

WRA Plans Yearly Non-Migratory Students Christmas Party

Ramaley, McKinley To Head Committee

WRA's annual Christmas Party has been scheduled for White Hall lounge from 2 to 4 p. m. Friday, December 11. F. Doris Stevenson '44, WRA publicity chairman, announced last night.

The community project co-chairmen, appointed at last night's WRA Executive Board meeting, will be Margaret K. Ramaley '44 and Elizabeth J. McKinley '45.

Approximately 60 State College grade school children will attend as guests of WRA. Miss Irene Nitzky, in charge of State College Junior Red Cross, will arrange with the schools for transportation to White Hall. In previous years, grade school students from Lemont and Pine Grove Mills attended the party, but transportation difficulties limited this year's invitations to town children.

Coed contributions are used in financing the affair. Miss Stevenson stated. Ten cents will be solicited from each interested woman student by WRA Activities Club presidents.

Assisting Miss Ramaley and Miss McKinley in collection of funds will be WRA Club presidents Florence Rothman '44, archery; Beatrice M. White '44, badminton; Martha J. Haverstick '43, bowling; M. Olive Whyatt, bridge; Marion E. Hora '43, dance; Frances A. Angle '44, fencing; Priscilla J. Cobb '45, outing; Nancy J. Hodgson '45, tennis; and Joan Miller '45, swimming.

CA Party Scheduled For 'Stay-At-Homes'

The atmosphere won't be that of Franklin Field; the entertainment won't be like that at Sunnysbrook; the crowd won't be like those at Heltzapopin.

But for a couple of warm blankets and $50, the PSCA will offer a cabin party for weekend "stay-at-homers." Interested persons will leave from the rear of Old Main at 2 p. m. tomorrow.

Dr. Anna Stephens, of the College Health Service, will speak on "Dating", and folk dancing will be featured in the evening.

Co-chairmen for the affair are Robert G. Knitigh '43 and Joanne Nye '45 who will be aided by Lauree Chattim '46 and Blair Harmon '46.

At The Movies

CATHAUM—
"Who Done It?"
STATE—
"The Major and the Minor"
MITTANY—
"The Pied Piper"

"Don't be a 'dormitory droop' or a 'sorority Sue' this weekend," IWA members urge.

Even if best beaux have answered the call and followed the crowd to Penn, remaining coeds don't have to spend a weekend looking at the walls of their rooms.

"On-campus" boys shouldn't stay home and complain because gas is rationed.

Something can be done to break up the monotony of what looks like a colorless weekend schedule.

Members of IWA have such a solution. This answer to any prayer is in the form of an informal victrola dance in Grange Playroom from 9 p. m. until midnight tomorrow. The price of admission is ten cents per person and unlike previous IWA dances stags will be admitted!

According to Hazel E. Gassman '43, retiring IWA president, these dances will be presented every two weeks unless big campus social events have been scheduled for that time.

A party for IWA council members and alternates will be held in Grange Playroom from 7:30 until 9:30 p. m., Monday. Barbara

E. Whitbred '43 and Norma R. Stern '44 will act as co-chairmen.

Miss Whitbred has been put in charge of dancing classes which will be open to all independent coeds. These classes will begin in the Playroom from 6:30 until 8 p. m., Monday, November 23. The cost of tutelage is fifty cents for four lessons. According to Miss Whitbred "jitterbugging" will be featured although "smooth dancing" will be taught.

Women In Sports

A postponement in time and date of WRA installations from 6:30 p. m. Thursday to 10:30 a. m. Saturday was made necessary by inability of Adelle J. Levin '44, new WRA president, to be present at the original time. F. Doris Stevenson '44, stated last night. Miss Levin, who is student teaching, is unable to be on campus during the week. Place of installation, WRA room, White Hall, remains as scheduled.

IM basketball practice periods will be conducted for a week beginning Monday. Each team intending to play in the tournament must complete one practice by Friday. Practice periods are scheduled for Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday at 4 p. m. and Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday at 7 p. m.

