

Juniors, Seniors Present Recital Dedicate Compositions To Men In Service

The annual recital of original compositions and arrangements by juniors and seniors in the School of Music Education was given yesterday in Carnegie Hall by the Louise Homer Club, local women's music honorary.

The program included "March," a piano duet, by Sara K. Richards '42; "Variations on a Russian Folk Tune," piano solo, by Ila J. Trotter '42; "Peasants' Dancing Song," a double quartet, by Doris Glahn; "Weh Down Souf," a mixed quartet, by Rita J. Jenkins '43.

"Mazurka," for violin and piano, by Martha N. Albert '42; "Lullaby," for two flutes and piano, by Barbara J. Mollenauer '42; "Fiesta," for two violins and piano, by Rita J. Jenkins; "Carol of the Shepherds," for male quartet, by William Minshall; "Our Christmas Pie," for male quartet, by James Beach.

"Christmas Hymn," for a double quartet, by Jack Oyler; "Sing We Noel," a double quartet with alto solo and flute obbligato, by Paul Teare; "Minuet," for string quartet, by Frances A. Brown '43.

William Minshall, James Beach, Jack Oyler, and Paul Teare are now serving with the armed forces. Compositions accredited to them were arranged in their honor and were dedicated to them by the music department.

WRA Will Be Host At Annual Party

Sixty children will be guests of WRA at its annual Christmas party in White Hall lounge from 2 to 4 p. m. Friday, according to Margaret K. Ramaley '44 and Elizabeth J. McKinley '45, committee co-chairmen.

Miss Agnes C. Highsmith, PSCA associate secretary, will read Christmas stories. Popcorn balls and candy canes will be served.

A community project, the party was made possible by coed contributions. Ten cents was solicited from each interested woman student by WRA Activities Club presidents.

Martha J. Haverstick '43, Mary Alice Carswell '44, Beatrice M. White '44, and Priscilla T. Cobb '45 will serve as guides for the children while they are in White Hall.

Listen, Youse Guys

AN EDITORIAL

Hey, youse guys, dere's two kinds of people in dis woild: dose what has and dose what hasn't.

Right around dis here time of da year, we're thinkin' about da ones who hasn't. Come on, now, think!

Some guys and gals ain't got no idea whut Christmas is; dey never hoid'a swell eats 'n' lotsa presents. Dey never even git dem gawd-awful ties like dis red and poiple one from me aunt Hattie on me ma's side. Why, dey probly ain't got no idea what ties is! Kin ya 'magine?

Some of da gang goes away to schools where dey loin junk like we got from Mis' Willyums down at da toid ward grade school hangout. Well, even if ya ain't in favor of dem institushuns, and I ain't meself, ya oughta see dat dose guys is happy. Dey need dough for books, and all kinds a stuff dat helps 'em in dere work, and youse guys is da on'y ones what kip help 'em.

Some poor guys is sickly. Dey gotta get to da doctor, see? But dey ain't got no money to pay 'em for da bottles and pills. Well, dere's where youse comes in.

Instead a playing ten games a billiards tomorrow, how about cuttin' her down to one er two? Youse fellas kin always play pool, but dese guys doesn't even ask fer amusements; all dey wants is shoes, hats, shoits, skoits, and stuff like dat dere.

Instead of buyin' your beers at Maginnises, where they want 4 bits for 'em, drink 'em at Harry John's and only pay a nickel.

Instead a puttin' 25 nickels in da slot machine at da corner, how'se about tryin' to git away wit slugs, 'cause dose nickels'll add up ta bucks 'n' den dose unlucky guys'll get a coupla da things dey want and youse guys won't be out much. See?

Come on, youse guys, let's give.

WSGA House of Representative's Christmas drive ends today. It's goal is $400. So far, $84.60 has been received. Solicitors are urged to contact every coed. Coeds are requested to give generously.

The "toidy-toid" streeters may not say it in the correct English, but they say it and they get results. It'll work on Nittany avenues, too!

