With so much space around us—with so many facilities available—and with so many natural attractions in the surrounding territory, why should we waste our time with such an excess of artificial pleasure?

Judicial to Hear Twenty Violators

Marion C. Dougherty, judicial chairman, has announced that 20 coeds have been notified to report before the committee this week. The regular meeting will be at 4:15 today, although special meetings may have to be called to accommodate the number of cases.

In the past the number of violators never exceeded four or six a week. Records of the last two weeks showed that 34 coeds appeared before the committee, Miss Dougherty stated.

Coeds who are punished by the removal of a one o'clock permission over weekends may not leave the dormitories after 8 p. m., according to the committee ruling. Violators have been dating until 10 o'clock and this is absolutely not permitted; cases of such restricted dating will receive an extended campus.

IWA Recording Dance This Friday

Co-chairmen of the dance are Norma R. Stern and Sydney H. Ninenburg, assisted by Barbara Kayser, Betty J. Luchtemeyer, and Phyllis H. Wolfgang.

Curtiss-Wright cadets are especially invited, according to Miss Magargel.
