

Panhel Code Bans Pledging Of 42 New Frosh Coeds

Annual Sing Set for Mother's Day Weekend

Martha E. James '45, Panhellenic vice-president and rushing chairman, who is acting president of Panhel in the absence of Beatrice M. White '44, announced last evening that no rushing will be allowed this semester.

Although this will be a semester of free association between the 42 enrolled freshman coeds and upperclass sorority women, no pledging will be permitted, Miss James stated. All upperclass coeds and freshman coeds who have withstood previous rushing seasons at the College may pledge sororities.

Plans for the annual Panhel Sing were also discussed at the meeting. The "Sing" will be held on Mother's Day weekend, the exact date of which has not been set by Senate.

A committee with Carol M. Kane '45 as chairman has been appointed to plan the summer semester rushing code. The executive committee to serve with Miss Kane includes Panhellenic officers Sally D. Hirshberg '44, Dorothy J. Jennings '44, and Miss James.

The next Panhellenic Council meeting will be held at the Alpha Epsilon Phi suite in Grange Dormitory at 7 p. m. Tuesday, January 26.

Two Instructors Added to Home Economics Staff

Miss Ruth L. Pike, instructor in home economics, and Mrs. Gertrude Cronin Simpson, graduate assistant in home economics, have been added to the staff of the home economics department this semester, Miss Marion L. Carr, instructor in home economics, announced.

Miss Pike received her A.B. degree at Hunter College and her M.A. degree at Columbia University. She majored in nutrition, and was assistant to Dr. Mary Swartz Rose, world-famous nutritionist, at Columbia University, 1936 to 1938. In 1939 she was assistant to Dr. Kugelmass in preparing the textbook on nutrition, and also served as food demonstrator. Miss Pike was home economist for Cook Publications from 1939 to 1943.

Mrs. Simpson was graduated in home economics at Penn State in 1938, and received her B.S. degree. She worked in the Home Service Department of Brooklyn Union Gas Company, 1938 to 1942. Mrs. Simpson was a member of Delta Gamma fraternity.

Music by Records In Ath Playroom

Coeds whose beaux are in the armed forces are urged to attend IWA's third record dance, Marjorie A. Magargel '45, president, announced at IWA meeting Monday night. Also discussed at the meeting was the new WRA intramural ruling granting independent town women privilege to form teams with campus dormitories.

Plans for their third record dance, to be held in Atherton Hall playroom from 10 to 12 p. m. Saturday night, were completed. Admission is ten cents a person.

Martha J. Haverstick '43 announced to representatives of independent women living in downtown dormitories that WRA has issued a new ruling whereby independent town coeds may play on teams with students from campus dormitories. Prior to this ruling, such teams were not officially sanctioned by WRA.

All Coeds May Sign For Codet Courses

All woman-students, irrespective of their year, are now eligible for the six Codet courses offered for credit this semester, according to Julia G. Brill, associate professor of English composition.

Miss Brill suggested that women who have not scheduled the courses, outlined in yesterday's issue of the Daily Collegian, should attend the classes, have their names added to the roll, and then have their schedules adjusted with their advisors.

Freshman and sophomore women who were barred from Codet courses last semester are urged to consider the new course outline. Each class must have ten members in order to continue, and at the present time a total of 28 coeds have enrolled, Miss Brill added.
