

Representatives, Council Members Elect Magargel To IWA Presidency

Independent Group Plans Social Events

IWA representatives and council members elected Marjorie A. Magargel '44 president, and Harriette Block '44, vice-president of Independent Women's Association at a meeting last night, according to Hazel E. Gassman '43, retiring president.

Other officers include recording secretary, Mildred Cookerly '44; corresponding secretary, Norma R. Stern '44; treasurer, Mary L. Casanave '45; social chairman, June R. White '45; and athletic manager, Martha J. Haverstick '43.

Freshman representatives who were recently elected at dormitory meetings are Watts Hall—Elizabeth Frasco, Elizabeth Luchermeyer, and Lillian Wein, alternate; Jordan Hall—Helen Schmidle, Norma Schwab, and Joan Newman, alternate.

Irvin Hall—Ruth Huck, Sally Pollard, and Marian Horner, alternate; Grange—Ann Sheffield; McAllister Hall—Marjorie Blackwood and Florence Porter; Miles Street Dormitory—Sara Etter; Frazier Hall—Martha J. Peach and Phyllis Wolfgang; Davy Dormitory—Dorothy Yackle.

Martha Tobias is town representative.

CHANGES SUGGESTED

A new plan was proposed whereby nominations will be made by IWA representatives, and elections will be open to all Independent coeds. According to Miss Gassman, the plan, if approved by Dean of Women Charlotte E. Ray and WSGA, will provide for popular vote in the selection of IWA officers.

June R. White '45 is in charge of a committee to write a change in the constitution. This amendment will give the Independent senator a vote in IWA nominations. Previously, the senator was an ex-officio member of the representative body.

SOCIAL EVENTS PLANNED

An informal victrola dance for those not attending the Peñn game will be held in Grange playroom from 8 p. m. until midnight Saturday. Admission will be 10 cents per person. Couples and stags will be admitted.

A party for council members and alternates will be held in Grange playroom from 7:30 until 9:30 p. m. Monday. Barbara E. Whitbred '43 and Norma R. Stern '44 are co-chairmen.

A new series of dancing classes, open only to Independent women, will begin in Grange playroom from 8:30 until 8 p. m. Monday. Price of admission to this class is 50 cents for four lessons. Interested coeds may contact Barbara

WRA Sponsors Soccer, Badminton Practice, Basketball, Playnight

Although WRA intramural basketball team lists were due yesterday, coeds interested may still register with Grace L. Judge '44, WRA intramural manager. Regular game series will begin next week.

Rain caused cancellation of the scheduled junior-sophomore soccer game on Holmes Field last night. The game will be played on Holmes Field at 4 o'clock today.

WRA Badminton Club's new practice system includes practice periods Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday at 4 p. m. and Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday at 6:30. Instruction will be provided. Regular business meetings of the Club have not yet been scheduled.

White Hall's weekly Playnight will be sponsored from 7 to 10 p. m. Saturday by WRA Golf Club, according to Elizabeth J. McKinley '45, WRA activities chairman.

Mortar Board Clears $302.30 In Stamp Sales

Mortar Board, senior women's national honor society, collected a total of $302.30 for the month of October in Defense Stamp sales, according to Pauline Crossman '43, president.

Almost 75 per cent of the entire amount was solicited in the form of defense-stamp corsages for Military Ball, when Mortar Board members sold stamps netting $205.35.

Student Union stamp dances held in the armory by Cwens, sophomore women's honorary, and Mortar Board, cleared $59.40, Miss Crossman stated. The stamp dances, previously held Monday and Wednesday from 4 until 5 p. m., were recently cancelled because of rifle practice in the Armory.

Stamps totaling $35.65 were sold for the WRA football formal, while at the Colgate game, $1.90 was cleared, Miss Crossman concluded.

Sigma Deltas Hold Party

Sigma Delta Tau will entertain Beta Sigma Rho at a party in first floor lounge, Atherton Hall, from 7 to 9 o'clock tonight.

E. Whitbred '43, it was announced.

Next IWA meeting will be held in 412 Old Main at 7 p. m. November 24. Miss Magargel and the newly-elected officers will preside.

PSCA Freshman Forum To Discuss Leadership

Leadership will be the topic for discussion at the PSCA Cabinet of Freshman Women's Forum, in its first meeting in 304 Old Main at 6:30 tonight. Jean E. Hershberger '43, Harriet G. Van Riper '44, Claire L. Weaver '45, and Louise Ritter '46, will speak.

The new Forum Cabinet members include officers from all Freshman Forum committees. Vera Owens, chairman, and Ruth Clark are in charge of the program. Publicity was handled by Betty Shenk, chairman, and Patricia McClure. Margaret Claridge, chairman, and Dorothy Hake are in charge of worship. Recreation chairman was Thelma Jager, assisted by Joanne Nye. Lois McCoal, chairman, and Norma Milech composed the committee for WSCF, and Rosemary Carroll, chairman, and Mary T. Dairs, the committee for service.

Sororities

Gamma Phi Beta Gives Founders' Day Banquet

A Founders' Day banquet celebrating the 68th anniversary of the founding of Gamma Phi Beta will be held in the Maple Room of Home Economics building at 7 o'clock tonight. The banquet is in honor of pledges.

Ruth E. Thomas '44 is general chairman, Margaret K. Ramaley '44 assistant chairman, and Shirley R. Mason '43, publicity chairman.