Tournament games will be played at the listed hours beginning Monday, November 23. Coeds intending to play should secure medical permission from the College Dispensary. Permission cards obtained for hockey do not need to be renewed. Additional teams will be formed at White Hall if a sufficient number of women attend practices.

White Hall's weekly Open House is scheduled from 7 to 10 p. m. on Saturday. Usual facilities including badminton, bowling, bridge, fencing, and swimming, will be available. Refreshments will be served.

Parents Will Discuss Child Feeding Problem

"Feeding of Young Children" will be discussed by parents of nursery school children at a meeting in the nursery school, Home Economics at 8 p. m. Tuesday, November 17, Miss Marion L. Carr, assistant home economics instructor, announced.

Mrs. Ivan E. Parkin, committee chairman, will lead the discussion. Her committee will include Mrs. Ernest Coleman, Mrs. Albert P. Michaels, Mrs. C. William Pierce, Mrs. Russell A. Rusk, and Mrs. Joseph H. Simons.

We, The Women They're Off— On What Track?

They're off again!! The IWA has elected officers and planned a partial program for the year.

Will their run this season follow in the usual circular race track? Or will it branch out to fulfill those activities of which it is really capable?

If they go the way of last year, they'll recommence the strengthening of a framework which is strong enough in itself. It is functioning as it is expected to.

All it needs now is a building. It requires workers to add the upper stories to a cornerstone that was laid with care and foresight.

Knowing that independent women outnumber Greek affiliates by a large majority, we find it hard to realize that only an approximate 12 or 13 are really active in the organization...and they are the ones who were active in its formation.

Because there is so great an opportunity for non-sorority coeds to be influential and valuable to their College, we urge them to become a part of an organization planned especially for them and their interests.

Automatically becoming members of the IWA upon registration at the College, women need not hesitate to play an active part in a plan that, though successful as it stands, needs further development to be totally admired and respected.

According to Hazel E. Gassman '43, outgoing president, a schedule of dances, socials, and informal discussions are tentative plans, all of which can be amended. It offers a well-planned series of events, but its possibilities far exceed its present status.

The few women who feel that such an organization is unnecessary and find enough extra-curricular enjoyment in other activities have views that are understandable.

But being able to account for those coeds on two hands, we look to the remaining persons for whom we feel there is a definite place and job in the IWA.

PSCA Tea Will Honor Foreign-Born Students; Pu-Sheng To Be Guest

PSCA will honor all foreign-born students on campus at IB International Tea and Hobby Show in the Hugh Beaver Room, Old Main, from 3 to 5 p. m. Tuesday. Miss Kung Pu-Sheng, national student secretary of the Chinese YMCA will be guest of honor at the tea, which will serve to introduce foreign students to other College students.

Miss Pu-Sheng was in college during the period of Japan's repeated encroachments in North China and the formation of China's appeasement policy toward Japan.

Having entered YMCA work immediately upon completion of her college course and one year's work in the rural center at Tachang, Miss Pu-Sheng became student secretary of the Shanghai YMCA in September, 1937.

General chairman for the tea is Phyllis R. Watkins, '44. Others who are assisting are; Lois McCoal '46, in charge of arrangements; Carolyn LeWorthy '46, and Eileen Bragg '46, program; Mary Fransen '46, and Thelma Iager '46, refreshments; Jeanne Thompson '46, Norma Milich '46, and Janet Dildine '46, invitations.

MORNINGSTAR BREAD

Morningstar Bread is fine for every purpose. It makes sandwiches that are pleasing in taste and at the same time nourishing. And if you want crisp toast that fairly melts in your mouth this is the loaf for you.

What the 'Check-off' Means:

- Every student gets a paper daily.
- Students pick up paper at strategic distribution centers.
- Readers get continued coverage of reserve news, war flashes, and campus events.
The College is assured a medium for passing on vital war-time notices and announcements.
- The Daily Collegian remains an uncontrolled, independent students' organization.
- Every student will pay $1.00 on his semester fees.
- The College will act as collecting agent for the paper.

Students will vote for or against the "check-off" at All-College elections next Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. If you wish a daily paper for the duration, vote for the Check-off. You need every bit of information possible in these uncertain times. Think and VOTE YES!
