

The Dailu

Collegian

VOL. 41-No. 85. 8

OF THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE TUESDAY, MORNING APRIL 13, 1943, STATE COLLEGE, PA.

PRICE: THREE CENTS

All-College Cabinet Meets to Draft Revision for New Student Government

Committee Member

Robert Falcon, senior president, is one on a committee of four chosen to revise the constitution of Penn State's student government.

Parody Issue Soon

will be on sale April 20, according to Leon Cialla, editor.

Group to Discuss Changes Next Week

A draft for the revision of Penn ed by Chairman Grey at last night's All-College Cabinet meet-revise the governmental setup in- work. clude Robert Faloon, Robert Maceach proposed amendment.

As outlined at the meeting, the plan consists of (1) a shift from the ley present yearly basis of class elec- John Struck and Rodney Wigglestions to a semester basis. A presi- worth will sing a series of numdent and treasurer would be elected from each of the eight semesters, the treasurer to succeed the president in case of a vacancy.

(2) All-College Cabinet would consist of each of the eight semester presidents, the president of the Women's Student Government As-Featuring parodies on Daily sociation, and the treasurer of se-Collegian, Centre Daily Times, mester eight, who would serve as True Confessions, and campus head of the Interclass Finance characters, the new issue of Froth Board. President of semester eight would head All-College Cabinet. In addition, one representative of Froth's price will be reised to 20 each of the service units on cam

(Continued On Page Two)

'LoveRidesTheRails' Features Several Specialty Numbers

Schwab Auditorium will be turned into Schwab Op'ry House for three nights this week. The Players will present the gala production, "Love Rides the Rails or State's student government to Will the Mail Train Run To-meet wartime demands will be night?" The atmosphere is typical night?" The atmosphere is typical drawn up by a committee appoint- of turn of the century life in every aspect. Since the program is 3 feet by 7 inches in size and is printed on both sides, one can Committee members chosen to imagine the completeness of the

It not only features an excellent Nabb, William Briner, and Grey. Players' cast in a clever three act Acceptance of the wartime govern- melodramatic story but includes ment system, which will have to 15 specialty numbers. While the take place during the next few sudience is wondering the fate of weeks, will be made after the pro- the hero and heroine, their attenposed changes have been read tion will be diverted by the Canthree times before Cabinet mem- Can Chorus who really typify this bers, accompanied by discussion of type of routine with the brillance of their costumes and gyrations.

The quartet composed of Wes-Wagner, Bill Christophers, between acts including "More To Be Pitied Than Censored" with Betty Christman and (Continued On Page Four)

Students Compete For Speech Honors

Over 50 competitors in the annual All-Coffege extemporaneous speaking contest will meet at 7 o'clock tonight for preliminary eliminations and later in the evening 10 students who survive eliminations will compete in the semifinals in 121 Sparks.

The 50 have been placed in groups of approximately five persons each, with one person from each group selected for the semifinals. The board of judges is composed of speech department mem-

Six persons successfully passing eliminations and semi-finals will speak in the finals Saturday for first and second place prizes of $50 and $25.

Speeches in the elimination will be five minutes long, while each contestant must speak for from eight to ten minutes in the finals, Clayton H. Schug, assistant professor of public speaking and chairman of the contest committee,

.Students may speak on the same topics in eliminations and semifinals but new subjects must be chosen for the finals, Schug added.

Members of both men's and women's debate teams are eligible for the competition, but may not speak on debate topics in the finals. According to rules of the contest. persons who competed in but did not win previous public speaking matches are also eligible.

Committee for the event includes Schug, chairman; Harriet D. Nesbitt, instructor in public speaking; and Raymond W. Tyson, assistant professor of public speak-

This year's event marks over half a century of public speaking contests at the College, and speech department members stated that the present 50 may be the largest group to participate in a contest of this kind for the duration of the war.

Phi Kappa Sig Elects

first vice-president, Robert W. tiss-Wright tap dancer; Mim Rhein, ard E. Nicholson: secretary, J. Bill Christophers, Glee Club vocal-Welling Graul.

Marine Reservists Must Report To Evade Penalty

Headquarters Will Take Disciplinary Action

Over 25 Marine reservists face disciplinary action if they do not report to Professor Robert Galbraith's office for supplementary questionnaires by 5 p.m. tomorrow afternoon, according to a release from the war service office here

These questionnaires have been available at the FAWS office for Harrisburg tomorrow night. several days, but few men have filed answers to them. Since these forms are due at Marine headquarters on Thursday, it will be necessary to have all enlistees contact Galbraith within the next 33 hours if they do not want their names forwarded to Marine headquarters.

Questions asked on the forms pertain to all occupational and military experience the reservist has participated in during his high school and college days. The information gained from answers to these questions will be used in the selection of officer material.

In addition, the student enlistee will give a resume of all extracurricular activities engaged in for the past few years. Finally, a character reference must be obtained from ROTC department as a final check on the enlistee's qualifications.

Marine headquarters sylve re-fied Galbraith yesterday that sev (Continued Ou Page Two)

Cap and Gown Orders

Orders for caps and gowns will be taken at the Student Union desk from 9 o'clock tomorrow until noon Saturday, according to Wallace M. Murfit president of Skull and Bones. All seniors graduating in May are urged to place their orders during the specified time.

