Ewens Celebrate Founders' Day With Carloon Party

Honorary Invites Former Members

colebrate their Founders' Day with Merry Christmas. a "Cartoon" party in northeast Joinge, Atherton Hall, from 3 to 5 ji m. Saturday, Mary Grace Longemacker '45, president, announced Jast night.

party. Coeds attending are asked to appear in old clothes which will Jater be contributed to the Red

'The "Cartoon" party, featuring the caricatures of former and present Cwens by William H. Cissel '43, will include a skit centered about activities in the Dean of Women's office. The atmosphere of the "car- day morning services, which come aid in modern dance concert Committees include Sophomores Florinne E. Olson, general chair- Recember 2, Robert R. Dickey '44, day, December 13, have been anman; Marjorie H. Schultz, food; and M. Virginia Krauss '44, co-Miriam L. Zartman, decorations; and Patricia Diener, entertainment. mittee announced.

Official invitations have been extended to Dean of Women Char, year should have a deeper signifi- mer '44, H. Elizabeth Furst '45, lotte E. Ray, and to Miss Nina cance will be brought out in these and Mary B. Port '45 will assist . Bentley and Miss Ruth H. Zang, morning services. assistants to the dean.

Founders' Day for Cwens is officially November 27 but the party was postponed one week in accordance with the Thanksgiving holi-

The first chapter of Cwens was established at the University of Pittsburgh in 1924.

'The Delta chapter at Penn State was formed in 1927. There are now eight active chapters.

WRA I-M Basketball Continues This Week With Fifteen Games

Beven games have been completed and fifteen games are scheduled for the rest of this week in WRA intramural basketball tourmament, according to Mary Grace Longenecker, '45, WRA intramuval chairman. Miss Longenecker urged that coeds bring medical permits when reporting for games.

Alpha Chi defeated Zeta 35-10, and Jordan won over Gamma Phi night. Results of game played dent for the coming semester. Othlast week found Phi Mu victorious over Wo-Mac by a score of Shabacker '44, vice-president; defeating the DG'S 26-2, West urer. and Ath defeating the KD's 30-21.

Games scheduled for tonight in and SDT vs. Jordan, at 8 o'clock.

Referees for intramural basketball games include Miss Mildred A. Lucey, instructor in physical education, Martha J. Haverstick '43, Mary E. Weldy '44, and Sophomores Edith B. Bernstein, Janice A. Densmore, Sara L. Hostetter, Annette M. Keefer, Mary Grace Longenecker, Vivian I. Martin, LOST-Schaeffer black and white Margaret Northup, Mary E. Thompson, and Glady M. Yohn.

Former Coed Graduates Join Army Air Corps

Bernice L. Turner '42. Corrine Kahn '42, and Vera Hirshberg '42, former students at Penn State, are now official members of the Army Air Corps, serving at La-Guardia Airport, N. Y.

Miss Kahn has been at the field for the past six months, while Rides Wanted-Miss Turner and Miss Harshberg recently graduated from the training school at Middletown.

While attending the College the three women were members of the RIDE WANTED - (2)-To New Alpha Epsilon Phi, social fratern-

WSGA Drive To Help Orphans

By MARGARET L. GOOD '45 Editor's Note: This is the first of three feature articles describing organizations which will receive contributions in the annual WSGA Christmas Drive.

cause gifts and happiness are taken women. for granted to the extent that one Upperclass women who were about people whose Christmases by the WSGA House of Represen- what she feels is her part and not I'wens, as well as present members are far from being complete. Per- tatives for its Christmas Drive is an amount designated by the sororof the honorary, are invited to the haps it would be well to stop and not $200 as it has been other years ity; according to Drive leaders.

CA Plans Services

First of PSCA's annual Wednes-

W. Harris '45 will take charge of Riper '44, will be in charge of the

December 9, and Jean E. Hersh-

program on Wednesday, December

"The Road to Bethlehem." A fireplace, and various Christmas decorations including hemlock, pic-

the holidays at home will be given to the students. A Christmas tree will also highlight this last serv-

Gavlord Alexander is in charge of the music and Mary Katheryn

Noll '44, will play Christmas bells.

Alpha Delta Sigma Elects

er officers elected were: William

CLASSIFIED SECTION

fountain pen. Reward. Call 4161.

STUDENTS—Or faculty desiring

first floor Jordan, ask for Vi.

RW-Lewisburg after 5 p. m. Friday. Call Alice 4224 or Colle-

York City, Christmas vacation.

work done in Drafting or Sten-

1t.pd.P.M.

3tpd. 1,2,3,PS.

. 2t.compFC.

1tpd Dec.1

3t.compAF1,2,3.

2tpd1,2BlM.F.

