

Brunner Greet Cadettes at WSGA Mass Meeting

BWOC's Explain Campus Organization Setups

Cadettes will be welcomed to tonight's mass meeting by Dorothy J. Brunner, chairman for the evening, Ruth M. Storer, WSGA president, announced yesterday. The meeting will be informal, and will be held in 110 Home Economics, 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock.

Dorothy J. Jennings will follow Miss Brunner when she leads the cadettes in a group of three songs. Artele J. Levin, WRA president, will announce the time of different WRA club meetings, the hours when women can use White Hall, and the coming recreational events which will effect them.

Senate members will be introduced by Miss Storer. Harriet G. Van Riper will explain PSCA and its activities.

Frank R. McKain, head cheer leader, who will lead the assembly in cheers, stated that Cadettes are requested to bring their freshman bibles with them, so that they can follow both the cheers and the songs.

Marjorie A. Magargel, president of IWA, will discuss IWA record books and dating bureau, while June E. Booth, Philotes, will state the hours that the Philotes room is open for recreation.

Miss Jennings will again lead the women in songs, and following her, the cheer leaders will direct more cheers.

Martha E. James will welcome sorority women to campus. Those who belong to sororities which do not have houses on campus will be invited to use the other houses. Marion C. Dougherty will explain what hours the Cadettes will observe.

Cadettes have written their own words to the melody of "I'm a Dabbling Wreck from Georgia Tech" and they will sing the song at the meeting. The program will be climaxed when the assembly sings the Alma Mater.

Following the program, Patricia Diener will supervise elections for president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, one person to be air raid warden and fire chief, and two WRA representatives. The person elected president will represent the Cadettes in the House of Representatives.

BUY WAR BONDS AND STAMPS

Introduces Senate

Ruth M. Storer, WSGA president, will introduce members of the WSGA Senate to Cadettes at the Mass Meeting in 110 Home Economics tonight.

Coed Writers Meet Sunday

Mrs. Barbara B. Murdoch, feature editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, will be guest speaker at a tea given by Theta Sigma Phi, national women's journalism honorary, for all woman journalism majors in the northeast lounge Atherton Hall from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday, March 14, M. J. Winter, president, announced.

Mrs. Donald W. Davis, advisor of Theta Sigma Phi, and Miss Helen Camp, alumni advisor and managing editor of the Centre Daily Times, will pour.

Barbara A. Mennies is chairman of the invitation committee. Other committees are: refreshments, Elaine J. Cox, chairman, and Sarah Cowell, erving, Jane H. Murphy, chairman, Renee Isaacs, and E. Ann Fisher; clean-up, Helen E. Dodd, chairman, Miss Winter, and Natalie F. Daveson; decorations, F. Doris Stevenson, chairman, and Alice R. Fox.

SDT Correction

The 29 pledges of Sigma Delta Tau were not initiated at the formal banquet, Saturday, as recently publicized. The nine charter members were initiated into the national organization.

There will be a round table discussion on the subject "How Can People Grow Ethically?" at Hillcl Foundation, Thursday at 4:15 p. m.

Cadettes Hail From 66 Colleges in 24 States

The "who, what and where" of the new Curtiss-Wright cadettes has been compiled by William S. Hoffman, registrar.

This survey shows that 104 women matriculated as students in the Curtiss-Wright program on Monday morning, February 15. These women represent 24 states and the District of Columbia.

New York has the greatest number of trainees—34. Pennsylvania with 10, Ohio 9, and New Jersey 7 are next in line. The most distant states represented were Texas and Florida, with 3 each, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Iowa, and Louisiana.

All of this group, with the exception of three, had been enrolled in some college, the total number of colleges being 66. One cadette had been attending a nurse's training course, one comes directly from public high school, and one from a private school with no college experience, according to the survey.

The largest group from any one college comes from Cornell University and numbers 9. Among the more distant colleges represented are Duke, Woman's College of North Carolina, and the University of Miami (Florida).

Sixteen women reported that they belong to one of nine different fraternities. Phi Beta Phi claims 6, the largest delegation. No Penn State coeds are in the group, all of them having been sent elsewhere for training, the report concluded.

Fly-Tying Instruction Scheduled for Thursday

Professors George M. Harvey and Gordon Trembley's instruction for students, faculty members and college employees in fly tying in Room 213 Frear Laboratory, from 7 to 9:00 p.m., has been changed from Wednesday to Thursday, according to Ray M. Conger, assistant professor of physical education.