Mrs. George Leffler, Gamma Phi Beta province director, will be the guest speaker. Alumnae and representatives from seven active chapters will be present. Gamma Phi Beta was founded at Syracuse University in 1874.

President Visits Phi Mu

Phi Mu will entertain Mrs. F. H. Hazelhurst, district president, at a tea from 4 to 5:30 this afternoon. Mrs. Hazelhurst is visiting the sorority until Friday.

AEPH Holds Dance

Alpha Epsilon Phi held an informal dance attended by 60 couples in Grange playroom Friday night.

Pledges recently elected the following officers: G. Rosen, president; Rhea Silverstone, vice-president; Jacqueline Bader, secretary; Joyce Greenberg, treasurer; and Florence Levinson, editor of the pledge paper.

BUY WAR BONDS AND STAMPS

Departments Offer Courses Directed To Aid War Effort

Putting more emphasis on courses related to the war, the Liberal Arts School will offer new courses next semester to help students understand our Allies.

The department of economics will offer courses in trade relations with Canada, Latin American trade, and wartime economy. History subjects scheduled are the history of Canada, historical background of World War II, and history of Latin Europe.

A course in the literature of the British dominions and one in the language and literature of Mexico and Argentina will be given by the department of English literature. A study of government in the Western Hemisphere will be added to the political science department's course of study.

For those who are mathematically inclined, there will be a course in mathematical introduction to navigation. Problems of morale is a new contribution to the sociology department. A course with immediate practical application is on the schedule of the commerce department—office methods.

CLASSIFIED SECTION

WANTED—Brass, reed, and bass men for new campus dance band. Tryouts Thursday, Nov. 12, 8:30 p. m. 117 Carnegie Hall. 3tpd10,11,12

LOST—Black Parker pen. White squares. Call Cynthia, 1st floor Jordan Hall. 1tpdREM

LOST—Chi Omega pin. Finder please call Marion 438. 1tchAF

FOR SALE—LaSalle Bicycle. Excellent condition. Good tires. $20. Call 2571. Ask for Ed. 3tcompB

WANTED—Brass, reed, and bass men for new campus dance band. Tryouts Thursday, November 12, 8:30 p. m. Carnegie Hall. 3tpd10,11,12

LOST—K&E log log decitrig slide rule. Sparks or New Physics Friday, Nov. 6. Reward. Call Ennis 2581. 3tpd10,11,12PPM

Rides Wanted—

RW—To Philly Friday afternoon. Call Kimmel 3332. 3tcompK

RW—Phila. to Penn game. Leave any time Friday, return Sunday. Call Dave 4636 2tpd10,11B

RW—Shenandoah, Hazleton, or vicinity. Leave Friday. Call Marty Kutler, 4933 or 4862. 2t

RW—To Phila. or Trenton. Leave Friday. Round trip. Call Stine or Ivory, 3141. 3tch10,11,12SS

Storer Appoints HE Committees

Committees appointed to nominate new representatives for the Home Economics Advisory Council and to propose revisions of the constitution were appointed by Ruth M. Storer '44, acting president of the Home Economics Council, at a meeting Thursday night.

The nominations committee includes Dorothy Magor Kemper '43, Ruth E. Kocher '43, Ruth Hannigan '44, and Ruth M. Storer '44. Margaret K. Ramaley '44 and Kathryn K. Metzger '45 are on the committee to revise the constitution.

Election of officers will take place at the December meeting of the council.

Ruth M. Saylor '43 was committee chairman for the Home Economics birthday tea Friday.

Zeta Elects Officers; Initiates New Members

At Zeta Tau Alpha elections yesterday, Constance M. Readig '43 was chosen president; Ayelien C. Wolf '43, vice-president; June E. Conrad '44, treasurer; Lois J. Yost '44, secretary; Marcia H. Berg '44, historian; Elizabeth Senft '44, guard; Betty Louise Mock '45, rushing chairman.

New members initiated recently are Katherine Woolever '43, Lenore M. Reeder '44, Kathleen A. Hays '45, Jane N. Magee '45, Patricia A. Smith '45, Ann Moorhouse '46, and Margaret Stahlnecker '46.

At The Movies

MITTANY: "Somewhere I'll Find You"

STATE: "Big Street"

CATHAUM: "The Glass Key"

RW—To Scranton or vicinity. Lv. Friday noon. Return anytime. Call Milt, 3446, or Collegian office. 3tc,10,11,12MBD

RW (2)—Penn game. Leave Friday 4 p. m. Return Sunday. Call Paul 4431. 2tpd

PW (3)—To Phila. Lv. Fri. 1 p. m. Return Sunday. Call 4125. 1tpdREM

RW—To Scranton or vicinity. Lv. Sat. Return Sunday. Call 855 after 6 p. m. 4tpd,11,12,13,14REM

RW—To Wilkes-Barre or vicinity. Leave Friday night. Return Sun. Call 3251. Ask for Duke. 2tpdJM

RW—Warren or vicinity. Leave Saturday noon. Return Sunday. Call 3439, ask for Ray. 2tcompB

Stag-Line Strategy

Adorable is the only description for our selection of popular priced evening gowns. Come in and find that dress for Senior Ball.

You'll Find It Wise to Patronize the

Smart Shop

Calling All Frosh---

ORGANIZATION MEETING

For all those interested in experience in newspaper advertising and business.

The Collegian Office

Carnegie Hall

Monday, Nov. 16, 4:00