

Superintendents, Principals Meet At Ed Conference

Group Will Discuss School Vs. Victory

Twenty-first annual superintendents' and principals' conference sponsored by the School of Education will be held in Schwab Auditorium and 100 Horticulture Building from 2 p.m. July 27 to 1:30 p.m. July 29.

In order to comply with the desires of educators all over the country wishing to discuss present educational war-time measures, the committee has invited educators from various national war organizations to speak.

The conference theme is "How may the schools help most effectively in winning the war and the peace?"

Individual topics include "Secondary Education in War-time," "Elementary Education and the War," "Meeting the Demands of Post-Secondary Education in Pennsylvania," "Training Man Power for the War," "Education and Our American Neighbors," "Additions and Changes in Pennsylvania School Laws," "War-time Problems of Schools and Communities."

Other speakers will include Dr. Walter D. Cocking, chief, Educational Services Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.; Miss Cecile Kennedy, assistant regional director, American Red Cross, Harrisburg; Dr. William D. Boutwell, director, Information Service, United States Office of Education, Washington, D. C.; Dr. G. Kenneth Holland, director, Science and Education Division, Office of Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs, Washington, D. C.

Dr. Clarence E. Ackley, deputy superintendent, Department of Public Instruction, Harrisburg; Dr. Richard T. Parsons, president, Lock Haven State Teachers College, Lock Haven; Miss Margaret McKee, assistant superintendent of schools, Allegheny County, Pittsburgh.

Hetzel Announces New Appointees

Seven new appointments to the faculty and staff and seven military leaves at the College have been announced by President Ralph D. Hetzel.

New appointees are Davis W. Atkinson, assistant state supervisor of emergency farm labor; Lawrence R. Bickford Jr., research assistant in glass technology; Louis C. Cavalier, instructor and supervisor of metallurgy extension; James H. Coogan Jr., assistant director of public information; C. E. Drumheller and Ned Kelly, instructors in physics; and Charles H. Moore, assistant professor of mineralogy.

Those granted leaves of absence for military service are Sheldon C. Tanner, professor of economics and business law, and D. M. Marvin, associate professor of economics, to accept commissions in the Army of Occupation; John H. Kirk, district representative in extension services, to accept a commission in the Navy; L. A. Bressler, instructor in English composition, to serve in the Navy; E. H. Umberger, instructor in mathematics, to accept a commission in the Navy.

Two changes of leaves of absence to military leaves were granted, one to A. H. Reede, associate professor of economics, to accept a commission in the Army of Occupation, and the other to G. E. Brandow, assistant professor of agricultural economics, who was inducted into the Army.

Sigma Delta Tau recently initiated Arlene Crystal.

Faculty Members Receive Promotion In Rank

Penn State Club Makes Frosh, Fraternity Men Eligible Members

Raymond A. Zaroda, Penn State Club president, has announced that all freshmen, as well as upperclass students, are eligible for membership in the organization. He stated that fraternity men are now eligible for membership; also, since their houses have been appropriated by the Army.

The Penn State Club offers to its members hikes, dorm dances, picnics, dancing classes, and a game room located at 401 Old Main. The lounge is equipped with a recording machine, and the latest records.

Some of the Club's activities in the past have included participation in the Old Main Open House committee, representation on All-College cabinet, and participation in the All-College dance sponsored by independent organizations on campus.

New members will be formally initiated within a month, and are invited to meet the seven executive officers, who are Raymond A. Zaroda, president; Harry L. Bland, vice president; James A. Casey, secretary; Mark A. Oliver, treasurer; Edmund R. Koval, publicity chairman; Jack Riordan, athletic chairman; and Samuel Lewis, social chairman.

Membership fees will be taken any afternoon from 3-5 in the clubroom.

Dr. Harold Bosley, Youth Leader To Head Sunday Chapel Program

Dr. Harold Bosley of the Mount Vernon Methodist Church, Baltimore, Maryland, will be the Sunday morning chapel speaker this week. For his topic he has chosen "When Love and Justice Meet."

Mr. Bosley received his B.A. and D.D. degrees at Nebraska Wesleyan University and his B.D. and Ph.D. degrees at the University of Chicago. He has served in the capacity of leader at approximately twenty-five Y. M. and Y. W. conferences during the last five years. He has preached at the chapel services of Princeton University, University of Chicago, University of North Dakota, Indiana State Teachers College, Cornell University, and Stanford University.

In September, 1934, Dr. Bosley was appointed director of religious activities at the Iowa State Teachers College, Cedar Falls, Iowa, and continued in that position for four years. Bosley is a member of the American Philosophical Association and is the author of "The Church Examines Itself," "The Intellectuals' Crisis in Religion," and "The Quest for Religious Certainty."

The college choir will sing "O Light Divine" by Archangelsky.

Ned Linegar Works With American Friends

Ned Linegar, former PSCA associate secretary, is now with the American Friends' Service in New Hampshire. While at Penn State, Linegar, who was interested in student work, originated the system of student counselors.

At Miami University, Ohio, Linegar was president of the YMCA, and a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, social fraternity.

He received his MA in sociology at Cincinnati University, and his MS in psychology at George Williams University.

Forensic Council Elects

Grace Goodlin was elected president of the Forensic Council at its first meeting this semester. Saul Kozuk is the vice-president and Louis Ullman was elected secretary.

President Hetzel Names Thirty-five Changes

Promotions in rank for College faculty members, approved by the Board of Trustees, were announced recently by President Ralph D. Hetzel. By schools they are as follows:

SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE

P. S. Williams, from Associate Professor to Professor of Dairy Husbandry; L. C. Madison, from Associate Professor to Professor of Animal Husbandry Extension; R. R. Welch, from Associate Professor to Professor of Dairy Husbandry Extension; D. E. H. Frear, from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor of Agricultural and Biological Chemistry; R. C. Miller, from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor of Agricultural and Biological Chemistry; H. W. Higbee, from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor of Soil Technology; D. C. Sprague, from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor of Agricultural Engineering.

