

SDT Pledge Chapter To Be Initiated February 19-21

Friedman Heads Nine Charter Members

Initiation of Penn State's Phi pledges of Sigma Delta Tau will take place from February 19 to 21, making this group the fourteenth national sorority on campus. Nine members of the sorority will be charter members of the Phi chapter.

Penn State's initial group of Sigma Delta Tau's includes Betty Friedman, president; Betty Aaron, vice-president; Rae Weinstein, treasurer; Lucille Rosenblum, secretary; Eleanor Berkak, Yvette Berkak, Peggy A. Glazier, Muriel Meiselman, and Sylvia Milberg. Mrs. Harold Zelko, advisor of the group, will be installed as an honorary member.

Eight national representatives will be present for the occasion. They are Mrs. Leah A. Kartman, national president; Judith Rubenstein, national vice-president; Mrs. Josephine R. Fraenkel, national expansion chairman; Mrs. Miriam H. Jacobs, former national president; Sylvia Klein, Eleanor Oberfeld, and Natalie Saxe.

Initiation procedures will begin at 9:30 p.m. Friday and will continue until 6 p.m. the following day. At 7:30 p.m. Saturday a formal banquet will be held at the State College Hotel. A formal tea will be held in Atherton Hall at 3 p.m. Sunday.

Founded at Cornell University in 1917, Sigma Delta Tau has 17 active chapters and 18 alumnae clubs. The Phi chapter will be the eighteenth active chapter. Badge of the new Greek group is a jeweled torch with five pearls on the crossbar and one on the handle. Above the pearls are the three Greek letters, and a diamond is set in the flame. The tea rose is the official flower.

Alpha Chi Omega Wins Swimming by Default

Swimming intramurals, scheduled for yesterday, tomorrow and Saturday have been canceled and the victory awarded to Alpha Chi Omega by default, since no other sorority or dormitory teams were present last night for the first meet.

Swimmers were to have obtained medical permissions and to have put in two hours of practice by yesterday in order to be eligible for the competition, according to announcements made for the past two weeks by WRA.

Alpha Chi Omega has automatically achieved first place in swimming, thus gaining five points towards the WRA intramural cup. Members of the winning team were Estelle E. Brown, Janis L. Feistel, Shirley A. Fink, Marilyn L. Globisch, Jean Louise Miller, Dorothy L. Shoemaker and Betty J. Wolfram.

Players' Show Opens In Schwab Friday

Molly Morden, whose husband was killed by a group of the so-called conquerors because he resented their exploitation of the town's mining resources and the enforced labor of townspeople, is played by Janet Dayton. Her husband Alex is enacted by Alexander Taylor.

Will and Tom Anders are played by Serell Wagner and McKay Carson respectively. These two townsmen were fleeing the village before the Nazis could find and execute them for subversive activities within the town.

has three special arrangements, original with the band, which the dancers will remember for months to come. They are: "Wednesday Night Hop," "Benny's Favorite Blues," and "One O'Clock Jump."

Tickets for the dance may still be obtained at Student Union or the Collegian office at 55 cents for subscribers or $1.10 to those minus subscriptions. Entire proceeds will be used to send Collegians to Penn State men in the service.

Practice Hours Set For Basketball Series

Practice hours for coeds who have signed up for WRA interclass basketball matches have been set for 4 o'clock and 8 o'clock today and 4 o'clock and 7 o'clock tomorrow.

Participants must have two practice hours to their credit and must present a medical permission blank, obtainable at the dispensary.

All applicants will be accepted to play in the matches, which begin next week, and if necessary two teams will be organized for each class to accommodate them.

Team captains, as announced by Adele J. Levin, WRA president, are Freshmen Marilyn Globisch and Gloria J. McKinley, Sophomores Eleanor P. Wills and Mary K. Hoppel, Juniors Jean B. Ogden and Vivian I. Martin, and Seniors Pat R. Aloe and Adele J. Levin.

Panhel Books Campus Owls for Annual Ball To Be Held March 26

George Washko's Campus Owls have been selected by Panhellenic Council to provide music for Panhel Ball which will be held at the Nittany Lion Inn from 9 p.m. until midnight March 26, according to Panhellenic Council President Martha E. James. Admission to the dance will be a book which will be contributed to the Victory Book Drive, Miss James stated.

The committee in charge of the dance is headed by R. Christine Yohe who will be assisted by Barbara Boak and E. Ann Moorehouse.

The date for the annual Panhel Sing has not yet been set by D. J. Jennings, Margaret Cherry, and Ruth Kaufman, the committee in charge, but the annual Sing will be discussed at the next Panhellenic Council meeting, Miss James stated.

The status of Sigma Delta Tau, which will become national February 19 to February 21, has been changed in Panhel. Formerly, Sigma Delta Tau representatives merely were allowed to attend Panhel meetings without the voting privilege. Now, however, Sigma Delta Tau representatives will be on the same basis as the sororities.

Dorothy T. Kobush is in charge of the Panhellenic booklet. Material, including information regarding expense sheets, the number and names of all members of a sorority, initiation fees, pledging information, and dues, must be handed in at the next Panhel meeting.

Drummond to Talk To Senior Women

Dr. Laura W. Drummond, director and professor of home economics, will hold the first discussion group on her book "Youth and an Instruction in Marriage and Family Living," for senior women in Women's Building lounge at 4:10 p. m. Tuesday.

All senior women will be divided alphabetically into seven sections each of which will constitute a separate discussion group. Coeds will be notified by Dean of Women Charlotte E. Ray as to when their section will meet, and may contact her if the time is inconvenient for them.

Dr. Drummond yesterday visited Williamsport for an inspection tour of Child Care Centers there. She was accompanied by Miss Della J. Avery and Mrs. Marion S. McDowell, assistant professors of home economics and directors of the courses which the home economics departments will sponsor this month on correct child care to aid vicinities where mothers are doing war work.

Zeta Tau Alpha recently initiated Jane L. Brader, Janice G. Carvolh, Marie L. Lathrop, Violet Mae Nagle, Jean M. Cranston, and Jean L. Erskine.

Mrs. John R. Haswell, an alumna, was guest at the ceremony.
