

17 Badminton Matches Completed; Double Eliminations Scheduled

Ath West May Default Game for Absence

Of the six badminton games scheduled for Tournament A yesterday, only five were played because the Ath West team didn't appear for its match with Kappa Kappa Gamma. Atherton may have to default the game.

The Chio's won their second match of the series when Marge Hazlett and Eleanor Willis defeated the Irvin team of Harriet Miller and Alice Hooper. This is the second game that Irvin has lost.

Delta Gamma represented by Barbara Keast and Martha James, also won their second game by gaining three points over Eunie Durlburt and Rebecca Walker, playing for Jordan. Jordan won their first game of the week against Grange Tuesday.

Grange is still in the running, however, since Ann Sheffield and Alda Stull made a comeback yesterday and defeated Ann Fisher and Polly Huber, playing for Alpha Chi O.

Phi Mu lost their second game when Olive Van Houten and Marjorie Yacos surrendered three points to Theta Phi Alphas Mary Ebner and Mary Sheeha.

Skip Scrivanich and Charlotte Spangler chalked up another win for Kappa Delta by taking two out of three points from Theta's Joan Herzer and Perky McClellan.

The only game played in Tournament B yesterday was a straight victory for Theta's Mary Young and Viv Martin over Kappa Delta's Janet Tower and Lee Thompson.

Co-Ops Entertain Senator at Dinner

The Hon. Senator Gerald Voorhes, California, will be honor guest at a dinner given by Nittany and Allen co-ops at the Grace Lutheran Church, February 5. He will speak to the group on the subject, "Cooperatives."

On the dinner committee are Sara C. Kouri '44, George W. Foreman '45, Mary T. Reinheimer '45, and M. Jean Wilcox '46. Announcement of the Senator's visit was made at a meeting last night. Nine active members were voted into the co-ops. Nominations were made for vice-president of Nittany co-op. Nominees are Thomas B. Hoover, graduate student, and Elwood L. Rittenhouse '45.

An amendment to the constitution was discussed and plans for a cabin party were made.

Philotes Sponsors Bingo

Philotes, independent women's organization, will sponsor a Bingo game at Old Main Open House tonight, Jane E. Booth '44, president, announced. Lucille D. Moyer '44 will act as hostess.

We, The Women Wanted: A Host Of Hostesses

Can you imagine a flock of sheep without a shepherd? Can you picture a herd of cattle without a cowboy? Can you feature a mob without a leader? Can you visualize Penn State without men? Can you imagine songs without singers?

Can you think of an Old Main Open House without hostesses?

Just as the flock, herd, mob, and songs are incomplete and unsuccessful in any attempt without their respective leaders, so a College Open House fails without the right number of coed hostesses.

WSGA has been asked to provide approximately 75 women to direct proceedings and do general hostess work for the average Open House crowd of 2,500 visitors. Officials of this organization are calling on the membership for service in this manner. This means that every coed is eligible.

This means that it is something that is asked of every woman.

To welcome a sure crowd; to preside over a well-planned program which will include movies, dancing, games, and music; to do all this for just a few hours should be more than a boring evening, or more than a mere duty done out of the goodness of a coed's heart.

Interested and cooperative women will meet in the second floor lounge, Old Main, at 7:45 tonight, Ruth M. Storer '44, WSGA president, announced.

It must be remembered that it takes a good hostess to make the party or program a good one. It goes without saying that a large number of these would mean complete success.

Student Course Ticket Sale Sets New Record

(Continued from page one) Dr. Marquardt said. He emphasized that the committee was directing its attention to the sale of the tickets as a series.

In the event that tickets still remain on the night of the Rachmaninoff concert, they will be sold as individual admissions at the price of $3.50 plus 35 cents tax. The single admission price for Gladys Swarhout, if tickets remain, will be $3 plus 30 cents tax, and for Carmen Amaya and her troupe $2 plus 20 cents tax. In the event of a sell-out, a limited number of standees will also be accommodated at these prices.

Those who bought their tickets at the pre-sale before the numbers on the present series were announced may also obtain their tickets this morning, tomorrow morning, or Monday morning, Dr. Marquardt said.

favorite tunes of the dancers will be played. There will be many hostesses present in the Armory to entertain male guests coming "stag."