Union and exchange coats.

Friday night.

Stan Linder.

gian office.

Call Al 4056.

cil cutting, Call 3680.

Alpha Delta Sigma, national

Room for the services.

The theme of the services is

For Christmas

homes right at the back door and 1,776 coeds to give? With 25 cents measure profits by the happiness from every woman, the goal could received in giving more than the easily be reached. Before giving to usual "little bit."

The Mifflin County Children's Penn State women have a plea Aid Society, located in Lewistown, to answer this year from approxi- assists children who have been mately one hundred orphan chil- adopted into families that are undren. It is a simple one that has able to provide more than the bare Owens, national sophomore been met in part other years. They necessities of life. The Aid Society and WSGA Freshman Council will women's activities honorary, will ask College coeds to give them a feels responsible for providing a contact coeds beginning tomorrow dining coeds rooms make it imposhappy Chrsitmas for these children and continuing for a week. Women sible to hold the annual freshman It is easy to say, "Have a Merry and in this project, it uses all the are urged to contribute as individ- banquet, WSGA, cooperating with Christmas," with nonchalance be- money contributed by Penn State uals in their particular living unit PSCA, began plans for a substi-

the representative who will contact each person, coeds should ask themselves, "Is 25 cents all I can contribute to a child without a Christmas?'

Members of the WSGA House present at the affair. This wartime year the accent sororities. Every woman living in ing with Mrs. Bok as speaker. stops to think very few seconds should not be on self. The goal set a sorority will be contacted to give

WSGA Postpones think about children in foster —it is $400. Is that too much for Freshman Meeling

WSGA'S second attempt to offer some sort of class celebration for freshmen women was blocked last night when-Mrs. Curtis Bok. recently announced as speaker for a meeting set for Monday, December 7, wired that she could not be

Because crowded conditions in and not toward a group fund in tute affair, a women's mass meet-

Although no third attempt is imminent, the general committee, composed of representatives of WSGA, PSCA, and WRA, stated that they considered the event, postponed rather than cancelled.

Since coeds will not have the opportunity of hearing Mrs. Bok Monday evening, Ruth M. Storer '44, WSGA president, urged that they attend chapel services Sunday, December 6, when the outstanding Philadelphia woman will "Hearing Mrs. Bok will be an -State women, since she will be the first woman speaker to appear at chapel services in over five years,' Miss Storer said.

The former professor at Stephwere hindered from doing war ens College, Missouri, was last year elected Philadelphia's outstanding woman.

Women in Sports Started To Relieve

Names of five coeds who will theme will be followed as a preparation for the true mean- group's production of "Murder of throughout the table decorations, ing of Christmas, will be held in Lidice" by Edna St. Vincent Milthe Hugh Beaver room, 7 a. m. lay in Schwab Auditorium, Tuesnounced by Marion A. Hora '43 chairman for the religious com- WRA Dance Club president.

Jean E. Hershberger '43, Jo-The belief that Christmas this anne M. Palmer '43, H. Ione Cramembers of the Club in present-Claire L. Weaver '45, and Ralph ing the dance recital.

As previously announced, Marthe first service. Harriet G. Van ion A. Hora '43 will be the leading dancer and her supporting service scheduled for Wednesday, cast will include Harriette Block '44, Harriet G. VanRiper '44, Shirberger '43, will supervise the final ley V. Hadley '45, Madeline L. Mahuran '45, Anne E. Radle '45, and Jo Ellen Loop '46.

Requirements for membership in WRA Bowling Club's honorary include an average score of 130 tures and Christmas candles will for at least five games over a twobe placed in the Hugh Beaver week period instead of for three games as announced last week. At the final service, a little booklet containing ways of observing Bowling Club are eligible for hon-Only accredited members of WRA orary membership.

Coeds have not yet been bid, lected they will form a nucleus sign up at the PSCA office. for the Bowling Club organization. and will instruct Club beginners. Pins will be awarded to honorary members.

This week's White Hall Playprofessional advertising fratern- night will be sponsored by WRA ity, recently named Edwin L. Swimming Club, according to Eli-30-6 in games in White Hall last Partridge '44, to the post of presizabeth J. McKinley '45, WRA Activities chairman.

Adele J. Levin '44, originally scheduled to represent WRA 27-1, Chio defeating AOPi 23-13, Richard E. Marsh, '44, secretary: Executive Board at the Open SDT over AEPhi by 16-6, Ath East and Philip P. Mitchell '44, treas- House, is student-teaching and ary charity fund, starting tomorwill be unable to attend, but a sub-row and continuing for a week. House is to have each coed give Hillcrest nome management stitute has not yet been appoint-White Hall gym are Theta vs. house entertained Dr. Laura W. ed. Miss H. Jean Swenson, instruc-Kappa and Phi Mu vs. Grange, at Drummond, director and profestor in physical education, will rep-7 o'clock; and Ath East vs. ChiO sor of home economics, at dinner resent the physical education department.

