a foot.

Jack Qualley, league manager, announced at the end of the game that plans for the awarding of any prize, were still unknown.

Cheerleading Squad Revises Locomotive Yell

Attention Cheering Section! "Chuck" Peck and his "make with the noise boys" have revised the locomotive yell. Instead of the s-s-s-s at the beginning, a long whistle will be substituted. The cheer in its entirety is:

Long whistle—Boom!
Rah, Rah Penn State
(repeat three times)
Rah (repeat eight times)
Penn State
Team... Team... Team

Wernermen Point To 'Jinx' Meet In New York City

By DON WEBB

Although the varsity cross-country team has completed an undefeated dual-meet season this year's competition is far from ended. In fact, the hardest part of the season is just beginning with training for two all-important tournaments—the IC4-A meet in New York City and the National Collegiate tourney in East Lansing, Michigan.

The New York meet will be held November 16 on the Van Cortlandt Park course. A week later the National Collegiate will be run on the Michigan State course.

IC4-A competition has always been a jinx to Penn State cross-country teams. Penn State has had four undefeated teams since Coach Chick Werner came here ten years ago, but none has ever attained an IC4-A title.

Last year's performance is a good example of the jinx. The Lion harriers were rated as favorites along with New York University and Rhode Island State, but when the Nittany third-clads hit the "big town," they slumped to fourth place in the meet.

Penn State has never placed better than third position in the IC4-A cross-country meet in the last ten years. That third was in 1939 when the Wernermen had one of their worst dual-meet seasons in which they lost three while gaining but one decision.

This year the Lions will again probably be rated as one of the favorites for the New York meet along with Yale, Dartmouth, Rhode Island State, Manhattan and Michigan State.

Kohn Heads Beta Sig

Officers of Beta Sigma Rho elected last night are Leonard L. Kohn '44, chancellor; Allen S. Fendler '44, vice-chancellor; Joseph Hodin '44, warden; Jack B. Israel '44, vice-warden; Jack B. Israel '44, caterer; Harold B. Federman '44, treasurer; Joseph H. Ginsberg '44, inner guard; and Irwin Sagenkahn, recorder.

Proceeds Turned Down By Army Relief Group

For the second time within two months an army official has been directly responsible for the cancellation of a Penn State football game. Latest scheduled contest to get the knife is the second Nittany Lion-Pitt Panther game which was to be played in Pittsburgh, November 28.

Originally scheduled as a means of raising revenue for Army Emergency Relief, the game was officially cancelled yesterday by Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics, when it was learned that Col. Cherrington, speaking for the relief organization, decreed that no proceeds of college football games would be accepted by the Army relief group.

Although as far as Penn State's Athletic Advisory Board is concerned the game stands as cancelled, it is believed that another attempt will be made by Pitt Alumni and Smoky City sports-writers to reschedule the contest with another organization as benefactor.

Previously the Lions were scheduled to meet a service squad from Camp Lee, Virginia on the November 28-date, but advent of a new commandant at the Virginia post nullified the arrangements. The Camp Lee Commander substituted a program of intra-company contests for the inter-collegiate schedule leaving the Lions with an eight game schedule.

The second Pitt-Lion game was to put the two squads in the unusual position of meeting each other twice within one week—a doubleheader almost unheard of in intercollegiate football circles.

With the cancellation, the Nittany Lions now face the prospect of having only three games remaining to be played this season.

Radio Debate Contest Offers Bonds, Cash To Student Winners

Competition in the second annual National Intercollegiate Radio Prize Debate is scheduled to get under way on this campus as soon as interested students register with Prof. John H. Frizzell, head of the department of speech, any time before December 1.

Complete details of the nationwide contest may be had by consulting the notice posted on the bulletin board, third floor, Sparks. Speeches must be submitted to Professor Frizzell by December 12, port the Topic for this year's debate is, "Should American youth support the re-establishment after the war of competitive enterprise as our dominant economic system."

First prize in the contest is $1,000 in war bonds and $250 cash. Second prize is $500 in war bonds and $125 in cash.

It takes 50,000 man-hours of work to build a medium bomber as against only 200 for an auto.

Orange Terminal

Paul Berthold, speedy pass-catching senior, has been one of the mainstays of the Syracuse line this year. Berthold holds down the left end position, and has been on the receiving end of quite a few Whitsell and Maines passes.

Classes Present Plays

Classes in dramatics, production, stage craft, and make-up will present three one-act plays in the Little Theater at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow, according to Frank S. Neusbaum, assistant professor of dramatics in charge of the plays.

Orange Gridders At Full Strength For State Tilt

(Special to The Collegian)

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 4—At full strength, after its heart-breaking defeat at the hands of the North Carolina Navy Fliers last week, the Syracuse eleven has been going full tilt this week in anticipation of revenging the 34-19 setback handed it in 1941 by the Penn State Nittany Lions.

With little to worry about in the defense department—the Orangemen have allowed an average of only 56 yards from scrimmage during its first six games—Coach Ossie Solom has been concentrating on offensive football for Saturday's clash with the Blue and White.

Rated among the top ten teams of the East, the Orangemen have scored a total of 115 points so far this season, and have allowed only 15 points to opponents.

Solom will probably call upon the same lineup this Saturday that answered the opening whistle against the Navy Fliers last week-end.

Mirabito, the hard-plunging fullback who played havoc with Penn State's defense in 1939, will probably start at the fullback position in favor of Michael, who has been the regular during the first six games. Teaming up with Mirabito will be Fox at quarterback, Maines and Morris alternating at left halfback, and Witesell at right halfback.

Latest statistical returns show that Orange end Paul Berthold continues to hold a high place among the nation's pass-receivers. Berthold has caught 11 passes for 182 yards.

Mary Muffet DRESSES

You'll be delighted with these young all-American dresses. Designed by young Americans and worn by young Americans. Junior Miss comes into her own with Mary Muffets.

SIZES 9 to 17

Charles Shop

Opposite Corner Room

Cut for Comfort Styled for Smartness

Comfort, plus smartness, plus durability, equals our made-to-measure suits. Tailored with you in mind.

Jack Harper

W. College Ave. State College

Games - Fun - Dancing and The Sensational Green Pig

ALL AT

AG FROLIC

FRIDAY, 9:00 P. M.—REC HALL

MUSIC BY THE ARISTOCRATS

ADMISSION $1.10