Square dancing to the music of another new campus band, the "Campus Cowboys," will be in style in the first floor lounge of Old Main from 9 to 12.

Old Main tower will be open for tonight for those desiring an aerial view of campus and town.

The first movement of Beethoven's Fifth Symphony, commonly known as the "Victory Symphony," will be played in 304 Old Main at 8, 9, and 10 p. m. for those who enjoy classical music.

Informal games will be played in the second floor lounge, Old Main, beginning at 8 p. m. A number of hostesses will be on hand to help with the proceedings.

Bingo will be played in the Philotes room in Old Main with prizes given to winners.

For those who wish to play bridge and other card games, tables will be set up in the Penn State Club room on the third floor of Old Main.

Coeds who still wish to be hostesses at the Open House may report to second floor lounge, Old Main, at 7:45 tonight.

Ping Pong Tournament

A special Round Robin Ping Pong tournament will be held in the Student Union game room on the fourth floor, Old Main, at 8 o'clock.

Defense stamps will be sold in Old Main lobby by members of WSGA Senate from 7 to 10 p. m.

Serving on the permanent OMOH planning committee and representing various campus groups are: IWA, Norma R. Stern '44; IMA, Robert R. Dickey '44; PSCA, Paul Alamar '45; Daily Collegian, Ben I. French '46; Cwens, R. Christine Yohe '45, Student Union Board, William M. Briner '44; Skull and Bones, J. Robert Hicks '44; WSGA, Ruth M. Storer '44; Mortar Board, Kathleen M. Cupp '45.

Heading the committee and acting in an advisory role are the co-chairmen, John C. Burford '44 and James R. Ziegler '44.

All profits from the Open House will be given to aid worthy campus organizations. Already many subscriptions to the Daily Collegian have been sent to undergraduates going into the service.

Army, Navy Need Trained Nurses

Surveys of two-thirds of the country's nursing schools reveal that only 36,000 women will be available for nursing positions in the near future, and that 55,000 are needed immediately, according to an Associated Collegiate Press dispatch.

The only way to overcome the serious shortage would be to have 19,000 women enroll in nursing courses in January and February. Coeds who have taken biological, physical, medical, and social science courses have a background that has prepared them for nursing.

Government nursing jobs with the Army and Navy pay $1,620 a year and are open to all who have had nurses' training. Application may be made to the Civil Service Commission in Washington. For general information on nurse recruitment, write Miss Florence Seder, National Nursing Council for War Service, 1790 Broadway, New York City.

PSCA Holds Music Hour

PSCA's weekly hour of recorded music will be held in the Hugh Beaver room, 304 Old Main, at 4 o'clock this afternoon. It will feature Corelli's "Concerto Grosso in G Minor" and Grieg's "Piano Concerto in A Minor."

All are invited to attend the music hour, where tea will be served, according to Dorothy J. Hoke '46 and Galen Alexander, co-chairmen of the committee in charge.

Delta Gamma held an informal party for Pi Kappa Pi at the Delta Gamma house Wednesday night. Elaine L. Park '44 was in charge of the program.

WSGA to Sponsor Dance Next Week Admission To Be 25-Cent War Stamp

All coeds are urged to make plans now for the "V-Male Special," WSGA's annual dance scheduled for Rec Hall from 9 p. m. to midnight, January 30, Marjorie A. Magargel '44, IWA president and general chairman of the dance, announced last night.

"V-Male Special" has been planned this year to help increase sale of defense stamps. One 25 cent defense stamp per couple will constitute the price of admission, and may be purchased at the door from members of Mortar Board, national senior women's honor society.

At last year's dance students were requested to bring one candy bar for admission. Bars were later sent to men in the service.

Helen D. McKee '44, is publicity chairman and committee members are Martha E. Elston '45, June R. White '44, H. Joyce Strobe '44, and Marjorie A. Hazlett '44, heads the invitation committee, with members Gertrude M. Kortwright '43 and Patricia A. Middleton '44 assisting.

Miss Magargel asks coeds to get on board the "V Male Special" and support their own student government as well as the national government. Sonny Raye and his Collegians will furnish the music.
