

The CAMPUSEER

BOB KIMMEL

On the hot spot this week is Bobby Brown, chairman of the elections committee. He is charged with the job of conducting an election to form Penn State's wartime student government. This is no doubt one of the most important posts an individual on campus has faced with no past precedent or experience to guide him for many years. This is the first time since student government was instituted that there has not been a regularly constituted group to carry on.

To date, opinion seems to be divided about the kind of job the committee is doing. Chief complaints that have been voiced are concerned with the committee's reversal of decisions, and the lack of publicity for those decisions. Undoubtedly, the absence of a daily newspaper is a big handicap, but it does seem only fair to the candidates that they be apprised of developments as soon as possible and that no one or two be permitted to capitalize on advance information.

But with the culmination of balloting this evening, the elections committee's job will be finished, and the new student officers will be ready to take their posts and carry on. We could predict the first official act, but we've been cautioned about giving out vital information.

However, we will go this far: black bow ties are not going to be a prerequisite for the well-dressed freshman this year.

Seen Around Town

Wandering around down in the town this past week we saw Chick Cialella, Froth editor, skipping rope on a porch on Pugh street on the Corner the other night

Men In Service—

By M. J. WINTER

Without the speeches and campus tours of the annual Alumni Weekends but with probably more reminiscence of days gone by are accidental meetings of boys in the service, from Alexandria to Attu. We've heard of one bunch that got together in Alaska.

Lt. Wally Dunlap is a company command up there, and among his charges is Charles Smith, a graduate in '42. Then there's Johnny Long, an ensign on a Coast Guard cutter. He runs, we hope not literally, into George Donovan, former Student Union boss; Billy Soose, Clem Henry, Bill Pennman, and Les Jeter when he touches one Alaskan port.

Move Up

Afc. Ruth Reid was graduated recently from WAC Branch Number One, Army Administration School, Nacogdoches, Texas. She attended classes in the Stephen F. Austin State College, and will take an administrative assignment now to relieve a man for active service.

Promoted recently from private to technician, fifth grade, at Camp Crowder, Missouri, was Herman Adelman, Co. C, 800th Signal Training Regiment. He is now taking a radio repair course at Central Signal Corps School.

Among the men reporting to Brooks Field, Texas, is Lt. Anthony J. Scolleri. For nine weeks he will study navigation, map and photograph interpretation, aerial photography, air-ground liaison, artillery battery fire correction, communications, visual reconnaissance, and many other subjects. He recently received his commission as a second lieutenant at the Field Artillery's Officer Candidate School, Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

George Makibbin was graduated last month from the Naval Air Training Center, Corpus Christi, Texas, and was commissioned an ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve. He received preliminary flight instruction at Olathe, Kansas, Naval Air Station.

Missing In Action

The War Department has announced that Capt. Bob Brogan was missing in action just a week after receiving the Air Medal from Gen. I. C. Eaker for five or more operational missions over Germany in a Lightning P-38.

Lt. Ed Martin was killed in a plane crash in Florida June 22. He was graduated from the College in 1942.

King George VI recently decorated Flight Officer Ernie Cozens with the Distinguished Flying Cross at Buckingham Palace. Cozens is in the Royal Canadian Air Force.

Now wearing his third Oak Leaf Cluster is Capt. John Stewart '40 of the Army Air Corps. He is operations officer in England and Africa, and has seen action in several war theaters.

Lt. Robert Helms, bomber navigator, has been awarded a silver star for gallantry in action.

Acting as commandant of cadets at the Primary Pilot School, Third Army Air Forces Flying Training Detachment, at King City, California, Lt. Charles Mattern has been lauded for his capable leadership. The cadets are taught the rudiments of military bearing, courtesy, and discipline.

Long Distance

Capt. E. E. Rhoades, better known at College as "Dusty," and several other officers overseas sent a friend in New York a check for $150. It was to entertain their girl friends in New York, with corsages, dinner, show, and night club. They must really trust the friend.

Up in Boston, Lt. Bart Henderson surprised music lovers by leading a company of 150 negroes down the aisle at the Boston Symphony concert. Must have looked like an invasion.

Old Mania...

By HELEN KEEFAUVER

Did you hear the one about a certain Mineral Industries prof being fingerprinted and then "bounced" for the criminal act of trespassing in his own Phi Delt house! Of course the little blue and white sign RESTRICTED MILITARY RESERVATION couldn't have had anything to do with it—we wonder? And that ain't all, he's slated for a personal interview with the FBI this week-end.

Hum Fishburn is also patiently waiting for the battle's end so he can gather up a few of his personal possessions lodged safely in the Phi Gam house—pardon us, we mean barracks.

No Furlough—No Fuss
Bunny Bundick, aopi prexy, has cast aside all plans for a flashy Fall wedding. We understand Tommy's lack of a furlough will necessitate a much more simplified version. Kappa Helen Schmelz is racking her lovely blonde brain trying to dream up some ingenious way of informing her mother that Jimmy can't get a big wedding furlough after all. Meanwhile mamma is scheming, so let's give her a hand pronto!

Operator TNT tells us Anne Briel picked up a diamond rock last week from some lucky fellow—still on campus. Some gals have all the luck! To some of you, frat pins may seem a bit trite with all the diamonds and gold bands flying around but we still give them a slight rating. Anyway gammh Allie Herr has acquired the pin of the hometown Old Faithful and Betty Wiley, phimu, was the recipient of the sigmapi hardware of football ace Sparky Brown, now the WSGA lounge, White Hall, at 5:00 p.m.

Intramural meeting for managers in the WRA lounge, White Hall, 7:30 p.m.

Golf Club will meet on Holmes Field at 7:30 p.m.

Chess Club will hold its first meeting this semester in 302 Old Main at 7 p.m. Everyone interested in chess is invited to attend. Please bring your own set if possible.

Alpha Lambda Delta members will meet in the Dean of Women's office, Old Main, at 6:30 p.m.

with the advanced rotisse on campus. Bunny Millich, alphaxi, is again wearing her phikap medal. Wonder what it means this time?

Theta Louise Long succumbed only last week to phikappasig Bob Osborne's pin. Yours truly wants to know if all you fellows have had the opportunity to meet a certain glamorous Russian transfer whose initials are Meron Michell. Confidentially we don't know her but we thought perhaps you did, and anyway we were put up to this in the beginning.

What The Well Dressed . . .
The newest cry of the Air Corps is that of "would you alter my shirt for a nominal fee?" It seems that a few of the boys have picked up blouses a few sizes "in advance" and are now pleading with a few honored home "wreckers" to lend a helping hand. We feel that our life will be in danger if we mention that Shirley Fletcher is secretly yearning to do her bit for the country so we won't say a word, 'cause we're not quite sure anyway.

We Asked For It
Incidentally we have a feeling that our plea for more music in service groups was taken a bit too heartily last week—meaning that we've definitely noticed that they're in their old 7:20 a.m. rut again. P. S. It really goes over much better with us as well as the College officials AFTER sunrise!

Panhellenic Council Elects New Officers

Panhellenic Council has elected the following officers for this semester: Martna James, president; Helen Martin, vice-president; Patricia Hallberg, secretary; and Mary Long, treasurer.

Installation ceremonies will take place in the southwest lounge, Atherton Hall, July 27, according to Beatrice White, former president.

Jeanne Richards has succeeded Miss Nina Bentley as the dean of women's advisor to the Council.
