

Lions Tackle Hoosiers In Home Gym Match

Penn State's Eastern Intercollegiate Gymnastic Champions will defend their title for the second time this season when they meet the Indiana Hoosiers in Rec Hall, 8 o'clock tonight.

Indiana and not Illinois, as was stated in yesterday's Collegian and in the Winter Athletic Schedule, will be the Lions' opponent this evening.

Fresh from a 13 to 5 victory over the Navy Midshipmen last week, the Lions are hoping to add another victory to their laurels after tonight's battle.

Indiana, placing fourth in the Big Ten League last season, is a "question-mark" team. Although the Hoosiers are weak in the rope climbing event, their team strength is unknown.

The Hoosier lineup, yet undetermined, will include Trummer, Rifkin, Coakley, Greene, Erckman, Montoye, and Ricigliano. Ricigliano is the only entrant so far scheduled to participate in the climbing event.

The expected exceptional performances by Captain Lou Bordo and Sol Small on the parallel bars, Billy Meade on the mats, and Chuck Lebow on the ropes should add greatly to the Lion team score.

Starting positions for the Lions will include the starters who competed against Navy last week, with the exception of Barclay, who will

Wrestlers Travel To Cornell Today

Making their fourth trip of the season for the sixth meet of the current campaign, Penn State's wrestling squad will leave at noon today for Ithaca, N. Y., where they will meet the Big Red grapplers of Cornell University and seek their fourth win for 1943.

Men making the trip with Coach Paul Campbell will include either Kryder Mattern or Bob Lowrie for the 121-pound division; Co-captains Charlie Ridenour and Sam Harry at 128 and 136 respectively; Allan Crabtree at 145; Charlie Dipner at 155; Fred Reeve at 165; Ogden Samler at 175; and heavyweight Bob Morgan.

Cornell's team is composed of five veterans from the 1942 squad of Coach Walter C. O'Connell. Amongst these men are Captain Richard Nickerson, 136-pounder; Eric Miller at 145; Anthony LaScala at 155; Richard Klopp at 128; and Gordon Steele in the heavyweight class. The rest of the Big Red's squad will be made up of either Richard Carlson or Fred McNair at 121; Charles Colbert or George Stobie at 165; and William Doe or James Marsh at 175.

The Lions were originally to meet Cornell here this weekend but transportation difficulties forced the Big Ten to stay at home, agreeing to meet State for two successive years if they made the journey to Ithaca for the matches.

be replaced by Wirtshafter. John Teti will also be moved to the number two position for the side horse event.

Chuck Lebow will be out to better his four-second College mark which he established several weeks ago in an interclass match. Chuck was also timed on the four-second handle during the Navy meet.

Tonight's match will be judged under the new intercollegiate scoring method initiated this season. The best, second and third best gymnasts will compete against each other, thereby making the competition more equal. Winners in each event will add one point to the team total.

Winners will be announced by Judges Atwood of Wisconsin, Fleming of N. Y. U., and Schotzbarger from Springfield. Eighteen points will constitute a perfect team score.

Gene Sutherland paced the victorious Betas with a 522 total and a 215 high single line. Incidentally, Sutherland was the top man of the evening in both departments. # Twelve Tankers Leave Today For New York To Meet Two Teams Coach Bob Galbraith and a squad of twelve swimmers will leave State College this morning for New York State, where they will meet Cornell this afternoon in the first half of a double-bill swimming menu, and see action in Syracuse tomorrow evening with the undefeated Orangemen.

Time trials held in Glennland last night proved hard fought, with over a score of mermen striving hard for a berth on the crew leaving today for the two-day tour of the Empire State.

To meet Cornell's undefeated 300-yard medley relay team, the Lion mentor has called out his heavy artillery, Bobby Cowell, Walt Juve, and Bill Christie. Cowell will also swim the 150 backstroke, attempting to break the Eastern record which he holds himself.

Rocky Young will team up with Cline in the diving events, while Don Knoll will swim the 220 and possibly the 440.

Lions Beat Army Cagemen, 37-28

In a game in which the lead changed at least a dozen times, the Lion basketball team defeated an Army five at West Point Wednesday afternoon by a score of 37-28.

With the score standing at 15-13 in the Lions' favor at mid-game, the win belonged to either team for the first eight minutes of the second half when the Blue and White hit its stride and moved ahead for the final gun.

Sparking his team the whole way and contributing 10 of the Lions' points in the last half, Larry Gent was the high scoring Nittany man, equalled only by Christl, Army center, with twelve points each.

The Nittany cagers return to Rec Hall now for a four-game series which will decide their standing with relation to the District 2 title. The teams they play in the series are Pittsburgh, tomorrow night; Temple, Wednesday; Carnegie Tech, March 3; and Georgetown, March 12.

How about a CAREER on the CIVILIAN FRONT?

As a student, you've doubtless asked yourself many times what you ought to do to help win this war. What can you study that will be of practical assistance?

The Retail Bureau at the University of Pittsburgh is offering a new opportunity to college upperclassmen to be trained for a successful career in retailing while gaining actual working experience at a steady weekly salary. You will receive regular undergraduate credit for your work at the Bureau, you'll earn a weekly income in a Pittsburgh department store, you'll be making a definite contribution to civilian wartime morale—at the same time piling up experience toward a career.

Pitt's Retail Bureau came into being during World War I to help retailers replace executives and junior executives lost to the armed forces and government services. In this war, we're bringing 24 years of successful store service to the problem of training new people. And we believe opportunities in retailing have never been greater than they are right now.

NEW SEMESTERS BEGIN MONDAY, JUNE 28, AND SEPTEMBER 27, 1943

Application blanks will be furnished on request.

COLLEGIAN SPORTS

By STEPHEN SINICHAK
Sports Writer

When the Lion track team embarks for Cornell this afternoon, one of Penn State's best athletic teams will be gunning to continue their string of successes which includes an Indoor and Outdoor IC4-A championship garnered within a single season.

Successes as were claimed by the track squad seldom gather the attention of sport fans throughout the country, but when the Blue and White last March emerged from the smoke in Madison Square Garden with a crown resting on their brows, a cry of "not fair" arose from the fans whose schools were left "in the dust" during the meet.

However, the ICA-4 committee took matters into their hands and came out with a decision which did not deprive the Lions of their hard-earned win. At present, the Blue and White is the only team which can boast of a double intercollegiate championship.

Credit for the successes which the Lions enjoyed must, however, go to one Private Barney Ewell. Barney, the only three-time triple crown winner in track history, was the "big gun" for the track squad before he went to serve Uncle Sam. Today, despite the severe Army training of which he partakes, Barney still claims laurels in the cinder track and hardwood floor.

Several weeks ago, Barney competed in the Millrose Games to defend his 60-yard title which he earned last season with a world's record-tying mark of 6.1 seconds. This year, in spite of the little practice he was able to work into his Army schedule, Barney made a repeat performance with a time of 6.2 seconds for the "60."

With such greats to remind them of Penn State's best, and with a will to carry on the string of successes, the Lions invade Barton Hall tomorrow for their first dual meet of the 1943 season. Here's hoping they win.
