

Levin Announces Primary Survivors In WRA Elections

Longnecker, McKinley Compete For Top Spot

Mary Grace Longnecker and Elizabeth Jo McKinley, survivors of WRA primary elections will run for presidency of the Executive Board in the finals to take place in first floor lounge, Old Main, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. today.

Candidates for vice-president are Andy Lewis and Julia Gilbert; for treasurer, Betty Pike and Betty Wolfram. Running for sophomore representative are Alice Hooper and Harriet Miller. Freshman representative contestants are Joyce Frankel, Barbara Smith, and Evelyn Whiting.

The freshman victor will represent only the first semester freshman class, while both second semester freshmen and first semester sophomores are eligible to vote for sophomore representative. Other candidates for office are voted for by all students irrespective of class.

Nominees were selected by a committee of senior members of WRA Board, and Miss Mildred Lucey and Miss Marie Haidt of the Physical Education department. A club activities chairman has been appointed and will be announced later.

Installation of newly-elected officers will take place at a dinner in the Corner Room at 7 o'clock Wednesday. The affair will honor both retiring and new executive officers. Miss Haidt and Miss Lucey will attend the celebration, which this year is replacing the customary picnic of former years.

Hetzel Announces Faculty Advances

President Ralph D. Hetzel announced today additional promotions in rank for members of the College faculty following approval of the Board of Trustees.

By schools, they are as follows: School of Agriculture: B. G. Gleissner, from instructor to assistant professor of economic entomology.

School of Engineering: R. R. Bloom, from instructor to assistant professor of industrial engineering; F. T. Hall Jr., from instructor to assistant professor of electrical engineering; G. B. Smith, from instructor to assistant professor of engineering drawing; Eleanor Z. Willis, from instructor to assistant professor of fine arts.

Liberal Arts: L. S. S. Hoffman, from instructor to assistant professor of English composition.

Mineral Industries: J. R. Low Jr., from instructor to assistant professor of metallurgy; Samuel Zerfoss, from research assistant to assistant professor of ceramics.

School of Physical Education and Athletics: Eugene Wettstone, from instructor to assistant professor of physical education.

One change of title was announced, that of C. H. Moore Jr., from assistant professor of mineralogy to assistant professor of petrography.

Mark Cautions Students

Captain P. A. Mark, head of the Campus Patrol, warned all students to carry their coats into the classrooms, rather than hang them on the coat racks provided in the halls. Numerous garments have recently disappeared, and everyone's cooperation is desired to prevent further thefts.

Much discussion nowadays about how American History should be taught. How it should be learned is something else again.

Plans Program

JOAN K. MILLER, general chairman of WRA's Sweetheart Dance, released plans for the Summer semester's only formal.

WRA Sweetheart Dance Is Semester's Only Formal

Campus activities will be in formal tempo this weekend with the WRA Sweetheart Dance as the center of attraction.

A feature of the evening will be a Grand March led by Joan K. Miller, chairman of the dance, and Adele J. Levin, WRA president. Miss Miller has also made tentative arrangements for a specialty waltz number with six service men and their partners. Any member of the Army Air Corps, the Naval officers, Naval enlisted men, Marine Corps, or Army Engineers and Infantry who is interested in representing his group may contact Miss Miller, second west, Women's building before tomorrow noon.

Chaperones for the White Hall affair are Miss Charlotte E. Ray, dean of women, Dean and Mrs. Carl P. Schott, Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd M. Jones, Miss Marie Haidt, associate professor of physical education, and Miss Mildred Lucey, instructor in physical education. Fifty members of the faculty and administration and their wives have also been invited for the dance, beginning at 9 p.m.

The dance is the only formal affair planned for the Summer semester. Arrangements have been made in conjunction with the Council on Recreation and Welfare. Members of the WRA Executive Board will organize the grand march, together with Miss Levin and Miss Miller. Members are Margaret L. Good, Mary Anne Jennings, Mary Grace Longnecker, Elizabeth J. McKinley, Elizabeth S. Pike, and Margaret K. Ramaley.

All aspects of college life will be included in the sketches, in which Joe College and Betty Coed play a part. Each individual cartoon will be displayed on the panel opposite the door, while copies will line the walls. Red, white, and blue crepe paper will be stretched across the ceiling, in keeping with the patriotic theme. An additional feature will be the Honor Roll on the blackboard on which all those attending the dance must register their names.

Tickets are on sale and may be obtained from Janet Densmore, Julia Gilbert, Adele Levin, Elizabeth McKinley, Winifred Spahr, and Mary Weldy. In Women's Building, Peggy Good, Mary

Ath Hall Coeds Plan Event For Servicemen

All servicemen are invited to attend an informal get-together to be given by the coeds of Southeast Atherton Hall in the northwest lounge from 2:30 to 5 p.m. Sunday, according to Martha E. Elston chairman of the affair.

Entertainment will be provided by a committee including Carolyn Fisher, chairman, and Jean Butz, Doris Mae Funk, Nancy Guise, Alice Grace Sampson, and Betty Strippley.

