

White Hall Red Cross Rally Set for Tomorrow; Frosh Get 10 O'clocks

WRA Staff Offers Varied Activities

WRA Red Cross Rally will be held in the White Hall Gymnasium from 7 until 10 o'clock tomorrow evening, according to Adele Levin, WRA president.

Admission to the rally will be coat hangers, cards, games, material, yarn, safety pins, and other things which can be contributed to defense, Miss Levin stated.

Several booths will be erected in which different activities will take place. Phyllis R. Watkins, WRA Swimming Club president, in charge of the knitting booth. Only small articles which can be completed in one evening will be made.

Joan Baker is in charge of the booth which will stuff animals to be given to underprivileged children and children in the war zones.

Alice Miller will take care of the refreshment booth. There will be no charge for refreshments, but contributions will be optional, according to Elizabeth J. McKinley, Club Activities Chairman.

Martha Haverstick and Nancy Hodgson are in charge of making scrapbooks which will be sent to men in the armed forces. All coeds are asked to bring their own papers. White Hall will furnish pen and needles. All contributions will go to the Red Cross.

Added Teachers
Harriet Van Ripper is in charge of a committee which has procured the names and addresses of more than 1,700 former Penn State students who are now in the armed forces. The list will be posted on the bulletin board in the White Hall locker room, and as names are selected, they will be checked off by Miss Van Ripper.

Margaret Smith will organize a group of coeds who will present an aquacade as the entertainment feature of the evening.

WSGA Senate has granted all freshman coeds who intend to go to the rally 10 o'clocks, Miss Levin stated.

Announces Rally

Women In Sports

By RITA M. BELFONTI

Vassar, Duke, and the University of Wisconsin bowed to the Penn State bowling quintet in this year's Intercollegiate Bowling tilts, according to Martha J. Hvaerstick, WRA Bowling Club president. Penn State, with a total of 1,400 points, nosed out the three other schools whose respective point totals were 1,362, 1,324, and 1,274.

Ten coeds were primarily selected for the bowling team. Of these ten, five coeds who had the highest scores for two lines had their scores entered in the Intercollegiate. Last year, Penn State was in fourth place.

The following coeds are listed with their respective scores:
Barbara Cooper 164 153
Alice Hooper 171 143
Annette Keefer 132 142
Jean Shipman 130 123
Mary Ann Jennings 118 124

IM Table Tennis

Intramural table tennis started yesterday with Alpha Chi Omega meeting Ath East, Kappa Alpha Theta meeting Ath West.

Mottie Haverstick playing for Ath East was nosed out by Alpha Chi Omega Casey, 18-21 and 18-21, in two straight games. Ellen Shirk, Ath East, defeated Priscilla Wagner, Alpha Chi O, 21-14, 21-12. In doubles, Ath East beat the Alpha Chis, 21-14, 21-16. Ath East won the match with a score of 2-1.

Kathryn Roberts, Ath West, dropped to Perky McClelland, Theta, 20-22, 15-21, after annexing the first game, 21-14. Theta Kathy Osgood nosed out Jean Cotton, Ath West, 21-9 and 21-11. The Thetas won the set, 3-0.

Gamma Phi Beta won by a default from Theta Phi Alpha and Chi Omega won by default from Wo-Mac.

The following schedule has been released for today by Mary G. Longnecker, WRA intramural chairman:

4 p.m.—Phi Mu meets AEPi, ZTA meets Grange, Alpha Xi Delta versus Delta Gamma, and Jordan Hall meets Kappa Kappa Gamma.

7 p.m.—AOPI meets Irvin Hall, Chi Omega meets Alpha Chi Omega, ZTA meets Delta Gamma, and Kappa Delta meets Kappa Alpha Theta.

8 p.m.—Jordan Hall vs. Kappa Kappa Gamma.

We, The Women

Beware the Greeks! They Promise . . . But They Avoid Collection Days

Some wise old man said, "Beware the Greeks, even though they bear gifts." We think it applies today and are warning Uncle Sam.

Campus Greeks promised to pay sometime ago 25 cents per person per month per defense stamp. They reasoned that it was the least they could do for their country and they said that they were really helping themselves because they were making their own bond books bulge.

Panhellenic Council, representing every sorority at the College, passed the resolution and it was finally decided that individual coeds would buy the stamps from organization treasurers who, in turn, would secure them through Student Union.

This was back in the Fall semester and since then, the Greeks, even though they "bore gifts," evidence disinterest and a definite lack of enthusiasm for such purchases.

How did this happen? Is it because sorority treasurers have failed to do the necessary canvassing for the monthly collections? Is it because the coeds have changed their minds? Is it because Panhellenic has forgotten its pledge to Uncle Sam?

Whatever the cause may be, we recognize the need for a quick change in the right direction.

Since sorority dues are collected by the month, could sisters pay an extra quarter to the treasurer? If she failed to do this, could she be considered back in her payments? Certainly the cause to which this goes is just as worthy as any Greek function.

Could Panhellenic, as instigators of the project, check on sororities and have monthly reports made by each group?

Could sisters themselves see it all in a more serious light? Could they make it a point to pay their defense dues as regularly as every first of the month shows up?

These might help greatly to eliminate the inevitable shortage in Student Union-Panhellenic stamp sales at the end of each purchasing period.

"Booths for Ladies" will be available in White Hall gymnasium tomorrow night when WRA sponsors its Red Cross Rally from 7 to 10 p. m.

A compact, well-planned, varied program will be presented as an opportunity for patriotic coeds to get a lot of work done for a service organization which takes care of our men "over there."

Booths will be set up around the gym offering a chance to knit blanket squares, paste scrapbooks, stuff toys for needy children, or any of a half dozen other odd jobs that will help in the work of the far-reaching Red Cross set-up.

There is no signing up necessary. No one need promise to attend again, since the next such program is not scheduled. No materials are required to be brought, although they may be donated. No skill is necessary. There will be plenty of opportunity for group work and conversation.

Here is one opportunity to do a lot in one deed. Coeds will be watched once more for their reaction to a cause that deserves much more than even their best can offer. Since no talent, money, materials are necessary, WRA should have a real rally of coeds tomorrow night.
