

Freshmen Get 10 O'clocks To Attend Red Cross Rally

White Hall's contribution to the Red Cross drive, the WRA Red Cross Rally, will be held in the White Hall gymnasium from 7 until 10 o'clock this evening, according to WRA President Adele Levin and WRA Club Activities Chairman Elizabeth J. McKinley.

In order to insure further coed cooperation, WSGA Senate has granted 10 o'clocks to all freshman women attending the Rally. According to Miss McKinley, admission will be coat hangers, cards, gloves, magazines, material, yarn, safety pins, tin foil, and other articles which can be utilized for defense.

Although White Hall will furnish yarn for the projects, coeds are asked to bring their own needles and shears.

Direct Booths

Several booths have been erected in which many different types of activities will take place. Phyllis R. Watkins is in charge of the knitting booth. Only articles that can be completed in the evening's work will be made, Miss Levin stated.

Joan Baker is in charge of the booth which will stuff animals to be presented to underprivileged children or children who are living in the war zones.

Although there is no specified charge for refreshments, contributions will be optional, Miss McKinley stated. Alice Miller has complete charge of the refreshment booth.

Nancy Hodgson and Martha Haverstick are in charge of making scrapbooks which will be sent to men in the armed forces.

Alice Miller, Florence Rothman, and Miss Haverstick will supervise the entire Rally.

Harriet Van Riper is in charge of a committee which has procured the names and addresses of more than 1,700 former Penn State students who are now in the armed forces. The list will be posted on the bulletin board in the White Hall locker room, and, as names are selected, they will be checked off by Miss Van Riper.

Martha Smith is in charge of an aquacade which will be presented at approximately 9 o'clock. The aquacade will be the entertainment feature of the evening.

Two groups of coeds have been selected, a group of outstanding swimmers and freshman physical education majors.

The outstanding swimmers who have been selected include Carolyn Crooks, June First, Norma Glenn, Louise Guillan, Dorothy Jann, Mary Port, Alberta Spudis, and Ortrud Worfel.

Rally Hostess

Phyllis R. Watkins will be one of the hostesses at the WRA Red Cross Rally which will be held in the White Hall gymnasium from 7 until 10 o'clock this evening.

Dr. Farrell to Speak About Technical Work

Dr. Michael A. Farrell, head of the department of bacteriology and medical technology, will speak to woman students on these subjects in the Women's Building at 4:10 this afternoon.

While some of Dr. Farrell's talk will be concerned with the technical branches of bacteriology and medical technology, much of it will take into consideration phases which can be applied to the defense work women may be called upon to do in hospitals and cooking schools. For this reason, coeds who are not enrolled in either of these departments are urged by Dean of Women Charlotte E. Ray to attend. Dormitory hostesses and faculty members are also invited to the meeting, Miss Ray added.

This is another in the series of talks being sponsored for the benefit of woman students, in an effort to give coeds a better understanding of various vocations and professions.

Hold Scavenger Hunt

Six coeds were entertained at a scavenger hunt held recently by Philotes, independent women's organization, Jane E. Booth '44, president, announced. Those entertained were Lois H. Weaver, Lucille E. Whitmer, Marie L. Lesh, Peggy J. Failing, Louise R. Brown, and Elvira T. Holmes. Philotes has donated $5 to the current Red Cross drive.

Cadette Notes

Curtiss-Wright Cadettes and Signal Corps men are combining their forces for a vic dance in Irvin Hall lounges from 9 p.m. to midnight Friday. Co-chairmen of the affair are Ruth Forster, Cadette social chairman, and Melvin Cadane, representing the Signal Corps.

Cadettes are planning and furnishing a recreation room in Watts Hall basement, under the direction of Sansa R. O'Conner and Edith B. James, co-chairmen. When finished the playroom will be complete with piano, ping-pong tables, and other recreational facilities.

One of the first official acts of the Cadettes when they hit the campus was to compose a song. The words, the combined efforts of a group of the women, are worthy of note:

I'm a rambling Cadette Penn State just met
And a helluva engineer, a helluva, helluva, helluva, helluva, helluva engineer.
Like all jolly good coeds, we come from far and near:
I'm a rambling Cadette Penn State just met and a helluvan engineer.
And if I had a daughter fair I'd start her from babyhood to train for Curtiss-Wright.
But if I had a son, sir, I'll tell you what I'd do
He'd fly the planes his mamma made, and work for Curtiss, too.

Selsam Talks to Engineers

Prof. J. Paul Selsam of the department of history will speak on "What Are We Fighting For?" for a senior engineering lecture in 121 Sparks at 4:10 Friday, according to Harry P. Hammond, dean of the School of Engineering.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

ed the fact that the fraternities had been warned a month ago of this impending inconvenience and should have been prepared for it. If that was the case, why the last minute rush, why have we been kept in the dark, and why haven't adequate plans been made? It certainly seems there has been a lot of inefficiency somewhere.

I believe that I am speaking for the boys of the fraternities who are moving when I say, "We are patriotic, we are glad of the opportunity that we have of being some help to the armed forces but what we want to know is why the College hasn't been giving us any help in becoming adjusted and finding solutions to our many problems."

Hoping that if any more fraternities have to move they will be better taken care of.

Sincerely
Bob Hicks.
