

ChiO Continues Winning Streak

ChiO Betty Robinson's basket as the final whistle blew proved the margin of victory for her team in WRA IM basketball semi-finals in White Hall gymnasium last night. ChiO defeated Jordan 33-31 to enter the finals against Grange.

Championship game will be played tonight at 7 o'clock in the White Hall gymnasium. Miss Mildred A. Lucey, instructor in physical education, will referee, and Miss Barbara Bradshaw, graduate assistant in physical education, will umpire.

Playing for Grange in the finals will be forwards Nancy Shrum '44, Ed Hostetter '45, and Peggy Northup '46; and guards Neva Peterson '44, Doris Porter '44, and Mary Waddy '44.

ChiO team will be forwards Alice Burwell '44, Mary Laubach '44, and Betty Robinson '45; and guards Fran Angle '44, Gladys Yohn '45 and Eleanor Wills '46.

Last night's game was nip and tuck all the way. Half-time score was 17-15 for ChiO. Time and again Jordan managed to tie the score, only to have one of ChiO's busy forwards sink a needed basket to pull ahead. In the last few minutes of play, ChiO was four points ahead until Jordan's Becky Walker rang up two baskets in quick succession to tie the score. It was then that Betty Robinson came through with the winning basket.

Game high scorer was Becky Walker with 17 Jordan points.

IWA Dance Chairman Asks for Hostesses

Coeds who wish to be hostesses for the informal IWA Christmas dance which will be held in Atherton Hall northeast lounge from 9 p. m. to midnight tomorrow should contact Norma R. Stern '44, who will act as co-chairman with June R. White '45.

Proceeds will be utilized to buy Christmas presents for needy children whose names were submitted to IWA through the PSCA office.

Stags will be admitted, and admission will be 10 cents per person, Miss Stern stated. Music will be recorded.

Frosh Denied Late Permission for Games

First semester freshmen have been denied late permission for basketball games for the remainder of the semester, said Helen J. Martin '46, chairman of the WSGA Freshman Council, at a meeting of the Council yesterday.

Council members were urged to cooperate as solicitors in the annual Christmas Drive which has been extended an additional five days in an attempt to reach the $400 goal.

Miss Martin announced that all freshman women interested in becoming "big sisters" to the incoming freshman class should register with their hall presidents or at the office of the dean of women.

Representatives on the Council will not be changed for the next semester. Meetings have been cancelled until January 14, Miss Martin said.

Ousted Men Come Back to Tri-Dorms For One Evening

"The Man Who Came Back" will be multiplied a hundred-fold from 7:30 to 10 o'clock tonight when coeds in Watts, Jordan, and Irvin Halls entertain men who occupied the three dorms before the feminine invasion.

Approximately 100 men and 35 women from each living unit will attend the party, sponsored by the staff of the dean of women's office and planned by Watts, Jordan, and Irvin coeds. Dancing will be the chief entertainment and refreshments will be served.

With Miss Ruth H. Zang, assistant to the dean of women, as general chairman, committee members are Virginia L. Carter '44, L. Shirley Conner '45, Ruth E. Bollinger '46, A. June First '46, Nancy L. Lenker '46, Vera I. Owen '46, and Jean Weaver '46.

Home Ec Club Plans Christmas Musical

Home Economics Club will sponsor a Christmas musical in southeast lounge, Atherton Hall, from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m. Sunday, December 13, Margaret L. Campsey '44, president announced.

Priscilla T. Cobb '45, is chairman of the program, which will include a vocal solo by Mrs. G. B. Pope, hostess in Atherton Hall; piano solo by E. Jane Barnes '44; vibra-harp solo by Ruth M. Steiner '45; and a carol song led by Jean L. Miller '45. Members of the Club, Omicron Nu, senior women's home economics honorary, Ellen H. Richards Club, and faculty members are invited, Miss Cobb stated.

Alpha Epsilon Phi will formally install officers in the Grange Playroom Saturday afternoon. A party for members and pledges will follow.

We, The Women Understanding All, Why Not Move?

We know that sorority coeds understand that each is to buy one 25-cent defense stamp per month.

We know that they understand that money for the stamps is to be paid to Greek treasurers who will buy the "bond-builders" at Student Union.

We know that they understand that two months' worth of the stamps should be purchased before the start of vacation since a new month will have begun before the new semester opens.

We know, too, that they plan to support this plan which fraternity men originated, because their own representatives on Panhellenic Council voted to accept the defense measure.

Realizing that Penn State's sorority women understand the above regulations, we wonder why they don't get over to Old Main and buy what they've pledged?

Seven of the College's 14 nationals have paid their full quota, a few of these with some over. Two have paid in part.

Money-changers at Student Union have heard nothing from the other five.

If Greek groups keep up their lackadaisical attitude, and they will if they run true to form, why doesn't Panhel set a deadline for the purchases? Such things aren't hard to set and surely the Council can agree on one without too much deliberation.

Combining its annual Christmas and farewell celebrations, the Nittany Co-op has planned a semi-formal dinner and dance at the house at 6 o'clock tonight.

WSGA Drive Past Half-Way Point

On the first day of the extended WSGA Christmas drive, $49.86 was reported, Miss Nina M. Bentley, assistant to the dean of women, announced last night. This brings the total amount collected so far to $212.94, $187.06 short of the $400 goal set by the WSGA House of Representatives.

Two freshman dorms, Jordan and Irvin, lead the living units. Jordan coeds have given $19.57, and Irvin has reported $18.10. Watts Hall, transfer dorm, is in third place with $17.86. Sororities are led by Alpha Epsilon Phi with a contribution of $15.00, and Sigma Delta Tau with $10.50.

At a House meeting Wednesday, it was decided to extend the drive until Monday. All coeds who have not yet contributed to the drive, and those who want to increase their donations, are urged to contact house presidents or bring their money to the Dean of Women's office.

WRA to Entertain 51 School Children

WRA will entertain 51 Boalsburg grade school children at a Christmas party in White Hall from 2 to 4 o'clock today.

After games in White Hall gymnasium, Miss Agnes C. Highsmith, associate secretary of the PSCA, will tell Christmas stories, including "The Star in the Well" and "Santa Claus Surprise." Gifts will then be distributed.

Members of WRA boards and physical education department, and physical education majors are invited to the annual party. Special guests will include Dean and Mrs. C. P. Schott, Dean Charlotte E. Ray, Mrs. Ralph D. Hetzel, and Mrs. Bruno Stern.

Chi Omega will entertain its town alumnae and seniors at a party from 3 to 5 on Saturday.