> ranking in the first twelve in the nated will go to the American Wo- all-out effort. Is it too much to LOST—Black velvet evening coat ladder tournament sponsored by men's Hospital Corps, Mifflin at Senior Ball. Has label—Hig- the Club are, in the order of standbee, Cleveland. Call Student ing Annette M. Keefer '44, Doro- and Mrs. Hetzel's Emergency Loan thy M. Yackle '46, Doris E. Porter '44.

Sarah A. Howard '46, Martha J. Haverstick '43, Lois D. Walton '46, Harriet K. Richards '46, Georgeanna M. Holt '45, Mary E. Archer '45, Mary J. Matrishin '45, Mary E. Weldy '44, and M. Olive Whyatt '45.

Allen Street Co-op entertained LOST:-Green pencil kit between members and guests at a party Old Main and White Hall; con-Saturday night, tains keys and other items. Call

Collegian Candidates

Freshman and sophomore candidates for the business and editorial staffs of The Daily Collegian will meet in Room 9 Carnegie Hall, at 4 p.m. tomorrow, Paul I. Woodlan dand Philip Mitchell, announced last night.

Community Playroom Women in War Work

Cooperation is the keynote in State College's newest contribution to Uncle Sam's war efforts. A speak. special kindergarten has been started to look after young chil- unusual opportunity for Penn dren of town mothers who are doing war work.

The State College community playroom originated as a cooperative venture when local mothers work because of a lack of domestic help.

Under the supervision of trained directors, the plan has already PSCA Freshman Forum met with the instantaneous approval of many students on camp- Elects Butz '46 Head us. Cwens, sophomore women's activities honorary, one of Profamong the first to enlist in the project.

Mrs. M. N. McGearv and Mrs. G. N. Leetch are co-chairmen of treasurer. the State College community play-Four children initiated the head- Worship Service, December 15. quarters at 113 East Park avenue.

At a recent meeting, PSCA Edward Abramson's sociology Freshman Forum elected A. Jean classes, and volunteer coeds are Butz '46, president. Other officers are Betty Ann Condron '46, vice president; Betty M. Shenk '46, secretary; and Joanne E. Nye '46,

Installation for the new officers room, which started yesterday. will take place at the Christmas

All forum members are urged to A request was made that town report to the Hugh Beaver room, girls volunteer their aid to the 304 Old Main, promptly at 6:45 toproject for the Christmas vaca- night. The group will attend the tion. Coeds interested in working Hillel foundation where movies but when charter members are se- with the group next semester may will be shown and Dr. Robinson of New York will be guest speaker.

We The Women

WSGA Christmas Drive Needs United Push; Charity Record Is Yours For The Breaking

House of Representatives will con- tributions. They represent each livduct its annual Christmas drive ing quater and will call on all for donations to a three-benefici- women.

has set its goal for $400, which thy cause. is $272 more than was collected in last year's drive.

WRA Bowling Club members charity organizations, money do- a $54 surplus. This would mean an Fund. These societies are organized effects of war through a little into help worthy and needy families and students.

Although last year's receipts were lower than in previous seasons, the highest amount ever collected was $253, according to mas as a holiday that means plen-WSGA records. This year, women will attempt a new high because of mounting needs and increased not. Other years have given the enrollment which will make possible a larger donation.

family expenses including doctor . It may be a bit early to express ents each year.

pressing gratitude for slight fav- much you can spare. ors en our part which bring happiness to them.

tact all women students within the night:

Following tradition, WSGA next seven days and ask for con-

The object and desire of the Breaking tradition, the House as much as possible to this wor-

It has been pointed out that if each woman will give 25 cents, Divided among three loan and the quota would be reached with

Is it too much to ask of persons who are just beginning to feel the nocent rationing?

Is it too much to ask persons who can hardly imagine that such deplorable conditions even exist? Is it too much to expect of persons who look forward to Christty for all?

WSGA feels confident that it is organization that confidence and this wartime year will no doubt Going toward funds needed for inspire a record-breaking drive.

bills, glasses, clothing, food, and the Christmas spirit, but how much commencement fees, the money is better that is than a Christmas appreciated by hundreds of recipi- spirit that doesn't show up at all.

When approached for a contri-Letters come to WSGA follow- bution, think of the other fellow's ing the holiday each season ex- happiness before deciding how

Alpha Omicron Pi formally WSGA House members will con- pledged Marion M. Wilson '46 last