

THE DAILY COLLEGIAN
 "For A Better Penn State"
 Established 1940. Successor to the Penn State Collegian, established 1904, and the Penn State Lancer, established 1887.
 Published daily except Sunday and Monday during the regular college year by the Students of the Pennsylvania State College. Entered as second class matter July 5, 1934 at the Post Office at State College, Pa., under the act of March 8, 1879.

Editor—
PAUL I. WOODLAND

Business Manager—
PHILIP P. MITCHELL
 Staff This Issue

Managing Editor—Stephen Stinchak
 News Editor—Rem Robinson
 Advertising Assistant—Paul Bender
 Freshman Assistants—Patty Beldock, Glo Whyte

PLAYERS PRESENT

(Continued from Page One)
 added.
 Dancers include Selma Solomon, Gay Albertman, Harriet Block, Elizabeth Furst, Shirley Hadley, Harriet Van Riper, Madeline Marurran, Jeannette Eihlers, Betty Dreelander, Ione Cramer, Charlotte Taylor, Terry Krasowski, Mary Thompson, Anna Radle, Ella May Hartenstein, Gloria Woodburn, Evelyn Godfrey, Evelyn Grieg, and Sarah Thompson.

WOMEN IN SPORTS

By RITA BELFONTE

Army-Navy basketball came to a surprise finish Thursday as a definitely "off the beam" Navy team downed a well-coordinated Army squad with a series of lucky, almost impossible field goals and close shots. The final score was 30-26.

Line-ups with individual scores are as follow:

Army—Helen Hooper, 8; Becky Walker, 16; Alice Burwell, 2; and Guards Motty Haverstick, Estelle Brown, Peggy Quick, Gloria McKinley, Adele Levin, and Dorcas Newcomer.

Navy—Peggy Northrup, 18; Mary A. Jennings, 2; Emmie Northrup, 4; Alice Hooper, 6; and Guards Fran Angle, Eleanor Wills, and Betty Wolfrum.

Gins, playing for Jordan Hall B team, downed Johnson, Delta Gamma, in two straight sets, 21-15, 21-14. Funk, DG, defeated Jordan Hall's Gundel, 21-12, 21-14. In the doubles, Jordan Hall won, 21-19, 21-17.

Becky Walker, playing for Jordan Hall A team, was downed by AEPHI Joan Runkle in two close games, 21-12, 21-14. Greenburg, AEPHI, downed Cohen, Jordan A, 21-17, 21-12. In the doubles, Alpha Epsilon Phi defeated Jordan A, 21-5, 21-14.

The volley ball semi-finals will be played off Monday at 4 p. m., according to Mary G. Longenecker, WRA Intramural Chairman. Ath West will play Kappa Alpha Theta and Ath East will meet Jordan Hall.

WRA will sponsor a playnight from seven until 10 o'clock tomorrow evening. At this time, all White Hall facilities, including rifle range, bowling alleys, swimming pool, and gymnasium, will be open to coeds who attend.

WRA Bowling and Outing Clubs will sponsor an overnight hike to the WRA cabin. Coeds who plan to attend should meet in front of White Hall at two o'clock this afternoon.

We, The Women
Officials Cease Talk; And Your Conscience?

The Red Cross talk stops today. That is, campaign managers, shouting headlines, pleading posters will stop bothering you about "giving all you can."

You'll no doubt be relieved to see that the picture of the charming Axis crowd has been removed. You'll be glad that Faloon can start going to classes again and stop contacting heads of dorms, fraternities, honoraries, co-ops, and scholastic groups about contributions. You'll feel good 'cause you're wearing a Red Cross tag. But what will your conscience be saying? Will you figure that you really did all that you could? Will you be proud of the fact that the College lacked $2,000 of reaching its quota?

What's been done has been done well. Every women's living unit has contributed something to the drive. Town co-ops have exceeded their quotas, and campus dorms have met theirs. This is deserving of a great deal of praise and thanks. Take it.

But remember that you can still give another little bit to the far-reaching organization until midnight. Don't feel that you've done enough. Anyone who feels that she's reached that point is finished... for good.