W. T. S. Thorp, from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor of Animal Pathology Research; C. A. Burge, from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor of Animal Husbandry Extension; Lora M. Pinder, from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor of Home Economics Extension; Rosalind M. Jewett, from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor of Home Economics Extension; Kenneth Hood, from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor of Agricultural Economics Extension; M. J. Armes, from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor of Farm Management Extension; O. D. Burke, from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor of Plant Pathology Extension.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION—Hummel Fishburn, from Acting Head to Head of the Department of Music Education; Mary J. Wyland, from Associate Professor to Professor of Education; E. B. VanOrmer, from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor of Education and Psychology.

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING—R. W. Henninger, from Associate Professor of Engineering Extension to Professor of Industrial Engineering in Extension; K. J. Heldrich, from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor of Architecture; L. A. Richardson, from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor of Architectural Engineering; P. R. Hall, from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor of Industrial Engineering.

SCHOOL OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND ATHLETICS—F. J. Bedenk, from Associate Professor to Associate Professor of Physical Education and Athletics. (Continued on page eight)

Ebert Warns Children Against Vandalism

Destruction of College property and other acts of vandalism by town boys and girls brought a firm warning today from George W. Ebert, superintendent of grounds and buildings, that police action will be taken next time.

"We have tried to be extremely patient with the boys and girls who make nuisances of themselves in College buildings and on College grounds," Mr. Ebert said, "but we can no longer tolerate the willful destruction of College property."

In addition to equipment stolen from Recreation Hall, boys and girls recently visited the College golf course late at night, broke a flagpole, stole a flag, destroyed four ball washers, stole a putting cup and a number of towels, damaged the soccer goal cage, and spread paper over one fairway.

Mr. Ebert appealed to local parents to help remedy the situation by keeping boys and girls of all ages away from College buildings unless they are there for approved and stated purposes.

Penn State Engineer Wins Place In Exhibit

"Penn State Engineer," monthly magazine issued by engineering students at the College, has been given a place in a Pittsburgh exhibit of outstanding printed publications. The exhibit is sponsored by Alling and Cory Co., paper manufacturers.

Printed by the Nittany Printing Company, the magazine is issued by the following staff: Charles R. Ammerman, editor-in-chief; Walter R. Berg, Pittsburgh, business manager; Eugene F. Von Arx, managing editor; Richard Devaney, illustrations editor; Peter Keffalas, news editor; Kenneth Thompson, editorial associate, and Harold Held, campus features editor.

The faculty advisory board consists of Professors R. A. Hussey, chairman; C. E. Bullinger, A. W. Case, L. S. Rhoads, C. B. Holt, and J. W. Oehrl.

Advanced ROTC Men Will Complete Fall Semester

Colonel Edward D. Ardery received the following letter July 11 from the Adjutant General's office on the disposition of advanced ROTC students.

"Second year advanced ROTC students who have not graduated will be permitted to continue their academic work. This group will be permitted to remain in college to complete the semester or quarter in progress on December 31, 1943, unless sooner graduated."

"Second year advanced ROTC students waiting assignment to Officers' Candidate School and those who do not elect to return to college will be held in replacement training centers, where they will be utilized as assistant instructors to provide them with additional training and experience, which will be of distinct value to them when they enter Officers' Candidate School.

"Ultimately, all qualified ROTC students will be assigned to Officers' Candidate School to complete their officer training."—By order of the Secretary of War, Henry L. Stimson.

AEPH Plans Tea

Alpha Epsilon Phi sorority is planning a tea to be held in Grange Playroom from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday. The tea will be in honor of the sorority advisor and patronesses.

Companies Ask For Interviews

Representatives from three industrial firms will be on Campus in the next few weeks to interview students with special qualifications, according to George M. Leetch, head of the College Placement Service. Appointments for all interviews should be made at the College Placement Office, 204 Old Main, as soon as possible.

Charles DeWitt of the Glenn L. Martin Company will be available Tuesday for interviews with women students with a major in science, commerce and finance, art, psychology, social studies, and sociology, in the Schools of Liberal Arts and Education. He is also interested in seeing all industrial engineers.

The Armstrong Cork Company is sending J. E. Smith and G. W. Kittridge on Friday, July 30, to interview women majoring in commerce and finance, mathematics, economics, chemistry, and physics. Anyone who will be receiving his Ph.D. in chemistry or physics as well as any qualified men who are not eligible for service in the armed forces are also invited to see these representatives.

Eugene R. Hack, personnel director of the Carl L. Norden, Inc., will visit the Campus August 3 and 4 to interview electrical, mechanical, and industrial engineers. This company is the maker of the Norden bombsight and other secret equipment.

Mr. E. W. Oldham of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company, will be on the Campus August 4 and 5 to interview chemists, chemical engineers, mechanical engineers, and those students with an aeronautical option in mechanical engineering.

ASM To Conduct Meeting

American Society of Mineralogy chapter at Penn State will hold its regular meeting in the Mineral Industries Art Gallery, 8 p.m. on Thursday, July 29.

The program will consist of movies, entertainment, and refreshments. Special guests will be the Hamilton Standard Propeller trainees and freshman metallurgists. All members of the Penn State ASM are welcome.

Stationery

Marines ★ Navy ★ Army
Air Forces

★
SLIDE RULES
DRAWING SETS
and ALL
SCHOOL SUPPLIES

★
Keeler's

CATHAUM THEATRE BUILDING