This will be the last opportunity to purchase the kits. A few are still available at $3.00 each. The group will hold seven more meetings in the future.

CLASSIFIED SECTION

LOST—Brockport State Teachers College ring last Tuesday morning on campus. Call Mary Stever, 1st floor Watts. Reward 3t, 20,23,24

MISSING—A briefcase, physics book and physics notebook. Just return the notes to Student Union, please. 3tcomp, 23,24,25,

Senate Postponed

WSGA Senate meeting, formerly scheduled for tonight, will not be held, Ruth M. Storer, president of WSGA, announced last night. Senate members will be expected to attend the WSGA mass meeting for the Cadettes in 110 Home Economics instead, Miss Storer continued. The next Senate meeting will be scheduled for the Wednesday following vacation, at which time members will meet in the WSGA room, White Hall.

Math Refresher to Give Profs Own Medicine

The Department of Mathematics is offering a non-credit refresher course in mathematics open to members of the faculty and graduate students. It will meet in room 107 Main Engineering Building on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday evenings at 7 p. m., beginning this Thursday, February 25.

It is important that those persons interested in and qualified for giving mathematical instruction during the present emergency should attend this course. For further information consult the mathematics department.

WOMEN IN SPORTS

Ath East bowed to Alpha Omicron Pi Monday in what proved to be one of the deciding games in the intramural bowling tourney.

AOPI D. J. Jennings, high scorer for the meet, bowled 117, followed by another AOPI, Betty Eshleman, who scored 115 for the winners. Individual scores include:

| Alpha Omicron Pi | |
|------------------|-----|
| D. J. Jennings | 117 |
| Mary A. Jennings | 104 |
| Betty Eshleman | 115 |
| Virginia Ladd | 95 |
| Dorothy Evans | 95 |
| Total | 514 |
| Ath East | |
| Annette Keefer | 111 |
| Dorothy Yackle | 101 |
| Florence Rothman | 94 |
| Adele Levin | 84 |
| Motty Haverstick | 64 |
| Total | 454 |

Chi Omega defaulted to Alpha Omicron Pi yesterday.

Badminton Finals Today

Jordan Hall will meet Alpha Omicron Pi in White Hall at 4 o'clock today in what will be the final match in the WRA intramural bowling tournaments, according to Mary G. Longnecker, intramural chairman.

Interclass Basketball

The freshman basketball squad will meet the undefeated sophomores at 7 o'clock this evening. A frosh win over the sophomores would tie the tournament, necessitating another set of finals, an issue which has not, as yet, been decided by the intramural board. Should the sophomores triumph, the interclass tournament will be completed with an undefeated team taking first honors.

IWA Plans Independent Women's Conference

Plans were made at an IWA meeting Monday night for a conference of all independent women during the first part of March at which Marjorie A. Magargel, president, will outline the IWA program.

Report of the dance committee, under Norma R. Stern, showed that 115 people had attended the vic dance in Grange playroom Saturday evening. This is the largest number ever to turn out for an IWA dance, Miss Stern stated.

An alumni committee was appointed at the meeting under the direction of Florence A. Porter to make arrangements to procure rooms and tickets to College functions for visiting independent women alumni.

We, The Women Then Back To Nature Do Your Work—

This may seem a little premature, but a word in advance is better than none at all. Looking around the last few days reminds us that it won't be long until coats will be discarded, and at the same time there will be an equal tendency to discard thoughts of work.

With the air clear, birds chirping, and all that sort of thing, one gets that "back to nature" feeling. Hikes, bikes, and sunbaths lure students after the long Winter months.

But there is a time and place for each of these diversions—and during the week when your schedule shows an econ, Spanish, or math class it's no time to get back in condition in the great outdoors.

Yes, Spring is the great class-cutting time (more so than any other season, probably), but with an accelerated program and work to be done, it's no time to let down on the job.

As in the past, WRA's Spring program will, no doubt, include bike hikes, cabin parties, and other recreation facilities. The turnout for these is never great. Students seem to prefer to play hooky and play.

It's natural to want to get out in the open these days. But, since each student is presumably here to get an education, classes should come first.

There's a time and place for everything. Don't get your signals mixed this Spring. Do your work, and then play. —M. J. W.

Kill two birds with one stone!

Make an impression on your date and also be ready for Easter in one of our latest spring suits.

SMART SHOP