Because of the evident interest of the College in a Red Cross blood donor unit, officials have announced that we will get it next semester. You've done excellently. The College and every student here can be proud. They could be more proud.

Some famous radio comedians have suggested, "Your buck may be the one that brings 'em back alive."

Aristocrat Band To Play At Last Dance Of Year

Jack Lord and his Aristocrats, current campus band, have been contracted to play at the annual Mil Ball in Rec Hall, April 30, Cadet Colone Charles Welker, said last night.

Invitation committee members are at the present time completing plans to permit the newly arrived Air Corps men to attend the last dance of the semester, and possibly the last big dance for the duration.

Enlisted Reservists in the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps will also be invited, said Welker. Basic ROTC men will be permitted to wear their regular army uniform, while the advanced men will wear their cadet attire.

Coed War Stamp Vendors Hit All-Time Sales High During Thursday Drive

An all-time high of $20.40 worth of 10, 25, and 50-cent war stamps was sold Thursday evening by members of Mortar Board, National Senior Women's activities honor society, Grace L. Judge, president, announced yesterday.

The sale was part of a campaign, where members of the honorary society are stationed outside of women's dining commons every Thursday evening after dinner, to establish war stamp headquarters.

Receipts amounted to $12.70 in Ath West, where Florence I. Jaffe and Dorothy K. Brunner were the vendors; $1.65 in Ath east, where Adele J. Levin had charge; and $6.05 in MacAllister Hall, where H. Ann Carruthers and Dorothy L. Jones were selling.

Next week, stamps will also be sold in the Sandwich Shop, after announcement of the plan has been made to the Cadettes.

Sottung-Burford Head Plans For Tonight's Navy Welcome Dance

Ensign Walt Sottung '41, now stationed in State College with the Navy, is co-chairman with John C. Burford for a welcome dance given by former ensigns and PSCA for the new group of ensigns, in the State College Hotel, Saturday night. Dancing to George Washko's Campus Owls will continue from 9 p. m. until 12 midnight.

Red carnations will be sold at the door with the proceeds going to the World Student Service Fund drive now being conducted on campus during the month of April.

Since the new group of ensigns are composed of men not of college age, the PSCA will sponsor other affairs symbolizing the Penn State "welcome spirit," and encourage them to take part in all campus activities.

MANAGER ELECTIONS...

(Continued from Page One)
 Associate manager is Thomas V. Blythe, while First Assistant Manager's slots will be filled next year by Willard F. Agnew, Charles L. Alcorn and Edward N. Cohen. First alternate manager is Edwin A. Walter.

Gymnastics
 Gymnastics elections included only the head manager's spot which was given to M. Harvey Scheiner for Coach Wettstone's next team.

Russian Club Meets

The monthly meeting of Alpha Rho Omega, National Russian Education Club, will be held in the second floor lounge of Old Main, 2 p. m. tomorrow. All members are requested to attend.

The Spians

Present

KHAKI WAAC-Y

Schwab Auditorium

Featuring:

PLINK

PLANK

PLUNK

$1.75-$1.00
 Including Tax

Friday-Saturday,
 April 9-10

The Smoothest Band In All The Land

JIMMIE LUNCEFORD

AND HIS ORCHESTRA

Will Play For

Junior-Senior Ball

APRIL 9

Dancing 9-11

Admission $4.00 per couple

CLASSIFIED WANT-ADS

Those subscribers to the Penn State Engineer who have been evacuated from their fraternity houses may get their current copies from Student Union. Please notify us of your change of address for coming issue.
 1t-2-chg—RWM

LOST—Zeta Tau Alpha pin Tuesday night probably between Blue and White and Atherton Hall. Finder call Helen McCleary, Atherton Hall.
 3tcomp,3,6,7,AF

PW—To Greensburg or vicinity. Leave today at 9 a. m. Call between 8:30 and 9 a. m. this morning. Call Frank, 4842. 1tpd3R.R.

WILL PERSON—Please return coat taken by mistake in Allencrest. Call Rudy Long, 2129.
 2tpd,3,6,R.R.

SUNDAY N. Y. HERALD-TRIBUNE—Delivered. Call 2845. Ask for Beutner.
 1tch3SS