

WSGA Names Coeds Eligible For Offices

Dorothy L. Jones, chairman of the WSGA Nominations Committee which is composed of the senior Senate members, has released the names of 19 coeds Senate deems eligible for WSGA offices. Nominations from the floor may be made at the nominations mass meeting which will be held in 3 White Hall at 7:15 Thursday.

President of the association must have a 1.5 All-College average and must have had at least one year of experience on the Senate. Candidates for all other offices must have a 1.5 All-College average, Ruth M. Storer, WSGA president, stated.

Jeanne Ward, chairman of the Elections Committee, stated that primary elections will be held in the first floor lounge, Old Main, from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. Monday, September 13. Finals will be held in the same room at the same time, Thursday, September 16.

WSGA selections include: president, Patricia Diener and Kathleen M. Osgood; vice-president, Doris M. Funk, Patricia G. Hallberg, and Genevieve Weder; treasurer, Nancy I. Barch, Helen C. Miller, and Gertrude G. Rosen.

Senior senator, Elizabeth H. Furst, Mary L. Hefty, and Jean B. Ogden; junior senator, Jane D. Cronis, Betty J. Drouse, and Helen J. Martin; sophomore senator, Marjorie J. Blackwood, Gloria J. McKinley, and Joanne E. Nye; and town senator, Elizabeth R. Merkle and Ann L. Decker.

Independent Senator

Nominations for the independent senator will be made by the independent women's associations and the nominees will be introduced at the mass meeting with the above candidates. Their names will be published in the Collegian next week.

Special Coeds Receive 11 O'clocks

Curtiss-Wright and Hamilton Standard Propeller coeds have been granted four 11 o'clock permissions per month on the basis of the fine scholastic records they have maintained. The 11 o'clocks will continue until December when most of the groups will finish their training. If the plan is successful, it will be continued; if not, Senate, Dean Hammond, head of the School of Engineering, and group presidents will decide on a new course of action, Miss Storer stated.

Saturday Night Plans

WSGA Senate is planning Saturday night entertainment in the first floor Sandwich Shop. As yet, plans are in the embryonic stage, but committees have been formed and ideas are moving ahead for some sort of civilian and servicemen's entertainment. Whether the Sandwich Shop will be procured is not as yet definite, but chances are, Miss Storer said, that Mr. Ebert, supervisor of grounds and buildings, will agree to the plan.

Judicial Reminds

Marian Dougherty, Judicial chairman, reminds coeds that they are required to sign out every night upon leaving dormitories and sorority houses, whether they plan to stay out before or after 10 o'clock. This will facilitate the work of hostesses and checkers.

Van Riper Announces Servicemen's Open House

All sororities and committees will be open to servicemen from 3 to 5 p. m. Sunday, according to Harriet Van Riper, chairman of the Coed Coordinating committee. This committee was organized three weeks ago by Charlotte E. Ray, Dean of Women. It is composed of the leaders from all the women's societies represented on campus.

Servicemen will not be assigned to special houses as before, but may take their choice. Refreshments will be supplied by the individual houses and units.

Dorothy L. Jones, chairman of the WSGA Senate Nominations Committee and Senate secretary, released names approved by Senate for WSGA offices.

Panhellenic Plans Sorority Songfest

Panhellenic Council will present its annual "Sorority Sing" at the front of Old Main, 3:30 p. m. Sunday, September 19, for the benefit of servicemen, civilians, and townspeople, Betsy Merkle, chairman, announced last night.

The songfest, formerly a competitive affair, will this year have no judges but the audience, which will gather around the steps of Old Main where the sorority groups will be seated.

Each sorority will present one song. Following these will be group singing by the audience and girls, featuring service songs of each branch represented on campus, Penn State favorites, and other popular melodies.

At the close of the "sing," servicemen and students will be invited to visit the sorority of their choice to meet some of the girls they have just heard.

In case of rain, the program will be presented in Schwab Auditorium, if groups training here have not scheduled it for the afternoon.

State College Drum Corps To Entertain

When the State College American Legion and Auxiliary Junior Drum and Bugle Corps appears in a community entertainment program Saturday, the proceeds from the ticket sale and donations will go to the State College Service Center.

The State College corps won the state championship five times, in 1936, 1937, 1938, 1939, and 1940, and in 1941 became national champions. This year the group has a membership of 22 girls and 26 boys. Saturday's entertainment will take place at the State College High School stadium at 7 p. m.

Coeds Boost Surgical Dressings Attendance To 72 This Week

Attendance at this week's surgical dressings class increased from 32 to 72. This group completed 894 dressings, which was a definite increase over last week's number, according to Mrs. Henry K. Brunner, chairman.

The first figure in the following list represents this week's attendance, the last represents last month's number, showing the increase or possible decrease according to various fraternity and service groups.

