

BETWEEN THE LIONS

By BEN BAILEY
Sports Editor

Outstanding Senior Athlete of the Year—Bob Perugini. A letterman in football, baseball, and boxing, Bob was the unanimous choice of the Collegian sports writers for their annual award.

Sporting a Grover Whalen personality and a Charles Atlas torso, Bob was also recently voted the Outstanding Senior in the PhysEd School. He has served several stretches as vice-president and treasurer of the PhysEd School Council.

Although he permanently wrecked my penmanship the first time we ever shook hands, he's a first class gentleman—he even offered to set the bones himself.

As the first president of the Lions Den, Bob has run Penn State's home for muscles with a degree of tact and diplomacy that would put Emily Post on the back page.

As a part-time employee of Doggie Alexander's Thirsty House, Bob has lent that Penn State tradition a dignity it has never seen before. I've seen him bounce Saturday Night Cowboys with such a diplomatic persuasiveness that many of them have come hobbling back from the infirmary to thank him for not giving them the beatings they deserved.

Floormen Win Third Straight Game, 36-22

For those who judge a man's greatness by his headgear and affiliations, Bob is a member of Parmi Nous hat society, Phi Epsilon Kappa, physical education honorary, and Kappa Phi Kappa, education honorary.

In winning his three varsity letters, Bob has proved to be a real athletic handy-man. Coming to Penn State primarily to play football, he later branched out to sneak in a little baseball on the side, playing three seasons on Joe Bedenk's starting nine.

Last season when Leo Houck's boxing lineup began to sag around the upper weights, Bob "helped out" by taking over the 175-pound slot and winning an additional letter.

It's been said by many that Bob Perugini would have made an outstanding wrestler if he could have found the time to go out for that sport too—he wears a size 17½ collar. With his marvelous physical build, he tells me that he can wear a size 8 shoe but a 9 feels so comfortable that he usually wears a 9½.

In his eight semesters here at

Baltimore, Egli Spark Lion Scoring Drive

Penn State's basketball team won its third game of the season when the Lion cagers, sparked by the scoring of Co-captains Herk Baltimore and John Egli, defeated a scrappy Bucknell five in Rec Hall by a 36-22 score.

With their scoring star, George Haines, bottled up, the Bisons could not penetrate the stubborn Lawther defense. The visitors had to be content with scoring eight field goals. Only one of them was scored under the basket.

Egli led the scoring for the evening with 13 tallies. Nine of these came in the first quarter. Seven of the points came by the way of the foul line. Herk Baltimore was not far behind with 12 points.

The Lions will travel to Selinsgrove for a return tilt with the Susquehanna Crusaders tonight for the Lawthermen's final contest before the Christmas vacation.

Penn State, Bob has become a real credit to the School of Physical Education and Athletics. He will receive the Collegian Sports Writers award at the Army-Navy show which opens in Rec Hall at 7:30 tonight.

'Friendly Rivalry' Put To Test Tonight as 'Gobs,' 'Khakimen' Meet

(Continued from page one)

lery. No admission will be charged. The basketball game will follow the bouts with Ensign Bill Bolton heading the Navy five and Lieut. Charlie Prosser, former captain of the Lion cagers, coaching the Army squad.

Musical entertainment will be provided by the ROTC band. War stamps may be purchased at the door.

IM lineups for the fights include:

Independent	Wgt.	Fraternity
Cotrone	121	Compton, PKT
Grim	127	Koven, ASPHI
Serago	135	Shoemaker, AZ
Catanoso	145	Harry, KS
Wright or Muschlitz	155	Mattern, PDT
Chavooshian	165	Bache, PSK
Hawrylak	Hvywt.	Banbury, PDT

Navy fighters in the competition are:

Company C	Wgt.	Company D
Dodson	155	Peterson
Brown	155	Hensch
Carothers	175	Rukavina
Gehrke	Hvywt.	Levine
Raassina	Hvywt.	Muppy

Members of the Army and Navy basketball squads include: ARMY—Brown, Cenci, Jaffurs, Briner, Smith, Captain Gillard, and Lieutenant Prosser. NAVY—Weber, Wave, Miller, Doyle, Hastings, Roelfs, Schemerhorn, Zeigler, Chetkovich, Verplank, Harman, and Bolton.

Druid Shingles

Any former Druids may obtain their Druid shingles by calling Robert C. Bacher, at the Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Penn State College Night December 26 at Frank Dailey's Meadowbrook

Newark - Pompton Turnpike, Route No. 23, Cedar Grove, N. J.

CAB CALLOWAY and his ORCHESTRA

See Posters on Bulletin Boards for name of chairman handling reservations or write directly to Meadowbrook.

This Christmas Give GIFTS THAT LAST

A pretty wise gentleman is Santa. He realizes the importance of giving gifts that'll last. Gifts that speak quality, gifts that'll take the bumps. Take a tip from Santa, this year, and plan your Christmas Gift list to conform with Santa's and the Athletic Store's rigid specifications on Quality Merchandise.

HERE ARE SOME GIFT SUGGESTIONS TO HELP SOLVE YOUR SHOPPING PROBLEM

Skis and Equipment

For the outdoor male or female... in a wide selection of sizes. Poles, Waxes, and Harnesses to suit any taste.

Shoe Skates

In hockey or figure models for men and women. A wide variety of sizes and styles.

- Pen and Pencil Sets
- Books
- Golf Equipment
- Penn State Souvenirs
- Lamps

SEE MANY OTHER GIFTS ON DISPLAY!

Fishing Equipment

If there's an ardent fisherman on your list, here's the place to please him on Christmas Morn.

Stationery

Many different styles to choose from. Manufactured by Eatons.

THE ATHLETIC STORE INC.

COLLEGE AT ALLEN

STATE COLLEGE