

Cwens to Initiate Outstanding Coeds At Banquet May 2

Group to Announce Incoming Officers

Twenty-six outstanding freshman and sophomore women who were tapped by Cwens at the annual Cwens breakfast will be initiated into the sophomore honorary at a festival banquet at the Alpha Zeta house Sunday evening.

Following the ancient Anglo-Saxon folk ways and traditions, the ceremony will include the presentation of Cwens pins, the sceptre and crown, symbolic of the name "Cwen," meaning queen.

Newly elected officers of the group will be announced during the festivities. Those being initiated are Rose D. Devecka, Betty Jane Drouse, Phyllis de Mauriac, Cynthia Geffen, Marilyn L. Glombisch, Helen V. Hatton, G. Patricia Hallberg, Peggy Lou Johnson, Mary Ann Jennings, Lois I. Lunn, Gloria J. McKinley, Helen J. Martin, Florence A. Port, B. Ruth Pielmeier, Gertrude G. Rosen, Betty M. Shenk, and Marguerite P. Susanin. Jeanne Richards, adviser, was also tapped.

Dean Charlotte E. Ray, Harriet Allen, Doris Jean Reichenback, Mrs. Frank W. Haller, Doty Jones, Marie Haidt, and Louise Dye, former Cwens, will be guests for the occasion.

Cwens who will greet the new members are Ruth Clyde, Jane Cronis, Patricia Diener, Alice Drumm, Ruth Emberry, Carol Emrick, Margaret L. Good, Mary Grace Longenecker, Vivian Martin, Judy McFarland, Betsy McGee, Joan Miller, Jean Ogden, Florinne Olson, Kathleen Osgood, Barbara Painter, Winifred Singer, Marjorie Schultz, Ruth Steimer, Gloria Whyel, Christine Yohe, and Miriam Zartman.

Go into Business. Prepared to Stay.

With Katharine Gibbs secretarial training, the college woman is prepared not only to secure at once a better job, but also to hold her place in business in the post-war readjustment. Courses exclusively for college women begin July 6 and September 21. Send for booklet, "GIBBS GIRLS AT WORK."

Co-Rec Day, Backstage Canteen Provide Chance for Coed Hostesses

Co-Rec Day and a State College version of a stagedoor canteen mean a big Saturday.

Another attempt to provide introductions and welcomes for the Army Air Crew, WRA's Co-Rec Day is open to all cadets, cadettes, and College kids. White Hall will be open to the multitudes and all WRA facilities will be available for use from 2 to 5 this afternoon.

The women's recreation hall is really extensive with a wealth of health-building ammunition. And, although the place is open continuously to the coed population, Co-Rec days are the few times that many really visit it.

Women and guests should recognize the definite values of physical exercise resulting from a swanky swimming pool, a dandy dance room, a sharp-shooting range, a great gymnasium, a broad bowling alley, and a practical playroom.

Since few women find it convenient to participate in such activities often, WRA sincerely hopes that they take advantage of this special chance to get their exercise and to welcome our wartime visitors.

Backstage in a certain makeshift theatre tonight, a staunch but small group of Penn State USO's will play hostess to men in the service and civilians.

They plan to break up any ordinary connections and insert a few new personalities. They're all out for the men who are "flying high into the sun" for their country.

They are few in number, need hundreds of hostesses to help, but they are the real idea-gals behind the scenes in this backstage program. They are stepping into the job which is theirs to do since a wartime atmosphere has clouded our skies.

The Thespian Masquerettes deserve a lot of credit because their work has always been primary but recognition of it has been secondary. Now that they have banded themselves into a separate club, they have attempted a project which is going unnoticed as far as they are concerned.

The "Backstage Canteen" opens tonight as the College's first USO project. The idea is great, we're sure, but there'll be nothing of the USO spirit about it unless hostesses come with the crowds.

Softballers Practice

All coeds are invited to participate in the interclass softball practices on Holmes Field at 4 o'clock next week, Monday through Thursday, according to Mary Grace Longenecker, WRA chairman. From the girls reporting for practice will be chosen class teams which will participate in a scheduled program of games for the school championship. The regular contests will begin after vacation.

Revised Elections Code

ARTICLE VI
Campaign

The only type of campaigning permitted will be verbal and personal contacts. There shall be no posters, handbills, cards, signs, public announcements, or other type of campaigning or advertising by the candidates.

The elections committee will print sufficient official elections posters to notify and remind students of the voting time and candidates. These, along with stories in the Daily Collegian, will be the only permissible type of open publicity.

There will be no financial budgets for the campaigning. Spending money for campaign purposes in any manner is prohibited.

The committee will meet with all candidates on Wednesday evening, June 23, to answer any questions about the voting and to hear any complaints about code violations. They shall meet with all candidates again after the closing of the polls and before the counting of the votes begins on Friday, June 25, when further complaints will be heard.

ARTICLE VII
Eligibility to Vote

An official voting registration shall take place on June 10 and 11, 1943, at the College registration for the Summer semester. Each student shall fill out a form which will be filed by the elections committee and used to check off voters. This registration list shall be official.

Any student registering late or who for other reasons has not filled out an official registration form may vote upon presentation of a note from either the dean of men or women, respectively, stating that he is a regularly enrolled undergraduate and stating the semester in which his college credits rank him.

Only undergraduate students shall be eligible to vote.

Students shall be required to present matriculation cards for identification at the polls.

ARTICLE VIII
Party Affiliations

No party affiliations of candidates will be printed on the official elections committee posters or the official ballots.

The elections committee recommends that no party affiliations be used in campaigning or in editorial publicity in the Daily Collegian.

ARTICLE IX
Code Violations

Penalties of twenty (20) votes shall be inflicted upon any candidate found guilty of each violation of the following:

1. Electioneering in Old Main while voting is in progress.
2. Buying of votes.
3. Any other type of campaigning than that stipulated in Article VI of the official elections code.

Voters violating voting ethics, such as voting twice, allowing his vote to be bought, voting under false pretenses, etc., shall be dealt with by Student Tribunal.

ARTICLE X
Emergency Changes

Since the new constitution calls for the organization of student government at the beginning of each semester rather than at the end of the preceding term, the elections committee reserves the right to alter its code in case of emergency after Cabinet has disbanded. Such changes will be subject to the approval of the deans of men and women, Cabinet ex-officio members.
