

Governor martin to review Pre-med society Federal training program service units, inspect campus chooses president recruits student dietitians

(Continued from page one)
to the Governor.
The College group will comprise President Ralph D. Hetzel and Mrs. Hetzel; A. O. Morse, S. K. Hostetter, and J. Orvis Keller, assistants to the president; Deans S. W. Fletcher, H. P. Hammond, Frank D. Kern, Carl P. Schott, Edward Stiedle, C. W. Stoddart, M. R. Traube, F. C. Whitmore, Charlotte E. Ray, and A. R. Warnock; W. S. Hoffman, registrar; E. K. Hibshman, alumni secretary; John H. Frizzell, chaplain; C. E. Bullinger, marshal; and L. H. Bell, director of public information.

In addition, members of the College Board of Trustees have been invited to join in the ceremonies.
Faculty members, students, townspeople, and others are invited to witness the military review and to attend the mass meeting which follows. The official party will watch the review from a reviewing stand parallel to Route 322 on the east golf course facing the west.

Special Seating Arrangement.
A special seating arrangement for the mass meeting has been planned, Bullinger said today. All members of military units and of the Blue Band will be assigned to seats on the main floor of the Recreation Building. All others, he said, will be asked to take seats in the balcony—the faculty on the south side, students on the north side, and townspeople and others at the east end.

Under the direction of Hummel Fishburn, a program of music has been arranged, including selections by the wartime Blue Band and group singing.

The Governor will address the gathering briefly. Following the Yale divinity professor, author speaks in chapel

Dr. Henry H. Tweedy of Yale Divinity School, New Haven, Connecticut, will speak on the topic, "Wrestling for a Blessing," in chapel this week. Mr. Tweedy has been coming to the College as a chapel speaker since 1923.

Dr. Tweedy received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from Yale. He was a student of the Union Theological Seminary and won his D.D. degree from the University of Berlin.

The speaker is a joint author of "Moral and Religious Training in the School and Home," "Religion and the War," and "The King's Highway Service." The College Choir will sing "Gird on Thy Sword" by Holst.

convocation, the chief executive and his party will return to the Nittany Lion.

A brief tour of the campus has been arranged for the women members of the party.

Sub-chairmen of the committee on arrangements are: A. O. Morse, program; Dean Warnock, invitations; E. K. Hibshman, itinerary; J. O. Keller, entertainment; C. E. Bullinger, seating; and L. H. Bell, publicity.

Latin films feature columbus day rites

Highlighting the College's observance of Columbus Day will be two films featuring inter-American relations. These films, both with sound and in technicolor, are entitled "Mexico City" and "South of the Border." The latter, produced by Walt Disney, has been received popularly throughout the nation.

Sponsored by the Penn State Inter-American Demonstration Center and the Division of Spanish, Italian, and Portuguese, the films will be shown in 110 Electrical Engineering at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Library displays candid war photograph exhibit

Two sets of candid photographs are now displayed at the entrance lobby of the College Library, according to Robert T. Grazier, chairman of the exhibits committee.

One set entitled "Soldiers with Wings" consists of 25 panels issued by the British Information Service and shows the steps in the training of British paratroopers. The other set, an official U. S. Navy group, depicts the training of naval aviation cadets.

Among the 34 panels of the American sets are photographs of a number of U. S. Navy fighting planes including the F4U Vought-Sikorsky Corsair, the Navy Seagull, the Catalina PB4, and Grumman Avenger. The men pictured are all Pennsylvanians.

Frosh don dinks

All freshman men must wear their dinks to the football game Saturday, Laibe A. Kessler, Tribunal chairman, stated. Kessler reminds frosh that this will be the last time they will have to wear customs.

Thomas W. Guinivan was elected president of the Pre-Medical Society at its meeting recently. Other officers include Roy E. DeLaney, vice-president; John J. Matternas, treasurer; and Vaughn Long, secretary.

A new executive committee was appointed at the meeting and is headed by Guinivan as senior class representative; James A. Johnston, junior class representative; June Hause, sophomore member; Roy DeLaney will serve as representative of the council at large.

Several lecturers have already been contacted to present a series of speeches in conjunction with the society's program for next semester, according to Guinivan.

There will be no more meetings this semester, Guinivan added.

Technicality delays vote on finals plan

(Continued from page one)
"(2) That in case the student chooses not to take the final examination, his decision shall have no effect on his final grade.

"(3) That in case the student does choose to take the final examination in an effort to raise further his grade, the final examination will contribute to a possible change in the usual manner."

Results of Collegian surveys indicating student and faculty approval of the idea, and statements of the seven School deans reading it, were presented. The suggestion was made that because of the nearness to final examination week, the plan be adopted on a permissive basis, with each professor deciding whether the proposal should be applied in his classes.

Before discussion had resolved into a final accounting, however, it was suggested that no vote could be taken, but that the measure should be referred back to the Committee on Academic Standards for further investigation. The Committee was instructed to make a full report on the proposal at the next meeting, following which the legislative body will render its verdict.

The next meeting is scheduled for November 4, exactly two weeks after the last final examination for this semester.

Asking people to take a back seat means they'll take affront.

Positions as student dietitians and apprentice dietitians are available with the Civil Service, according to the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

Positions for apprentice dietitians exist in selected Army hospitals throughout the country for a six-month apprenticeship at a salary of $1,440 a year less a deduction of five per cent toward a retirement annuity. Women successfully completing this will be eligible for an appointment in the Army as Medical Department dietitian with relative rank as second lieutenant.

Applications may be made to Washington 25, D. C., for information and necessary forms. Title of examination desired should be stated.

Applicants must have either:

1. Completed a 6-month training program in an approved course for student dietitians including work in a special diet kitchen and ward service, private patient, service, pediatrics (including formulae preparation, out-patient clinic, and administration (including purchasing, ordering, accounting, and menu planning);
2. Or had one year's experience as a dietitian in a hospital of at least 200-bed capacity including all types of work mentioned under

1. 3. Or had two years' college teaching of food, nutrition, or institution management;
4. Or had two years' high school teaching of food and, in addition, management of school lunch room or school cafeteria serving 200 or more people at each meal;
5. Or had two years in the management and direction of a school lunch program or an industrial or commercial food service serving 200 or more people at each meal;
6. Or had two years of nutrition work with a social service or public health agency.

Applicants must have completed a full four-year course leading to a bachelor's degree in a college or university of recognized standing including or supplemented by the following: chemistry (general, organic, and physiological or food chemistry), biology, social sciences, food preparation and meal planning, nutrition, institution management, and quantity cookery.

Take Care of Cases

Take good care of egg cases and packing material. If each egg case can be made to take one more trip, it will help in the war effort, remind College poultry specialists.

NOW signalmen can wear helmets with this new headset!

SIGNALMEN formerly saw action without helmets because old-style headsets were too bulky. Now miniature receivers with earplugs are being used for both radio and telephone work.

Fitting snugly under the helmets they give better reception by keeping out battle noise... they are cooler, more comfortable.

Signal Corps engineers working with Western Electric and Bell Telephone Laboratories developed this new all-purpose military headset.

Here is another instance of Bell System service to our nation at war.

War calls keep Long Distance lines busy... That's why your call may be delayed.

Have a Coca-Cola = Howdy, Neighbor

It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called "Coke".

from Arizona to Australia

At home or abroad, when the American soldier says Have a "Coke" to a stranger, he's made a new buddy. From Minneapolis to Melbourne, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes —has become the mark of the good neighbor.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY COCA-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY OF ALTOONA

-the global high-sign