

Frosh Coeds Vote For Ford, Steele As WSGA Senator

Senate Plans Elections, Servicemen Open House

Jean Ford and Bette Steel will compete for WSGA the freshman senator post in final elections in first floor lounge, Old Main, from 9 to 5 o'clock today. Preliminary balloting Wednesday resulted in the elimination of two of the original candidates. Dorothy Funkhouser and Jane Wolbarst competed with Miss Ford and Miss Steel in the primaries.

Regular WSGA elections date will be set later, according to Ruth M. Storer, WSGA president, who urged all upperclasswomen to give serious thought to possible nominees for WSGA positions.

An open house for servicemen has been scheduled from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday, August 8, by WSGA Senate. All sorority houses, cottages, home management houses, and dormitories including Jordan and Watts Hall with the Curtiss-Wright and Hamilton Standard Propeller women will be open for entertainment. All coeds and special students residing in these units will act as hostesses for their respective units.

Details of the open house will be worked out by a committee of woman student leaders, and will be set forth and explained in WSGA House of Representatives meeting, Miss Storer stated.

WSGA Senate will meet in the WSGA Room, White Hall, 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, August 4.

Hamilton Students Plan Bridge Party

To honor the Curtiss-Wright women, the Hamilton Propeller students will entertain at bridge on the tri-dorm lawn from 3 to 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Ping pong, recorded music, and refreshments have been planned in addition to bridge, according to Janice Brennan, general chairman.

Committees assisting Miss Brennan include hospitality, Mary Gwisc, chairman, Georgianna Austin, Barbara Houlihan, June Quinn, Mary Teahan; tables, Betty Lou Hornick and Lois Margery Miller, co-chairmen; refreshments, Elizabeth Eshleman, chairman; Erma Barrett, Mary Kay Connell, Jean Grant, Eleanor Jones, Florence Roberts.

Entertainment, Patricia Lufkin, chairman, Gladys Bergmark, Nancy Loll, Alice Mann, Kathryn Taggart; clean-up, Irene Jedrziwski, chairman, Jane Andrew, Helen Christianson, Viola Conley, Lynn Destiche, Helen Fans, Josephine Martin, and Malvina Murphy.

Honorary Initiates, Plans Matrix Dinner

Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary, plans to hold initiation at the Kappa Alpha Theta house at 1:30 p. m., Saturday, August 7. I initiates will be June Bailey, Natalie Davison, E. Ann Fisher, Alice Fox, Renee Isaacs, and Sara Kouri.

Coeds who were recently pledged are Lenore Freedman, Margaret Good, Serene Rosenberg, Kathryn Roberts, and Beatrice Russ.

Plans are being made for the annual Matrix Dinner, given by Theta Sigma Phi for outstanding coeds. Last year Mrs. Esther Van Wagner Tufty, Washington correspondent, was speaker at the dinner, held at the Nittany Lion Inn.

Calendar Deadline Set

Persons wishing to put announcements in the College Calendar should phone the Collegian office Monday or Tuesday afternoons.

Grace Sammons Receives Pan-Hellenic Scholarship For Coed Leaders

The installment ceremony for Pan-Hellenic new officers was held in the Atherton Hall southwest lounge July 27. Installed were president, Martha James, Delta Gamma; vice-president, Helen Martin, Kappa Kappa Gamma; secretary, Patricia Holberg, Alpha Chi Omega; and treasurer, Mary Long, Gamma Phi Beta.

Pan-Hellenic Council's scholarship, formerly held by Martha Chubb, was awarded Grace Sammons by Sorority President Beatrice White, Phi Mu.

Refreshments were served to council members and advisors after the ceremony.

Scholarship Applications Available For Students

Dr. Carl P. Marquardt, chairman of the committee on academic standards, has announced, for the benefit of students who consider themselves eligible for certain scholarships granted by the College, that application blanks are now available.

These questionnaires will, at a later date, be considered by the committee when it chooses recipients of what are probably the only remaining scholarships, the memorial grants of the Class of 1922. The blanks are available at the College examiner's office, 108 Old Main.

These memorial scholarships are granted to "students in the upper three classes, who have a satisfactory scholastic record and are of good moral character and reputation; preference will be given to students who are actively participating in the field of cultural pursuits such as debating, dramatics, literature, music, and pursuits similar thereto."

Extension Services Change To War Basis

Designed to meet expanding state-wide needs of Central Extension's wartime program of engineering, science, and management war training, a reorganization of district offices has been announced by Stanley H. Campbell, supervisor, district representatives division.

Nineteen district offices, each headed by a district representative, have replaced the system of six major districts, subdivided into smaller districts.