No Senate Meeting

Because many members of WSGA Senate must attend Mortar Board initiations, there will be no Senate meeting tonight. Ruth M. Storer '44, WSGA president, announced. Miss Storer urged Christmas Drive solicitors to contact every coed for her donation and stressed the importance of each woman student's contribution. So far less than one-quarter of the $400 goal has been received.

are Martha J. Haverstick '43, in charge of buying and distributing refreshments; Helen D. McKee '44, decorations; Joan K. Miller '45, invitations; Mary Alice Carswell '44, in charge of buying and wrapping gifts; Beatrice M. White '44 and Priscilla T. Cobb '45, entertainment and checking.

Cwens to Collect Clothes for Needy

Cwens, sophomore women's activities honorary, will sponsor a Christmas campaign to collect clothes for needy families, according to Florinne E. Olson '45, in charge of the drive which will begin Monday.

Coeds are asked to deposit old clothes in cartons which will be placed in all dormitories. Boxes will be emptied Friday, and the clothes will be given to a charity organization for distribution.

Beecher Goes Entertain

Beecher House, home economic management house, entertained Edward R. Pollock '43, co-chairman of the Blue Band, and David J. Woods '43, vice-president of the senior class, at dinner last night.

ChiO, Alpha Chi, Jordan Win To Stay In IM Tournament

With only three games remaining in the WRA IM basketball tournament, results of three games played last night found Alpha Chi, ChiO, and Grange the victors. Theta and Ath East were eliminated, since each had previously lost one game in the double eliminations tournament.

Chi Omega will meet Alpha Chi in White Hall gymnasium at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Jordan and the winner of the ChiO-Alpha Chi game will meet at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Ath East Loses to ChiO

By a score of 24-18, ChiO downed Ath East which had lost previously to Grange. Barbara Burwell's six baskets and two fouls and Betsy Robinson's three baskets accounted for most of ChiO's scoring, while Helen Hooper sank two baskets and one foul, and Polly Rugh tallied two baskets for Ath East.

Alpha Chi defeated Theta 18-13; other Theta loss was to Alpha Chi by an 18-14 score. Estelle Brown's four baskets and Mary Grace Longenecker's three baskets and four fouls for Alpha Chi were game high scores. For Theta, Perky MacLellan tallied three baskets and one foul.

Hostetter Tallies 41 Points

Sal Hostetter rang up 20 baskets and made good on a foul try to tally 41 of Grange's 54 points. Jordan, loser, scored 42 points. Peggy Northup accounted for the other 13 Grange scores with six baskets and one foul. Jordan tallies were made by Becky Walter with nine baskets and one foul, Eunice Hurlburt with eight baskets, and Harriet Richards with three baskets and one foul.

Last night's game was Jordan's first defeat, so the team is not eliminated.

Trustees Okay Loan Fund As Senior Class Gift

(Continued from page one) within two years of graduation. A two-percent interest rate will be charged after that time, according to McAleer.

At the end of ten years, a committee consisting of the class president, class donor, permanent class secretary, and the secretary of the alumni association will decide upon the use of the class gift fund for a permanent memorial.

Other suggestions appearing on the postal-card ballot, were for a memorial for classmates killed in action, and for a fountain for the quadrangle. The special class gift committee consisted of McAleer, chairman, David J. Woods, Marjorie E. McFarland, J. Hilory Kelly, Robert H. Mahwinney, and Jerome H. Blakeslee.

$315.40 Needed For WSGA Goal

Watts Contributes $14.30 Toward Drive

Miss Nina M. Bentley, assistant to the dean of women, announced last night that to date a total of $84.60 has been reported in the annual WSGA Christmas drive, scheduled to end today. However, she added, 22 living units have not yet reported.

Watts Hall, transfer women's dormitory, leads the living units with a total contribution of $14.30.

Sigma Delta Tau sorority is in second place, with a contribution of $10.50. Units in third and fourth places are Atherton northeast, $10.35, and Grange Dormitory, $10.28.

Four hundred dollars has been set as the goal, the highest amount since the drive was inaugurated in 1926. However, it is felt that under present conditions, the $250 collected in previous years would not be sufficient to provide adequate aid to the Mifflin County Child Welfare Fund, the American Women's Hospital Federation, and Mrs. Hetzel's Emergency Loan Fund, the three groups benefited by the Christmas drive.