Alpha Omicron Pi	10	0
Hamilton Propeller	5	1
Curtiss-Wright	1	8
Alpha Chi Omega	4	18
Kappa Kappa Gamma	4	16
Kappa Alpha Theta	0	3
Kappa Delta	0	1
Delta Gamma	6	24
Chi Omega	3	10
Alpha Epsilon Phi	0	8
Gamma Phi Beta	4	20
Phi Mu	0	5
Sigma Delta Tau	0	10
Zeta Tau Alpha	0	0

These figures prove that the remaining number, 35, was made up of independent groups. It also shows that a number of coeds who were trained to roll bandages last month have not returned to the Wednesday night classes.

Busy Bee Goes To War By Producing Beeswax For Plane Motors

The busy little bee has been drafted for war.

Working on a buzzing swing shift, bees are producing wax for airplane motors, shell manufacturing, and electrical insulation, according to Professor E. J. Anderson, bee specialist at the Pennsylvania State College.

"Beeswax is finer and more impervious to water than paraffin," he stated. "For this reason it is highly prized to protect airplane motors against the action of sea water, to protect and lubricate shells, and for electrical cables."

Other uses of beeswax are in glass manufacturing, polishes, dentistry (where it is used in making molds), in pattern-making, tree-grafting, and in making a water-proof and chemical-proof paint for containers holding photographic solutions.

"We need much more wax than the bees can produce," Professor Anderson said in urging beekeepers to salvage all the wax they can. Only about two-thirds of a pound of wax is produced by a bee colony each season, he pointed out. Important ways to get more wax include saving scraps, culling combs, killing the wax moth, and collecting wax from hives which are no longer used.

Alpha Chi Omega Elects

Exam Cancelled

There will not be an Air Corps examination this Friday, according to Robert E. Galbraith, FAWS. The next mental exam has been scheduled to take place on September 10. Those men who have passed previous examinations are reminded by Galbraith to report to Middletown as soon as possible to take their physical examinations.

Assistant Dean Comes Tomorrow

Miss Pearl O. Weston will arrive in State College tomorrow to replace Miss Nina M. Bentley as assistant to the dean of women, according to an announcement made by Dean of Women Charlotte E. Ray.

Miss Weston graduated from the College in 1929 with a B. A. in Arts and Letters. She received her M. A. at Duquesne University in 1931 and a Ph.D from Duquesne in 1935.

Her employment record is as follows: she taught in Carnegie and Pittsburgh, for the last twelve years having been employed by the Fifth Avenue High School in Pittsburgh. Miss Weston has served as Director of recreation in several summer camps and clubs. This summer she was manager of the Iron City Fishing Club at Manitou, Ontario.

Miss Weston is a member of many professional organizations, the Carnegie Civic Club and is president of the Carnegie College Club. She has recently been elected president of the Penn State Alumnae Club of Pittsburgh. Miss Weston is now a member of the Advisory Council of fifteen teachers working under the superintendent of Pittsburgh schools.

Student Soldiers Show Variety Of Reading Tastes

Student soldiers at the College already have demonstrated that they possess a wide variety of reading tastes.

Since the coming of the military attendants at the College library have filled requests for:

1. Current issues of philosophy periodicals.
2. Recent books on marriage.
3. Critical articles on symphonic music.
4. Complete works of authors like Thomas Wolfe, James Joyce, and E. E. Cummings, and
5. A copy of "The Wild Party," Joseph Moncure March's poetic treatment of the roaring twenties.

One apparently unhappy soldier asked for a book on Pennsylvania's divorce laws, while another sought information on the Library of Congress—and then flabbergasted the attendant by saying that he once worked there.

Hallberg Reminds Coeds To Purchase Injun Stomp Tickets

Injun Stomp, the dance sponsored by Cwens, sophomore activity honorary, will be coming off in White Hall next Saturday night, according to Pat Hallberg, dance chairman. Miss Hallberg asks coeds to buy their tickets early.

Tickets may be bought at Student Union for $1.10 or from any Cwen including Ann Louise Decker, Allene Babbitt, Helen Martin, Helen Hatton, Barbara Anderson, Jean Butz, Rose Devecka, Bette Jane Drouse, Mary Ann Jenpings, Pat Hallberg, Peggy Lou Johnson, Lois Lunn, Gloria McKinley, Ruth Prelemeur, Gertrude Rosen, Betty Shenk, and Peggy Susanin. Cwens will wear their red-trimmed grey jackets next week in order to be easily recognized.

As customary coeds will take over the inviting. The dance is to be very informal and "saddles" will be in order, according to Miss Hallberg.

Jimmy Burden's orchestra will provide the rhythm for the dancers. Decorations will be in accordance with the Injun scheme.

The receipts from the dance will be given as a scholarship to some worthy coed, Miss Jeanne Richards, Cwen adviser, added.
