

Lion Tales

By M. J. WINTER

After hibernating in the peaceful surroundings all Summer, The Cub is coming out for a final yawn before permanently retiring to the background waiting for the sheepskins to be handed out. By that time it'll even appreciate a piece of skin after the meager pickings all Summer, and what with rationing?

Yep, it's been a long time since The Cub went digging for dirt. But with all the other gossip mongers leaving these parts, somebody has to do the honors. So, with not much to go on, the best will be none too good, as usual.

Queenie

This weekend looks like another big one, at least in comparison with the small-time affairs that have been staring us in the face all during the hot months. The Air Corps will be knocking themselves out tonight at their graduation formal. If things keep up as they are, and each squadron for the duration keeps on picking a potential queen, it will be the exception to find a coed, even around these parts, who won't be able to tell her grandchildren that she was once a prospective queen.

Although there haven't been any Indians around these parts since the last cigar store one was put in moth balls many moons ago, the Cwens have dreamed up some sort of a brawl for tomorrow night called Injun Stomp. Don't know if Chief Wahoo will be among the honored guests, but papooses can be checked at the door.

In the current who has who's pins and stuff department, there seem to be a lot of broken-up romances of late. . . . Anne Harwick, dg, returned Bill Reutti's phigam jewelry and is now displaying a thetachi pin from the south. . . . Pris Schautz, theta, played the same game when she traded Jimmy Laughran's kdr hardware for Bob Kapp's phigam badge. . . . Helen Hatton, dg, and Ted Miller, phigam, are now among the unpinned, as is Rod Bean, akpi and advanced ROTC man.

Happy Day

On the strictly happy side, Jane Dye, kappa, was back for the weekend flashing a sparkler, according to rumors. . . . Dotty Shumaker is wearing a big zircon engagement ring from former Player Lorrie Van Dusen. . . . Kitty Noll, alpha-chio, is engaged to the home town boy. . . . Janet Carbaugh, chio, has claimed ownership on the pin of hotdog Jack McCool, deltasig. . . . Judy Siegel, frosh, has priorities on a local pilambdaphi badge. . . . Flo Levinson, aephi, is showing off a rock acquired recently. . . . This past weekend Alice Lockter became engaged to former State man Gabriel Levinson, now in North Carolina. . . . Jackie Spritzler, sdt, has a pin from Bucknell. . . . Sister sdt Terry Rosenthal now has Stan Soblofsky's phiep jewelry.

Old Home Week

This seems to be a place that people appreciate more after they leave than while they're here. At least, there have been an awful lot of weekend and extended visiting people of late. But it doesn't seem to be the Nittany Valley that holds all the nostalgic glamour. . . . Betty Meyer, kappa, has been having a vacation here watching her sisters and Dick Stevens, phisigmakappa, knocking themselves out studying. . . . Bob Morgan, phigam, blew in for a little local atmosphere, liquid, and otherwise. . . . Rube Faloon is visiting wife Pete before settling down at Pitt in ASTP. . . . Jimmy Leyden, Uncle Sammy permitting, will be up here Thespian show weekend to tie the knot with kappa Helen Schmeltz. . . . Shelly Smith, alphazidelta, expects to entertain a lieutenant over the weekend. . . . Betty Friedman, sigmadeltatau, and Edie Dobnof, aephi, dropped in last weekend.

We hear the Marines don't want to be outdone by the Air Corps. They're planning a formal in Rec Hall next Saturday night. That is, if they aren't all restricted.

The Cub

Campus Calendar

Today

Army Air Corps Dance, Rec Hall, 8-12 p.m.

School of Engineering faculty meeting, 107 Main Engineering, 4:30 p.m.

All-College dance, Armory, 9-12 p.m.

Evening services, Hillel Foundation, 7:30 p.m. Rabbi Kahn will speak.

Tomorrow

Injun Stomp, White Hall, 9-12 p.m.

Variety Show, Schwab Auditorium, 7:30 p.m.

"Hillezapoppin," open house with dancing, movies, and games, Hillel Foundation, 8:45-12 p.m.

PSCA Cabinet meeting, 304 Old Main, 1:30 p.m.

Sunday

Chapel, Schwab Auditorium, 11 a.m.

Music room of Carnegie Hall open to all servicemen to listen to classical records, 2 p.m.

Bible study sponsored by Penn State Bible Fellowship, 405 Old Main, 2 p.m.

Wesley Foundation student friendly hours, 5-7 p.m.

