

Delta Chi Retains M Bowling Lead

Delta Chi, first half champions, still holds a commanding lead in the second half of Intramural Bowling, after last Tuesday's matches. With a total score of 2439 pins, the Delta Chi kegglers completely overwhelmed the rollers from Delta Upsilon, who compiled a score of 2201.

Beta Theta Pi, Lambda Chi Alpha, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Delta Upsilon (rolling in its second contest of the evening) came through with victories for the night.

The Betas, led by Howard Stinger's 504 total, amassed 2225 points in whitewashing Beta Sigma Uho 8-0.

Walter Fabian paced Lambda Chi Alpha to an 8-0 win over Theta Chi. The final score was 2112 to 1879.

With "Chuck" Reeder's 500 and "Chick" Agnew's 486 leading them, the Sigma Phi Epsilon bowlers gained 6 points while Tau Kappa Epsilon was gathering 2. The SPE's knocked over 2148 pins in the three games.

Laurence White was high roller for the evening with games of 371, 150, and 236 for a grand total of 557. Laurence's performance, with the assistance of Ken White's 510 and Don Bretherick's 518, was enough to assure Delta Chi a 6-2 conquest of Delta Upsilon. Although bowling on the defeated DU club, George Olewine was runnerup to L. White with 547.

BETWEEN THE LIONS

By BEN BAILEY
Sports Editor

IN THE MAIL—Dear Sir: Each Saturday night we have the announcement in Rec Hall: "Ladies and Gentlemen, the National Anthem," and not a flag in sight.

Why can't we have a flag hanging from the trapeze ropes during the sporting events like they do on commencement day exercises?

That's a little item for either the School of Physical Education and Athletics or Grounds and Buildings to ponder. I suppose we're just as American as everybody else, flag or no flag, but it is a swell idea. Incidentally, Skull and Bones might see its way clear to work in a flag or two at the next All-College Basketball Raffle . . .

Looks like the Ad Men had a field day down below so I'll have to wrap up the typewriter and quit along about here somewhere—my feet were tired anyway.

Wrestlers Leave Today for Annapolis; Will Meet Unbeaten Navy

Strengthened and capable of sinking the undefeated Navy mat team tomorrow, after completing a full week of stiff practice sessions, the Nittany wrestlers will leave for Annapolis, Md., today, hoping for a victory so that they may keep the 1943 season's record void of losses.

Coach Paul Campbell's lineup will probably undergo some major changes for the meet with the Middies. Charlie Ridenour and Sam Harry, the Lions' co-captains, will possibly see action in their 1942 weight slots, Ridenour at 121 and Harry at 128.

To replace Harry in the 136-pound bracket, Coach Campbell will most likely have the services of newcomer Joe Steele.

The matches with Navy will be the toughest the Lions will face this year and should give Coach Campbell a good idea as to how his team will stand in the intercollegiate.