Under the new plan, new offices have been established in Bethlehem, DuBois, Oil City, Greensburg, Uniontown, Carnegie, New Castle, and New Kensington.

Eleven Foreign-Born Women Attend College In Past Years

During the past few years the College has had nearly a dozen foreign-born woman students attending regular classes or studying for advanced degrees. Six of these are Chinese; three are European; and two came to the United States from Latin America.

Shuk Yee Chan who received her Ph.D. here in 1942 is now with the Boyce-Thompson Institute, Yonkers, New York. Miss Chan came here from Hong Kong and attended Lingnan University, Canton, China.

The Lee twins, Pearl and Ruby, whose family has lived in Hong Kong since early in the war, were awarded their B. S. degrees in 1942, and are now doing graduate study; Pearl at Massachusetts Institute of Technology in electrical engineering, and Ruby at Cornell in agronomy.

A graduate of Lingnan University, Mrs. Kit Wai is an exchange student now living in Grange Dormitory. Mrs. Wai is studying home economics.

Yi Ying Ma took her M.A. degree in psychology at Smith College, then came to Penn State for further study. Before completion of her work, she left for her Hong Kong home, but was detained by the war on the west coast and is now studying at the University of California.

Working in the Bureau of Home Economics, Washington, D. C. is Woot Tsuen Wu who received her Ph.D. here in 1940. Recently married to Shau Yan Leung, she came here from Hong Kong.

Among the European students are Ruth Littman, Lotti Steinitz, and Tina Valen. Miss Littman, born in Prague, Czechoslovakia, was awarded her B.A. degree here in August, 1942, and did graduate study at Byrn Mawr in sociology.

Miss Steinitz, a German refugee, born in Berlin, took her B. S. degree here in 1938 and her Ph.D. in genetics at the University of California in 1942. Miss Steinitz is now doing industrial work in chemistry.

Miss Valen, German-Russian refugee from in Toronto, Canada, received her naturalization papers while studying at the College for her B.S. degree, awarded in 1939 in landscape architecture.

Latin-American woman students are from Mexico and from Puerto Rico.

Masquerettes Initiate

Masquerettes will initiate three pledges in the Thespian room at 8 p.m. Sunday. The new members are Mary Kay Hoppel, Priscilla Schautz, and Mickey White.

Psychology Department Will Reveal Results Of Freshman Tests

Scoring of a group of tests administered to freshmen during Freshmen Week is being completed and results will be available to deans, advisors, and freshmen before September 1, when below grades are due.

Freshmen entering in July may obtain these test results and an interpretation of them by making an appointment in the Psycho-Educational Clinic, Room 3, Burrows.

This guidance and clinical service is available to all students of the College. Many of the problems center around the choice of curriculum and vocation, but often the students have related personal or family adjustment needs, which are met by the clinic in its confidential personal problem service.

Appointments can be made at any time between 8 a.m. and 12 noon and 1:30 to 5 p. m. Monday through Friday.

King Discusses 'Hope' At Chapel

The Reverend Mr. Herbert King, associate secretary, National Council of Student Christian Associations of New York City, will be the Sunday morning chapel speaker this week. For his topic he has selected "Hope."

Mr. King, native of Atlanta, Ga., was graduated with honors from Morehouse College in 1927. From Union Theological Seminary he received his B.D. degree, and from Oberlin Graduate School of Theology, degree of master of sacred theology.

For several years, Mr. King was assistant director of voluntary religious activities of Hampton Institute, Va. Since 1936, when he accepted the invitation of the National Student Division of the YMCA to be associate secretary, he has worked in the South as a field secretary among Negro and white college students and in Negro and inter-racial conferences. He now gives most of his time as a traveling program secretary available to student movement groups.

WESTMINSTER FOUNDATION BULLETIN BOARD

YOU HAVE THREE INVITATIONS FOR THIS SUNDAY—

9:30 A.M. Student Department Exploration of Chapter two St. Mark's Gospel

3:00 P.M. Music Hour and Open House

6:30 P. M. Westminster Fellowship Panel Discussion: "Wartime Priorities For Students."

Cordial Welcome to Students in Uniform

Don't Forget

NITTANY NOCTURNE

Saturday, August 7

REC HALL

This Bird Is Seeing Colors—

The Penn State Engineer will soon be on sale at Student Union The Corner Room Graham's Yougel's and Kaye's Korner

Subscribe to the Penn State Engineer at Student Union

4 Issues $.40
8 Issues75
12 Issues 1.00
16 Issues 1.25

And so will you when you see the natural color photograph on the cover of the PENN STATE ENGINEER.