(Continued on page eight)

The CAMPUSEER

BOB KIMMEL

He's Got It . . .

Laibe Kessler was sitting with the bunch in a quiet corner the other night, Monday to be exact, just talking about the situation in general. When the talk came 'round to the local big shots, Laibe says, "Well, anyway, I've got something to brag about. I'll show it to you some time." Well, that left us a little mystified. It wasn't until the shank of the evening that we prevailed on him to disclose the source of his secret pride. Since we've never made a habit of telling tales, we won't give Kessler away, but if you're as curious as we were, you'll ask him the next time you see him. We guarantee you have a great big surprise coming.

Portfolio Is On Way . . .

Schnitzer was around telling us all about her next big opus. So far, she's been having a little trouble with the financial wolves, but she is sure that Portfolio, though it may be down for a while, is not out, not if she and her colleagues have got to get it out on butcher paper. You can look for the first issue along about the beginning of next semester. It will feature the work of Penn Staters now serving in the Armed Forces.

The 'Slide Rule Kids . . .

Alumni Weekend acquired a new feature this week when the staff of the Penn State Engineer decided to promote a Slide Rule Ball October 9, when Colgate comes to Penn State for one of the big games of the year. Berg, Von Arx, and Devaney are on the "ball," and no doubt you'll soon be seeing floods of advertising that's a pleasure to read. We mean like those clever blurbs they use to spread the fame of the already famous "Penn State Engineer" (plug).

Something New . . .

Froth is coming out again, and it seems we just wrote that not so long ago. If they keep up the pace, they'll soon be a weekly, just like the Collegian. This time they are walking around sticking out their chests over the cover, a swell piece of work done by Walt Buchanan of the V-12 Reserves (Marine). The

(Continued on page eight)

WHY THERE MAY BE DELAYS ON LOCAL TELEPHONE CALLS

The war-time volume of calls is exceeding the capacity of State College telephone facilities. Materials cannot be obtained to expand these facilities.

Therefore, there may be delays before you hear the dial tone (that steady hum which is your signal to dial your number). Please wait for this hum before you dial!

During the busy hour—7 to 8 P.M.—you may often get a "busy signal" when you try to dial the Operator. Please be patient.

All telephone users can help by keeping all calls as brief as possible—especially during the peak hour of 7 to 8 P.M.

Thank You!

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA

Men In Service—

By M. J. WINTER

There seems to be a continuous turnover of uniformed men here on campus, with groups of Air Corps, Engineers, and Ensigns arriving and leaving most of the time. Right now some of the Engineers are getting a little breather before continuing the rest of their studies. We noticed a few of the new boys, too, taking sightseeing trips around the campus prior to settling down for a little more knowledge. Hope they like it here. Every week, too, civilians are trading in their civvies for GI equipment. One of the latest recruits is Bud Wedge who left the other day for the Navy after a send-off from his brothers.

Wings In Sight

Among the Army Air Corps boys

at Maxwell Field, Ala., are H. P. Anderson, V. M. Bailey, A. T. Barnette, P. Boyle, W. S. Christy, E. H. Collins, R. H. Etter, W. G. Fahrenback, J. W. Foster, J. S. Feundlich, C. S. Gilbert, J. M. Grael, D. G. Greenly, R. M. Johnson, J. K. Moore, and W. H. Moyer, according to word received from Prof. Bob Galbraith. . . . A few of the boys transferred from there recently are R. B. Alvis, to navigator; F. P. Fletcher, to navigator; E. A. Gardner, to bombardier; and R. S. Woodward, to navigator.

Aviation Cadet Thomas J. Warman has reported for duty at the Army Air Forces Bombardier School, Carlsbad, N. M., where he will study advanced high-level bombardiering and dead-reckoning navigation. He received his pre-flight training at the Army Air Forces Replacement Center, Santa Ana, Cal., and upon graduation from Carlsbad, Warman will be awarded his silver bombardier's wings and either commissioned a second lieutenant or appointed a flight officer.

Going Up

Clayton H. Zahn has been promoted from the rank of lieutenant to captain at Will Rogers Field, Okla. He is now commanding officers of the 33rd Aviation Squadron. In his undergraduate days he

(Continued on page six)

WESTMINSTER FOUNDATION BULLETIN BOARD

Announcing the First in a Series of Sunday Afternoon Vespers

Presbyterian Church 4:30 - 5:15 p. m.

MUSIC + MEDITATION WORSHIP

"Come When the Chimes Call"