

WSGA Sets Freshmen Senate Nominations Date

WRA Board Announces Presidential Candidates

Storer States Fresh Must Attend Meeting

First semester freshman women will nominate their WSGA Senator in a joint compulsory mass meeting with the WRA in 3 White Hall, at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Ruth M. Storer, WSGA president, announced. Miss Storer stressed that freshman coeds must attend.

Joan M. Schearer was appointed as a permanent freshman member of WSGA Judicial Committee.

Named to fill vacancies on WSGA Senate for the rest of this semester were Barbara L. Cooper, senior senator replacing H. Anne Carruthers; Jane Cromis, junior senator replacing Kathleen M. Osgood; and Gertrude G. Rosen, freshman senator replacing Jane Dye.

A loan of $150 will be started with money from a returned loan and an additional appropriation. WSGA Loan Fund was discontinued several years ago but Senate voted to reorganize the service. Patricia M. Halberg, WSGA treasurer, is in charge of details.

Regular WSGA elections will be held later in this semester, according to Jeanne Ward, WSGA Elections chairman. The constitution will be revised first to provide for war-time emergencies. Revision committee includes Dorothy L. Jones, Patricia Diener, Helen A. Martin, and Gloria J. McKinley.

McKinley Announces Club Presidents, Meeting Dates For Summer Semester

WRA has announced regular weekly meeting dates and club presidents for summer activities clubs, according to Elizabeth McKinley, chairman.

Tennis and bridge groups, under presidency of Nancy Hodgson and Lois Mae Miller, respectively, meet 7:15 every Tuesday, and archery, headed by Florence Rothman, at 7:30 the same day. Archery practices are scheduled from 4:30 to 5:30 and after supper to 9 p.m. every day. Meeting at 7:30 on Wednesdays is the Badminton Club under the chairmanship of Peggy Northrup Childs, while the Outing Club, under Carolyn Crooks, is scheduled for the same time Thursdays. Practice hours for Swimming Club members, directed by Phyllis Watkins are 4:30 to 5:30 Thursdays, 2 to 4 p.m. Saturdays, and 7:30 to 9 p.m. every day. Golf enthusiasts will hold business meetings at 7:30 p.m. Thursdays.

Prexies Announce Elections

Ruth M. Storer, WSGA president, and Adele Levin, WRA president, have announced that nominations for WRA offices and for WSGA freshman senator will take place in White Hall at 7:30 p.m. Monday. The meeting is compulsory for all freshman coeds.

Coeds May Nominate At Mass Meeting Monday

Nominations for WRA president have been made by the Executive Board and will be presented to all coeds at a mass meeting in Room 3, White Hall, at 7:30 p.m. Monday. Nominees include Mary Grace Longenecker, Elizabeth J. McKinley, and Joan K. Miller. This is the only office for which additional nominations can not be made at Monday's meeting.

Additional candidates may be nominated from the floor for other WRA and WSGA offices. Candidates are required to have a 1.2 All-College average and must present a list of campus activities at the meeting.

Freshman representatives will be nominated by freshmen attending the meeting. Other WRA offices that are open to nominations are vice-president, treasurer, and sophomore representative. Candidates for these two offices must be either first or second semester sophomores, according to Adele J. Levin, WRA president.

Those who have received nominations by the Executive Board will be posted on bulletin boards outside the Atherton Hall dining rooms.

Primary elections will be held at the Sandwich Shop from 9 to 5 p.m. next Wednesday. General elections are scheduled to take place in the Sandwich Shop from 9 to 5 p.m. Friday.

Miss Longenecker has served as intramural chairman, Miss McKinley is chairman of the club president's board, and Miss Miller has been vice-president of the Executive Board for the past year.

Sports Parade

With the organization of teams completed, three additional tournaments will supplement the already active softball league as WRA intramurals begin in full swing.

The softball calendar this week found Alpha Chi Omega battling it out with AEPHi; Ath West against K.D., and Jordan contesting Wo-Mac on Tuesday, while on Wednesday, Watts played D.G. Thursday found Ath East against ChiO and K.K.G. versus SDT.

Archery Next

Archery contests will fall into action next, continuing from Tuesday until Friday. President Florence Rothman will be present from 4 to 5:30 each day, when contestants may shoot. High score for the week will be counted. Two members will constitute a team. The Columbia Round will be used for scoring. Thirty, forty, or fifty yards will be required distance from targets, and archers will use four ends or 24 arrows.

Names of team members for archery, as well as tennis and golf, must be submitted to Mary Grace Longenecker immediately. The two latter tournaments will also begin next week, two members making up a team.

Intramural Board will hold its regular weekly meetings in WRA lounge at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

WRA Plans Only College Formal

Under the general chairmanship of Joan Miller, four committees combined forces towards the success of WRA Sweetheart Dance to take place in White Hall from 9 to 12 p.m. Saturday, July 31.

The only All-College formal in view for the semester, the affair is planned around a welcome theme, extended to all service groups and civilians on campus. Caricatures of servicemen placed around the gymnasium will carry out this theme. Decorations are being directed by Mary Kay Hess and a committee comprised of the following: Alice Geyer, Margaret Hussy, Shirley Painter, Evelyn Kohler, and Janet Appley.

Tickets sell for $1.10 and may be obtained from Chairman Adele Levin or her assistants, Janet Denmore, Alberta Spudis, Dorothy Jane Jennings, and Charlotte Scibetta. Julia Gilbert, Mary Weldy, and Winifred Spahr complete the committee. Peggy Good is handling publicity, and Margaret Ramaley is invitations chairman.

Providing music for the dancers, Jimmy Burden and his orchestra, new campus group making its third appearance, will be on hand for rhythm's sake for the three hours.

Featured during the evening will be a grand march, in which everyone may participate. Intermission will follow.

Reminiscent of pre-war days, girls will attend in formal attire and men in semi-formal. In traditional WRA style, women will assume the role of escorts, inviting men as their guests.

WSGA Reports New Freshman Members

Newly-elected Freshman Council members as reported by Helen Martin, WSGA sophomore senator, are Mary Margaret Dunlap, Marian Brian, Jean Briner, Gloria Rosenberg, Frances Kiernan, Bernice Rickel, Delbert Weiner, Wanda Garber, and Mitzi Jane Archer.

These freshman leaders, under the direction of the senator, convey the WSGA rulings to the dormitory or town girls whom they represent.
