

Coed Debaters Meet Lock Haven For Peace Problem Discussion

Walker Will Visit Pi Lambda Theta

Dr. Helen Walker, professor of statistics at Columbia University Teachers' College, and national president of Pi Lambda Theta, women's national education honorary, will be here Monday and Tuesday, November 23 and 24, L. Jeanne Kaiser '43, president, announced.

A dinner party for chapter members will be given Monday evening in honor of Dr. Walker and she will speak at a meeting for alumna and faculty wives on Monday. A conference with Dean M. R. Trabue, School of Education, and the officers of the chapter will be held Tuesday morning. A luncheon is also arranged for Tuesday noon, Miss Kaiser stated.

Dr. Walker is secretary-treasurer of the American Educational Research Association and is a member of the national board of the YWCA. Dr. Walker has written mathematics textbooks and has contributed to educational magazines.

A member of Alpha Xi Delta, Dr. Walker has a bachelor of philosophy, master of art, doctor of philosophy, and doctor of law degrees.

While in State College, Dr. Walker will stay with Dr. Laura W. Drummond, director of home economics at the College.

Collegian's Check-off plan won the substantial majority of the votes of every class in being approved by an almost 3-to-1 margin. Total count showed 2,243 students favoring the plan and 790 opposed.

Campus '45, Independents '45, and the Victory Party were fined votes for infractions of the Elections Code, according to Donald W. Davis '43, Committee chairman.

Vote by classes on the check-off plan was:

Senior class—approving, 238; against, 76.

Junior class—approving, 500; against, 190.

Freshman class—approving, 825; against, 295.

Today only eight of the 110 colleges, are able to function in their original places. Before the war, most colleges were located on the seacoast, and therefore were in the first line of attack. Following the first line of attack. Following moved inland, but as invasion became more than a threat, these institutions also became victims of Japanese destruction. As a result of these attacks, many of the students today are having classes in temples. If they are warned beforehand of a seizure, students help to evacuate books and school equipment.

Women In Sports

"Murder of Lidice" by Edna St. Vincent Millay will be the theme of the dance production to be presented tentatively by WRA Dance Club in December. Club members practice in White Hall Rhythm Room at 7 p. m. Mondays through Thursdays. Coeds interested in calisthenics drill or trying out for the production should contact Marion A. Hora '43, Club president.

Badminton tournaments will begin next week, according to Elizabeth J. McKinley '45, WRA activities chairman.

Today is the last day for IM basketball practice periods to be registered. Coeds who have not reported at least one hour of organized practice, with their team or individually, will not be allowed to compete in the IM basketball tournament. Medical permits from the College Health Service are also required for each coed.

Phi Mu will play the Mac-Women's Building team in the White Hall gym at 4 p. m. Monday in the first game of the IM tournament. Grange and Ath West will meet at 7 p. m. Tuesday.

Dr. Grey Addresses Montour Teachers

Dr. William H. Grey of the History Department will address the Montour County Teachers Institute at Danville, Monday morning, November 23, on "Why Study Latin America?"

An exhibit of books and relics of Latin America will be sent to the Institute by the Inter-American Committee of the College for display.

Beecher home economics practice house entertained Miss Laura W. Drummond, director and professor of home economics, at dinner Wednesday.
