

Nittany Gymnasts Have High Hopes Of Taking Title in National AAU Meet

(Special to The Collegian)
NEW YORK CITY, April 30.—Coach Gene Wettstone's champion gymnastic squad arrived here late today in preparation for the National AAU championship gym meet that will take place in the West Side YMCA tomorrow afternoon and evening.

The Lions, along with the perennial champs of Union City, N. J., are favored to take the team prize in tomorrow's competition. The Blue and White squad placed second last year, and with a better balanced team this season, hope to score an upset over the star-studded New Jersey team. Union City has supplied the United States Olympic gym team for a good many years, and three members of the 1936 Olympic squad still remain with the champion team.

After dominating the rope climbing event for the past few national meets, the Lions are again favored to make a "run-away" with this event. Record-holder Chick Lebow, Wirtschafter, Barclay, Young and Wintersteen will carry the Blue and White colors during this competition. Contenders for the title along with the five Nittanymen are Condit and Rafferty.

All-around competition will find Captain Lou Bordo and Ray Soronson making a bid for the title, but will have to compete against the Union City defending champ. The tumbling exercise will be excluded in this competition.

Hennick, 64-year-old Cleveland club swinging champ, will pit his skill against Lions Bill Wintersteen and Harold Frey. Hennick has held the title sporadically for the past 40 years.

Temple Owl George Szypula, National and Eastern League tumbling champ, is expected to repeat again this year. The "human wheel" has held the national title for the past three years. Last season he edged out Lion Hal Zimmerman by a quarter of a point to take the title.

Harold Frey and Billy Meade, Blue and White entries, are planning on placing high in the tumbling event. Loken of the Iowa Pre-Flight School and Bobby Martin of Jersey City are also contending for place honors.

State Favored to Cop Short Distance Events In Ohio State Meet

Ohio State University and the Penn State Lions will battle it out for honors in the dual track and field meet scheduled to take place on New Beaver Field, 1:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Coach Conger, Nittany mentor, is banking on the Blue and White runners to do well in the short distance events, but is somewhat doubtful of the outcome in the hurdles and sprinting races.

The Buckeyes have a "question mark" squad this season after the loss of several star runners. The Lions too have felt the effect of war when several of the Blue and White thinclads left for the armed services. Recent Nittanymen who left for the services include star miler Gerry Karver and short distance man Don Harris. Johnny Dibeler was slated to leave also, but has been granted a deferment until the semester closes.

Cliff St. Clair and Bobby Jones are expected to do the quarter mile tricks, while Mac Smith, Dave Carleton and Mitch Williams are set to compete for half mile honors. Smith, Williams and Curt Stone are to enter the mile run competition.

Stone, Wessel and Scott will be entered in the two mile trick. Jack Foreman and Stouffer will be at the high jumping post and Stemler will do the soaring in the pole vaulting event.

Jack Grey Announces Forensic Appointments

Jack Grey, All-College president, announced the following new appointments to Forensic Council, debate society: E. James Trimanchi, Saul Kosuk, Richard K. Tritley, Louis Ullman, Zelmar Baison, and Ruth Clyde.

There will be a Cabinet meeting Tuesday, 7 p. m., in the Alumni office, according to the president. Cabinet members are invited to the "housewarming" party in the new offices of the dean of women. This invitation has been extended by Dean Charlotte E. Ray and her staff.

Student Counselors Meet

The student counselors for freshman orientation will meet in Hugh Beaver room at 7 p. m. Monday, according to Daniel C. Gillespie, chairman.

Dean A. R. Warnock will speak to the group on student-faculty relations and relations between students in and out of uniform. The counselors have been recommended by the deans of their respective schools.

Saul Hanin, Mayer and Pearson have been assigned to the shotput and discus duties. The hammer throw has been eliminated for this meet at the request of the Buckeye coach, Doc Castleman. Cohen, Maxwell, McMinn, Borges and Pearson will throw the javelin.

Lions Defeat Syracuse, 10-9 In Hard Twelve-Inning Game

In what proved to be the most exciting game of the season, Chuck McFarland, star Lion first sacker, came through at just the right time to push the winning run across the plate for Penn State to defeat Syracuse, 10-9.

Joe Bedenk's proteges were leading 8-6 going into the top half of the ninth when the Orangemen rallied with three runs to take the lead 9-8. The Lions attempted a rally of their own in the last half of the inning and succeeded in tying the score with the winning run stranded on third base and forcing the game into extra innings.

After two innings of scoreless ball, Dale Bower walked, stole second and scored on McFarland's long single to end the three and a half-hour game.

Oggie Martella connected with Syracuse pitcher Friel's pitch to disprove the "dead ball" theory and gather his first home run of the season.

Yount started on the mound for the Lions and lasted until the fifth when he was relieved by Stover. Stover was taken out for a pinch-hitter in the big ninth inning and was replaced by Wardorf, who received credit for the victory.

The Lions again meet Syracuse on the New Beaver diamond at 1:30 p. m. today.

WSSF Contributions Reach Half-Way Mark

Penn State is nearing the half-way mark of its $1000 goal in the annual WSSF drive, according to R. Christine Yohe and Howard W. Carlson, co-chairmen.

WSSF representatives visited women's dormitories last week, giving talks on the organization's work in war-torn countries and receiving contributions from the coeds. This week the committee is contacting the men students, speaking in fraternity houses.

The organizations which have contributed so far are the Forestry Society, Forensic Council, WRA, WSGA, Curtiss-Wright Cadettes, Grange dormitory, Atherton Hall, McAllister Hall, Women's Building, Irvin Hall, and Frazier Hall.

At the last meeting of Lakonides, women's physical education honorary, Mary Ann Jennings was elected secretary. Miss Jennings succeeds Mary Grace Longenecker.