Refreshments will be served by a committee which includes Ann Muller and Kassy Simone, co-chairmen, and Elaine Hetric, Marie Rocokz, Emma Jean Snyder, Mildred Spanko, and Lois Yoast.

Tennis Assistants Called

Freshman candidates for first assistant tennis managerships are urged to report to the varsity courts daily by Bob Kranich, first manager.

Election Petitions Deadline

First and fifth candidates for semester offices must have their petitions and glossy pictures for cuts at Student Union Monday, Robert I. Brawn, chairman of All-College Elections Committee, reminded students yesterday. He added that elections for these semesters will be held for just one day, Thursday, August 12, as previously scheduled.

A total of 35 signatures is necessary for candidates' petitions in the fifth semester, while first semester students should have 75. These figures qualify with rules set up by the All-College Elections Committee and average 25 per cent of each class enrollment.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

(Continued from page five)
Foundation, 4:15 p.m.
Archery Club meets, archery range, 7:30 p.m.

Wednesday

Annual Summer Session exhibition of oil paintings in Mineral Industries Art Gallery, main floor, Mineral Industries, 9 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Home Economics Forum meets in 220 Home Economics, 4:15 p.m. Mrs. Amy G. Gardner will discuss "Present Day Trends in Art Relative to Home." An exhibit of work done in home furnishing problems classes and craft classes will be on display.

Mr. Hobson Pittman will give a Gallery Talk in the Mineral Industries Art Gallery, 8 p.m. Everyone is invited.

PSCA Freshmen Men's Council meets, Hugh Beaver room, Old Main, 7:30 p.m.

Cwens will meet, Dean of Women's Office, 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. Christian Science organization meets, 200 Carnegie Hall, 7:30 p.m.

WRA club president's board meets White Hall lounge, 4:30 p.m.

WSGA Senate meeting in WSG

IWA Elects Heads WSGA Delegate

Lydianna A. Zepp was recently elected president of the Independent Women's Association, and Rose Devecka, vice-president.

Representatives for WSGA were also elected to replace coeds not back this semester. Ruth E. Kluck and Eda M. Stookey will represent town women; their alternates are M. Louise Hartley and Rose A. Schulman. Elaine Freed and Muriel R. Wohlman were chosen from Southwest Atherton; Dorothy G. Clymer and Ella W. Keichline, Northeast Atherton; and E. Ann Blackburn, Flora Bor, and Helen L. Schmidle, West Atherton.

Barbara Smith and Jane Wolbarst will represent Women's Building with Sarah Masurovsky as alternate. Mac Hall's representatives are Kay Cults and Joan Sauerwein; Judy Wendell, alternate.

Helen Chesnutt was elected to represent Frazier dorm; Millie Chesnutt, alternate. Wilma Morgan was elected from Allen; Helen Garrison, alternate.

A Room, 7:30 p.m.

Candidates for degrees meet Old Main lounge, 7:30 p.m.

Faculty members meet on the terrace in front of Old Main, 8 p.m.

Thursday

Important meeting of business staff of Student Handbook, 304 Old Main, 4:30 p.m.

Summer Session Commencement, Schwab Auditorium, 8:15 p.m.

Home Economics exhibit, 220 Home Economics, 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Art Exhibit, Mineral Industries Art Gallery, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Distribution of caps and gowns; Mailing Room, Burrowes, 2 to 4:30 p.m.

Preview of films in Home Economics, 110 Home Economics, 4:15 p.m.

DO YOU DIG IT?

Submitted by Lig Mayhew, Kent State University

* "AXE THE GRIND, SISTER, THE BRAIN-BUSTER WON'T HEAVE YOU AN EGG. LET'S STORM THE CORNER PALACE AND COOL THE APPLE WITH PEPSI-COLA"

SEND US YOUR SLANG AND GET $10 IF WE USE IT
Address: College Dept., Pepsi-Cola Co., Long Island City, N. Y.

Pepsi-Cola Company, Long Island City, N. Y. Bottled locally by Franchised Bottlers.

Board Teaches Etiquette

WSGA Junior Service Board will conduct the third in its series of etiquette dinners for freshman coeds at dinner Wednesday. The instruction dinners were held on the two previous Wednesdays, according to Carol Kane, president.

Two Sororities Initiate

Theta Phi Alpha will initiate M. Eileen Stroup, Anne I. Re, Jean M. Klinikowski, Pearl M. Trapani, and Nancy Carastro Sunday. Alpha Omicron Pi initiated Nancy Norton Monday night.

MORNINGSTAR BREAD

Morningstar Bread is fine for every purpose. It makes sandwiches that are pleasing in taste and at the same time nourishing. And if you want crisp toast that fairly melts in your mouth this is the loaf for you.

MORNING STAR, TRU-WHEAT PURITY BREAD and TROPHY WINNER CAKE

25c hr. 25c hr.

RENT A BICYCLE HERE

112 Miles Street