

Bedenkmen Set for Battle With Syracuse Team Today

Coach Joe Bedenk and his undefeated Nittany baseballers play host to the Orange of Syracuse University on the New Beaver diamond this afternoon at 4 p. m. in the season's second home fray.

Victorious over Villanova and Juniata in the curtailed spring schedule, Penn State appears to be in store for a hard game this afternoon.

Bedenk was uncertain last night as to the starting hurler for the home club as he stated that it would either be Stover or Young. The rest of the Lions' starting lineup will be the same that defeated Juniata here last Friday.

Jake Flowers, Jack Burford and Dale Bowers will occupy the outfield posts with Chuck McFarland on first, Eddie Sebastianelli on second, Whitey Thomas at short, and Gene Sutherland at the "hot corner." Oggie Martella will be behind the plate.

Phi Deltas Beat DU in Softball League, 3-0

As the abbreviated fraternity softball league uncorked its guns for the spring season, Phi Delta Theta took a close 3-0 decision from the Delta Upsilon ten.

Early last week, the Phi Deltas walloped out a 5-1 victory over the same bunch.

The contest started as a pitcher's duel between Hank Yeagley, for the winners, and Bud Margerum, DU hurler.

Lion Tennis Squad Plays Muhlenburg

With Old Man Weather still frowning on his Penn State tennis charges, the team is tuning up for their second meet of the season against Gettysburg tomorrow afternoon on the Nittany courts.

Barring sudden changes in the line-up, Cy Hull will take his accustomed position as Nittany number one man while Ace Parker will take over the duties in the second spot against the down-staters.

Walt Stenger, newcomer to the net team, who won his first net match of the season against Swarthmore, will tangle in third position, and Herb Kraybill will play number four.

Jim Lawther, who lost a close match to Swarthmore's Bill Clendennin in the last contest, will probably see action in the fifth slot while Russ Campbell, another first year man, is the choice for number six.

In the doubles, Hull and Parker will probably take on the Gettysburg first doubles combine. Stenger and Kraybill may get the call to play second doubles and it will probably be Lawther and Campbell or Dick Armbrust in the third doubles.

will carry the brunt of the attack by competing in the quarter and half mile runs.

Bobby Jones will support St. Clair in the quarter mile dash, while Mitchell Williams, Dave Carleton and Mac Smith will try for half mile honors. Curt Stone, Smith and Mitch Williams will probably enter the mile event.

Two mile entries will be Stone, Wessel and Tom Scott. Stouffer and Jack Foreman will do the high jumping, while Stemler will take care of the pole vaulting duties. Hanin, Mayer and Pearson will throw the shotput and the discus, with javelin assignments going to Sid Cohen, Maxwell, McMinn, Borges and Pearson. Hoggard and Pearson will do the broad jumping.

Following the meet with Ohio State, the Lions will meet Pitt on May 8 and then end their season by competing in the IC4-A meet.

Lions, Union City Gymnasts Favored in AAU Competition

Favorites in the National AAU gymnastic meet scheduled to be held tomorrow in the West Side YMCA of New York City will be the Union City Gymnastic Society of Union City, N. J., winners of 20 out of the last 22 meets.

Penn State's Eastern Intercollegiate League championship squad is favored to tally a high score and possibly upset the favorites. The Union City team claims the honor of supplying 75 per cent of the United States Olympic squads of past years. The 1936 Olympics found three of their kind on the championship roster.

The Nittany men, coached by Gene Wettstone, will display exceptionally good team balance with men entered in every event, including the all-around competition. Captain Lou Bordo and Ray Sorenson are expected to place in the all-around event, which will not include the tumbling exercise.

Bill Wintersteen and Harold Frey, Lion gymnasts, will swing the Indian clubs against the defending champion, Hennick, 64-year-old contestant from Cleveland. Hennick has held the title off and on since 1904.

Highlight of the program will probably be the rope climbing event. Penn State has dominated this event for the past several years and is expected to do well in the competition tomorrow.

Chick Lebow, world's record holder, is set to make a good showing. His teammates, Wirtschaffer, Young, Barclay and Wintersteen, will also do climbing chores. Wirtschaffer has done well in practice and may be the "dark horse" of this event. Condit, formerly of Princeton, and Rafferty of Navy are also rated highly in this match.

Tumbling exercises will no doubt be dominated by Temple's Szyppala, titleholder for the past three years. Loken of Iowa Pre-Flight, Meade and Frey of Penn State and Bobby Martin of Jersey City are slated to place in the mat event.

Lion Bordo is rated highly for long horse and parallel bar honors, while Small is expected to do his best on the flying rings and the p-bars. Lebow will perform on the ropes and the horizontal bar, with Bonsall trying for points on the rings, the mats and on the long horse.

Compulsory exercises and the finals in club swinging will take place tomorrow afternoon.
