

Yohe Invites Greek Cadettes to Attend Panhellenic Ball

One Book Per Person To Be Admission Charge

Invitations have been issued to Curtiss-Wright Cadettes affiliated with a sorority for the annual Panhellenic formal at the Nittany Lion Inn tonight, according to R. Christine Yohe, chairman of the dance.

The chairman also stressed the fact that "stray greeks" that is, undergraduate coeds affiliated with chapters other than those on campus, are especially invited to attend. It is important, however, she added, that these women call her at the Phi Mu house today so that their names may be added to the guest list. The dance is closed to non-sorority women and unless names are on the guest list women will not be admitted.

In conjunction with the National Victory Book drive the committee has made the admission charge one book per person. The books may be of any sort and pocket novels are especially needed.

George Washko and his Campus Owls will play for the dance from 9 to 12 p.m. The dance committee, B. Anne Moorhouse, Barbara E. Boak, and Miss Yohe has omitted extensive decorations for the affair in order to conserve money and other materials.

WOMEN IN SPORTS

By RITA M. BELFONTE

Pulling out of a 21-14 Navy lead at the half, Army basketballers downed the Navy squad, 39-28, winning the game in the last quarter of playing.

Helen Hooper led scoring for the Army team and for the evening with 18 points, tagged closely by teammate Becky Walker who accounted for 17 Army points. Alice Burwell eked out the remaining two points for the Army. Guards included Motty Haverstick, Gloria McKinley, and Adele Levin.

Emmie Northrup scored 10 Navy points followed by her sister, Peggy, who knocked out nine, Mary Ann Jennings who rated five, and Alice Hooper who tallied four. Navy guards were Betty Wolfrum, Fran Angle, and Eleanor Wills.

The next game of the series will take place at 4 p.m. Monday, according to Mary G. Longnecker, WRA intramural chairman. Should the Army cop this game, the series will end, but if the Navy wins, one more game will be played to decide the series, Miss Longnecker stated.

Volleyball

In the single eliminations volleyball tournament, the Phi Mus inflicted a crushing 60-27 defeat on the Kappa Kappa Gamma squad which, however, only included six players. The Phi Mu line-up included Mary Werts, Ruth Hennigan, Kay Otto, Bea White, Helen Barn, Olive Van Houten, Lila Leaman, Ione Cramer, and Betty Wiley.

Jordan Downs Chi Omega

Chi Omega dropped a rather close game to Jordan Hallers, 37-31. This loss eliminates Chi Omega from the tournament. Chi Omega players included Alice Burwell, Jane Minnich, Barbara Burwell, Mary Ann Krall, Betty Robinson, Louise Cummings, Fran Angle, and Sara Wills.

Jordan Hallers who participated in the tournament were Mary Gundel, Gloria McKinley, Becky Walker, Helen Schmdle, Eunice Hurlburt, Jean Flagg, Betty Rice, Cynthia Geffen, and Sally Howard.

Grange Bows to Ath East

Grange dormitory was an easy prey to a strong Ath East team which trampled the dorm unit, 65-15. The Grange line-up included Peggy Smith, Adeline Defina, Gloria Sanderson, Rosemary Johnson, Helen Hooper, Mary Hancock, and Rosemary Keyser.

Coeds who played for Ath East included Helen Hooper, Dorothy Stewart, Dorothy Yackle, Annette Keefer, Florence Rothman, Betsy McGee, Motty Haverstick, and Joan Patterson.

120 Coeds Set Record

A new attendance record was set last night as 120 coeds rolled surgical dressings for the armed forces. Last week's attendance was 77, which broke the record up to that date. The local Red Cross chapter is attempting to raise their quota from 20,000 in February to 31,000 dressings for March. A national goal has been set for 183,000,000 dressings because the need by the armed forces has become more urgent than ever before, according to the surgical-dressing instructors.

Tennis Candidates

All candidates for the tennis team and freshman candidates for tennis manager are asked to report to the tennis courts Monday at 5 p.m.

planned for the evening, as the time will be devoted to doing constructive work for the Red Cross. March 31 is the last day of the national Red Cross drive.

This work is being completed in cooperation with Mrs. R. J. Blasingame who is active in town Red Cross activities.