A deposit of five dollars will be necessary when the order is placed. Murfit stressed the fact that duplicate receipts will be issued this year since so many students lost ones they received last year. A charge of 25 cents will be made for these receipts, and one dollar for the late return of the garment.

Thespians Launch Mobile Unit; Hint Return Run of Show

Following their successful twoday run of "Khaki Waac-y" last weekend, Thespians are launching the first of their new Mobile Units to the Middletown Air Depot near

There is a possibility that 'Khaki Waac-y' may have a return run in State College soon, the Thespians hinted, after the show played to SRO crowds both nights.

The Mobile Units were organized last winter to bring entertainment to nearby service centers. The Middletown engagement is the first of a new series of Mobile Units.

Featured on the program will be Bud Mellot as master of ceremonies; Mim Zartman, Taffy Brine, Pris Schautz and Audrey Kreegar of the dancing chorus; the Varsity Quartet with Ray Fortunato, Mary Jane Doerner, Tawnee Hill,-and Len Dileneis; the Three Stooges, Bud Mellot, Jack Hunter, and Bill Reutti.

All service camps that the units have played so far have indicated their enjoyment of the units. Some have written to College authorities asking that more units be sent, stating that their type of entertainment was enjoyed even more than the professional revues that played the camps:

Jimmie Lunceford announced while he was here last weekend that he liked the Thespian tunes, "So There" by Jane Abramson, "Wherever You Are" by Bob Kline, and "The Feeling I Have for You" by Les Stein, and that he will feature them in his library and might even make a recording of one or two after the record ban is lifted.

Committee Meets

There will be a special meeting of the junior committee to choose 20 outstanding seniors in 305 Old Main, 7 o'clock tonight, Clifford M. St. Clair, chairman of the committee, announced last night.

Final Dry Dock Production Welcomes Air Corps Cadets

Featuring the largest entertainment ever presented before Penn was recently organized by Walt State audiences in one evening, Kazor, boogie-woogie pianist of Dry Dock night club puts on a former Dry Docks. The band fealarge-scale production in Rec Hall tures outstanding artists from big Saturday night to welcome the Air name orchestras. Crew students.

Making their premiere performance will be the new Air Corps tory Easter Parade" scene from Thespian show, "Khaki Waac-y," and a Spring Fashion Parade featuring latest fashions from local band. style marts.

The floor show features over 150 the Dry Dock series. Starring in Phi Kappa Sigma, social frater—the floor show will be such camnity, elected officers recently pus favorites as Ray Sorenson, President is Charles A. Wedge Jr.; gymnast; Betty Friedlander, Curist; and many others.

The new Air Corps orchestra

Pvt. Charlie Stewart, former trombonist with Bunny Berrigan's orchestra; Pvt. Seymour Rosendance orchestra featuring men that, planist with Berrigan; Pvt. from "name bands" along with the Mac Theodore, vocalist with Jerry Campus Owls orchestra, the "Vic- Wald; Pvt. Bruce Unwin, brother of Ken Unwin, now drummer with Vaughn Munroe, are only a few of the top rate musicians with the

The band is playing a jam session between the acts of the floor entertainers in the largest revue of show featuring such favorites as "One O'clock Jump," "Solitude,"
"In the Mood," "I Left My Sugar in Salt Lake City," and "I'm Getting Tired So I Can Sleep."

Other Air Crew students play-Baughman; second vice-president, vocalist who represented Penn ing in the band are Pvt. David Gordon S. Rogers; treasurer, Rich- State on "The Hour of Charm"; Spohn, Bert Cotterell, Al Tevels on the trumpets; Pvt. Lynwood (Continued On Page Three)

Zabkar To Speak Before State Assembly, 2 Governors

Francis E. Zabkar, winner of the Pittsburgh district title in the Jefferson Oratorical Contest, has been requested to appear with the high school winner of the same title at a joint session of the General Assembly in Harrisburg, noon tomorrow.

In a recent telegram to the Penn State senior, he was requested along with James M. Gammon, high school victor, to deliver his winning oration before the governors of two states and the combined Senate and House of Representatives of Pennsylvania.

Gov. Martin and Gov. Colgate Darden, of Virginia, Jefferson's native state, will head the list of distinguished officials who will speak. Leading educators will also participate in the bi-centennial celebra tion knooring the writer of the Declaration of Independence.

State Senator Leroy E. Chapman, chairman of the state's Thomas stefferson Bi-Centennial Commission, a ged Zabkar and Gammon to deliver their orations after the

Gov. Martin, Cheirman Chap-man, and Senator Figure Stifel, secretary of the Commission, will make arrangements for the orators whose expenses will be paid either by the commission or by the Hearst newspaper chain, sponser of the contest.

In the letter of invitation, Dr. Chapman said: If do hereby extend our invitation to the gentlemen to appear at the joint session of the General Assembly on Wednesday, April 14, at 12 o'clock and deliver their orations on Thomas Jefferson."

Zabkar, Penn State's entry in the Jeffersonian contest, reached the Midwest elimination where he came in a close third. Rathbunn, from Northwestern University, took first spot and will vie for national honors at the grand finale of the contest, to be held in New York's CBS Playhouse and broadcast over the major networks.

Serving on the committee that will judge the final winner are governors from seven states, California, Michigan, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania. Illinois, Maryland, and Massachusetts..

FRANCIS E. ZABKAR